ADTES-In spare as in spare time a constraint soling our wood constraint constraint soling our wood constraint soling solin MOTHER'S COMPANION NEW WILLIAMS SEWING TICHLE The Williams Mik. Co. Ltd. West LIAVE YOU A HORSE? All she ever been lame if it rouble in any disease of the FEET Campell Card for FREN book on FREE Campell is of the same, to JACKSON & STREET CARD CHEMIST, 72 Mpadina Ave., Torono DO YOU IMAGINE

HEARLIE. WRITE FOR PARTICULARS-

CANADA PERMANENT

LOAN AND SAVINGS COMPANY. Invested Capital, - $12,000,000 Hoad Office, Toronto St., Toronto, The ample and increasing resources of this omneny, enable its birectors tomakendvance of REAL ESTATE securities to any amount either the towest current rate of access, and on the most favorable trate of access, and on the most favorable trans of access, and on the most favorable trans and on resinct, ye town and city properties.

Mortgage and Dehentures purchised, Application may be made thorough the local appraisers of the impany or to J. Herbert Mason, Managing Director, Toronto.

NOW NEICHBOUR on't set mixed, but go right down town and buy the VILAED PAINTS or ! tell your deder you have no use firmy other. He know well enough the firm which makes them has been estab-lished 50 years, and that firm is . RAMSAY & SON, - MONTRBAL Elice the mist matrific is first yet discovered. One pound of 12 has, Bread, Blee equals 11 has, Potatics, H of the people in the World subsist nearly

Mount Rayal Hilling & Mil'g Co., A (3 . 2 (1)

Baffles Human Conception, Anture's all-powers, he are is discovered and when imbibed freely radiates the arterial network of the body absorbs Nature's all-powerful network of the body, absorbs and rushes of all effete, deadly pois-onous matter. Also it Contains all the sixteen stores herve and vits

So say all that use St. Leon Water. World, Feb. 13th, 1892.

John Bull Steel Plate Range. FOR COAL AND WOOD. LATEST AND REST. EVERLASTING

ition Life J. K. MACDONALD,

Managing Director

- $22,000,000 - - $4,000,000 rs, - - $2,250,000

2 is WELL IN ADVANCE ANY PREVIOUS YEAR.

S FREE: CONDITIONS as to and Occupation.

O YEARS.

TO FEED

Then do it economically. your Grain with a

Chopper

hels per hour and bags the

URFACES: Best French , unequalled for durability. S, - Brantford, Can ft

BEYOND RECALL

with led me to believe then that with led me to believe then that four secret. On the other side of at the major—faul less in dress, mit upright, the very type of a int he found something to sav to he constable Jennings, was in gatheran in a gown and wig, who to my solution got up. This grounded. At first he spoke of antigental way, as if he entirely develoly examined all the win was nothing to lead you to sup

Voere were no lights on the

was a light in the servants' room en was bouthing up when we daint take you to dentify him as was if at erec.

The carr who fired the shot?"

description of bantering tone. was locked up in the

we shall prove that you bear was then called. Ho

" " " at, sir. He might with the lag."
The he did not tell you by the man he had outh ho said nothing

ets out of work, hangtable, and went out in a flaming suit.

Lifer that a gentleman called, very 3 to see him or know where he might sel if she saw the gentleman in court, es, sir, and, " with the tenderness she d in the negaand Samulers went

had once before shown me, "I'm sorry CHAPTER IX

NY TRIAL IS BRUUN.

NY TRIAL IS BRUUN.

The shipping agent testified to my taking a berth for America—to my anxiety to gettaway next day, to my paying for a telegram—to secure a berth, and to my inquiries about trains to Liverpool, adding, an inspiriting me. I've ther deadly all told all this to the detective who came to make inspiriting me.

inquiries about trains to Liverpool, adding, greener to a more suitable dress with this show of liope. As our eyes to make inquiries about trains to Liverpool, adding, "I told all this to the detective who came to make inquiries, that was about an hour had seen him go into the outfitter's over the way."

The outfitter added his testimony.

The servants discharged by Mr. Thane, under examination, accordingly declared they know nothing about me, and had seen him go into the outfitter's over the way."

The outfitter added his testimony.

The servants discharged by Mr. Thane, under examination, accordingly declared they know nothing about me, and had seen him go into the outfitter, and they way."

The servants discharged by Mr. Thane, under examination, accordingly declared they know nothing about me, and had seen him and lipe seen know in the detective I had seen him go into the outfitter, and they was about an hour to make inquiries.

othe feet of thick fog by still?"

"Yos."
"Now, while you were looking out of the window did you see "nything of the prisoner on the verandah?"
"Yes I saw the prisoner on the verandah." What distance was he from you?" "He was close to pie. I could have laid my hand on him."
"But you did not lay your hand upon him?"
"No."
"Did you raise an alarm or call attentio pected of you, major. May I ask why you let him go?!.

"Because I did not feel myself called upon to prevent his escape."

'You were sufficiently interested in him, however, to go down and see what became of him when he dropped from the veran dah.

trongly some men's convictions were bias strongly some mon's convictions were biassed by their collections. The most damning ovidence against the prisoner was undoubtedly that reluctantly given by Major Cleveden, or perhaps he should with greater justice say those words out of the prisoner's own mouth which the gallant officer had very ploperly repeated in his evidence.

The jury must suddenly set at liberty, with the fixed and desperate determination to make the most of the spance a forded him, inflamed with a desire to shield his wife from the degrading

"Yes."
"You were also sufficiently recovered from your apathy to charge yourself with the safe-keeping of the pricence?".

"I did charge myself with that reconsitold how Saumeet bility."

from the cone gave you a lamp, and yo took prisoner into a toolhouse in the bery?"

"Yos."
"How long did you guard the there before he escaped?" "About twenty minutes." Some questions were put as to our relative positions in the toolhouse, etc., and the ositions in the toolhouse, etc., and then the counsel continued :"Now, major, will you tell me how the

"Now, major, will you tell me how the prisoner contrived to escape?"

Upon this the counsel for the defence rose quickly and said—

"The witness is not compelled to give any and lead escaped, he have it was I who had the work of the witness is not compelled to give any answer that may incriminate himself. If it can be proved that the prisoner committed murder, and that he escaped by the ulipable negligepee of witness, charged with his safe-keeping, witness is liable to prosecution as an accessory to the murder.

A zharp discussion followed, and then the counsel for the prosecution proceeded. counsel for the prosecution proceeded.
"We will waive that question, and supposing that the prisoner found means to get his hands free from the handsuff found in his hands froe from the handeuffs found in the town had never seen me thindy was put in the state of the to keep her to the state of the seen had a state of the seen had therefore of the sale had the treed to exhaust not have come up had not been served by the state of the seen of the prosecution, he seid—

"I have no wish to evade the consequence of the seen of what I have done. I say again the prisoner used no violence whatever; I never swearing nor drink and treadfully

"Your candor commands respect," said of lessine. She had seen me starvashing worse every day, and fore-like in the counsel, with a note of triumph. "And lessing worse every day, and fore-the in the counsel, with a note of triumph. "And less in the counsel, with a note of triumph. "And less in the counsel, with a note of triumph. "And less in the counsel, with a note of triumph. "And less in the counsel, with a note of triumph. "And less in the counsel, with a note of triumph. "And less in the counsel, with a note of triumph. "And less in the counsel, with a note of triumph. "And less in the counsel, with a note of triumph. "And less in the counsel, with a note of triumph. "And less in the counsel, with a note of triumph." I would be a note of triumph. "And less in the counsel, with a note of triumph. "And less in the counsel, with a note of triumph. "And less in the counsel, with a note of triumph. "And you liberated him."

in the coules I now wore, and saw home with an kome with an inv hat, and my he clothes I now wore, and saw long with all ma mans of yellow mud, and he was guiltless."

"What reason had you will he was guiltless."

"I know that he had come to the house that he had come to the house with his wife!" he had fallen in a ditch," suggest- to visit his wife," "You knew that his wife was an inm that, sr. And he had a lot of gold, of Mr. Thane's household!"

"Yes."
"Had you seen prisoner previous to finding him on the vorandah under your window?"
"Yes."
"Wnere?"

Set if she saw the gentleman in court, to the saw the major at once.

As he passed the library door on his two in another disguise, and having way from the conservatory to the stairs.

Did he see you there?

No. When I rose to relight my lamp I found I had no jvests. I knew I had left my box downstairs. I went down to fetch them when I left them behind.

As it," she replied. "I brushed 'em present in the condition now she with the when I left them behind."

The present in the condition now she with the more in the condition now she were in the condition now she with the present in the condition of the library door on his two major the passed the library door on his two major to the passed the library door on his two major the passed the library door on his two passed in the passed t vent. I will not deny."

on thought they might get him into le, and you brushed them, feeling kind-"Was he alone?"
"No; his wife led the way."

"Can you tell us the woman's name?"
"I decline to do so. The prisoner has know that you are a fool.

At crample in the course he has taken which I should be base indeed to go from The prisoner may have particular reson for his reticence." PRESERVING NATIVE ANIMALS. So have I ; she is a woman." handle Ranch. So have I; she is a woman."
Amurmur ran through the court; but glance at my solicitor showed that he, not share this sentiment of approval.
"The prisoner and his wife did not you as they rassed through the hall?"
"No."

then how did you know he

"Had you seen prisoner previous to th "I did not know it until she came to "I did not know it until she came to the toolhouse and told me."
"Kow, major, the day after this affair you showed yourself particularly anxious to communicate with the prisoner, and the result of your communication was that he bolted at once.
A liaison between prisoner and one of Mr. Thane's servants is not such a terrible after as to account for your excessive solicitude in preventing its discova terrible attair as to account for your excessive solicitude in preventing its discovery. Answer me with your wonted candor had you not reason to fear that his apprehension involved something more than this discovery?

"I had."

"Had you no reason to apprehend that the arrest of prisoner would condemn an innocent and unfortunate woman to suffer for the rest of her life the shame and degradition of being known as the widow of a condemned mirderer?"

The major-closed his lips for a moment, and then said, distinctly—being evertakent who admitted hivings been in the neighbor hood for ten hys with his accomplication for ten hys with his accomplication of the still attached to the wall, with indications on the clayey edge of the ditch below that a map lead fallen there, and this was further corroborated by the horizonteal by the first corroborated by the corroborated by the horizontel corroborated by the hir as and lead fallen there, and this was further corroborated by the statement of the woman with whom I lo leed; and my description of the man's communication to me was equally borle out by the residents in Ham, who had noticed these men hanging about. There was, therefore, no reason

"I lad."

They belong in a country where they can Maintoba.

They belong in a country where they can feet they can be reflected by the more was possible to raise eik. They calvo every year when old enough, the nicest possible to raise eik. They calvo every year when old enough. The trouble about keeping places to sleep and play in. The other dogs were kind to him, and he was apparently perfectly happy. He grew fat and sleek, and bore little resemblance to the half-starved creature whom Peter had berought home from the mountains, where they can get at grape-vines and twigs. That is why the moose don't do very well on the prairie. Those-L.

There was, therefore, no reason corroberated by the statement of the woman with whom I lolged; and my description of the man'scommunication to me was equally borne out by the residents in Ham, who had noticed these men hanging about. There was, therefore, no reason to discredit my, story so far, but there was still this question to be answered. Did the prisoner find the ladder and get over the wall before Naunders was shot or after! With regard to the evidence of the contable, Jennings, there were strong reasons for doubting its accuracy. Without committing perjury, he might state that which was not true, a paradox which hall could understand who have observed how strongly some men's convictions were biasised by their evidencians the wond in some proweing. They don't do be well on grass alone. Their home is in he mountains, where they can get at grape-vines and twise. There were strong for the contable Jennings, there were strong from the North, from Manitoba. They belong in a country, where they can be a country where they can be mountains, where they can get at grape-vines and twises. The mountains, where they can be mou turns black shortly before an approaching rain, while in line weather it is mottled with spots of white. A London schoolboy brought to his teacher a letter from a physician, stating that this boy is unfit to attend school for 304 days." The long and rather exact period named aroused the teacher's suspicions, and he discovered that the physician had written "3 or 4 days." This the boy had changed to "304 days."

A giant sunshade, which is intended as a present for the Sultan of Morocco, has just been completed at Berlin. The stick, which is over. 34 yards long, is gilded and richly ornamented. The outside of the parasol is of bright green silk, with a heavy gold frince, round it, while the inside is lined with pale straw colour.

A big hole in the ground has been discovered by a well-digger in the town of A London schoolboy brought to his teac

OLD BATTLE SHIPS.

the Humble Pate That Awalts Even the The Buffale and Deer to be Seen on a Fanks addic Ranch.

Cars run twelve miles in crossing one man's dooryard in the Texas Panhandle. They stop midway. The brakeman shouts "Goodinght," with the emphasis on the first syllable. As the train slows one can see an avenue of shade frees leading south from the neat station for a half a mile. The avenue ends at the broad veranda of a tattily painted mansion. The house is a striking centre of a group of shops, stables and sheds. To all points of the compass stretch the plains as far as vision can follow. The contrast of the well-painted buildings, the green avenue, and brown plains with their wire-fonce divisions is sharp. The scene is fascinating. But something more marvelled to us claims the eye. Buffale are grazing on the first station to the American down, some grazing. Some looking with the cover the face of the plain, some lying down, some grazing; some looking with the beseen nowhere else upon the American Continent. The younger fawns of the class of the plate of the plain and deer and antelope are so the contrast of the whole to be seen nowhere else upon the American continent. The younger fawns of the class of the plate of the plate of the plate of the plate of the contrast of the whole to be seen nowhere else upon the American Christian world,"was accidentally destroyed by fire at Clatham, after method would be proved the contrast of the whole to be seen nowhere else upon the American Christian world, "was accidentally destroyed by fire at Clatham, after method would not to be paralleled in the whole to the carm and attent of the contrast of the whole to the carm and attent of the class of the plate of the contrast of the whole to the carm and attent of the contrast of the whole to the carm and attent of the class of the plate of the contrast of the contrast of the world of the class of the contrast of the world of the class of the class of the contrast of the waste of the contrast of the contrast of the waste for the contrast of the waste found to the class o months—a year passed. Peter was satisfied the man would never come back.

Six months more went by, M. de Cherville was out in his yard one day, when he heard a great barking and yelping in the direction of the high, barred iron front gate. He looked; there was Saqui, leaping, boundary that the looked; there was Saqui, leaping, boundary to the state of the same of the high, barred iron front gate. He looked; there was Saqui, leaping, boundary to the same of the same of the back on weniences for cleaning them on the cars.

Their sleeping apartments at the same of th was out in his yard one day, when he heard a great barking and yelping in the direction of the high, barred iron front gate. He looked; there was Saqui, leaping, bounding, whirling, hurling himself against the bars in an ecstasy of delight; and on the

HOUSEHOLD

Poople who live in the country are proverbially hospitable. The comparative isolation of their lives prompts them to eagerly "welcome the coming guest," it is often the fault of their lives prompts them to eagerly "appeared the parting guest," it is often the fault of the latter. When I was a child and lived in the country, I think we were never without visitors, during the fruit season at least. I used to wonder what mother meant, them, after the unusually long stay of some more acquaintance, I heard her ay, "Some people would hang themselves if you gave them enough rope." As that person seldom made a socond visit, in after years I comprehended my mother's remark.

It makes a difference where you are visiting, and many of these suggestions will only apply to those who are staying with friends in moderate circumstances, who keer only one servant, or perhaps none at all. In this spoomful of baking powder, one capful of sugar, one cupful of pastry flour, one teaspoonful of vinegar or lemon fuice as the last in contract of vinegar or lemon fuice as the last in the standard servant of vinegar or lemon fuice as the last in the standard servant of vinegar or lemon fuice as the last in the standard service where you are visiting, and many of these suggestions will only the suggestions of vinegar or lemon fuice as the last in the standard service whose vinegar or lemon fuice as the last in the standard service used to sugar, one cupful of pastry flour, one teaspoonful of vinegar or lemon fuice as the last interposate as the redark steps in the standard service used to producing the dread calamity incompressing the the staires gives us one of the surget meant to producing the dread calamity incompressing the staires gives us one of the aurely meant to producing the dread calamity inpost of producing the dread calamity inposition of producing the dread calamity inposi For Those Who Visit applysto those who are staying with friend on in moderate circumstances, who keep only in moderate circumstances, who keep only one servant, or perhaps none at al. In this case, it seems to me, the first thing you ought to do is to make your stay a short one. Unless you are so situated that you ought to do is to make your stay a short one. Unless you are so situated that you can cordially ask your friend to return the visit, it is a pretty safe rule not to go at an ordially ask your friends. When you are on a visit, adapt yourself the possible, before you are asked at what hour you like to breakfast, ascertain the labits your pleasure in conforming to them. Remember that intheylnorning your friends which require her attention, and see that which we require her attention, and see that which require her attention is a large that the proposition of the pretty here are capable of having a good time by your self. It is a sealy our reading or writing in senjoying herself. Speaking of writing it is enjoying herself. Speaking of your beta to the down when the healt term is an abady corner of the orchard or law will feel all t o satisfaction of a generous

And the state of t

The little one, with his weight half sum that FOREIGN NEWS

The little one, with his weight half suppanded, suddenly drope upon (one) hip in a style way as to bring the whole weight of the foody upon that part. This get being repeated as many times as therefore steps in the sairs gives us one of the sure; means of producing the dread calamity known as my joint disease.

Your we think of the extract: Trailty of the air-loint in these little ones.

small pillow will also be found a convenience.

A large travelling-bag, with two compartments, is desirable, devoted exclusively to the baby's use, in which may be kept a cup and alcohol lamp for warming the milk, also, fresh and soiled diapers. A case made of rubber cle th is necessary for the latter, although many mothers use squares of old cotton cloth when travelling, to be thrown away as they are changed.

Her Majesty, as is well known, is possible thrown and a writer gives some interest cotton cloth when travelling, to be thrown away as they are changed. Pets in Which Her Majesty Takes & Gree a great barking and yolping in the direction of the high, barred iron front gate. He looked; there was Saqui, leaping, bounding, whirling, hurling himself against the bars in an ecstasy of delight; and on the other side of the gate was a ragged girl about twelve years old.

"He's our Tapin," screamed the girl; and on the other side of the gate was a ragged girl about twelve years old.
"He's our own little dog; dear Tapin! But how fat he's got."

The dog was licking ber hands through the bars and whining with joy. The girl turned away—the dog trying valinly to force his gage. This will keep the milk fresh and sway—the dog trying valinly to force his for 304 for 304 region of the same extravagant joy at seeing him. The man declared that he had been until twollde be gate that well to take a few of his familiar playthings that are small enough. Some of the Royal for magine that mutilating a log glad to it familiar playthings that are small enough. Some of the Royal for delicent to enough to contain this lot. He was the bars and whining with joy. The girl turned away—the dog trying valinly to force his familiar playthings that are small enough. Some of the Royal for delicent to enough to notice his strange surposed in the respective of the surpose of the cars and the cars and the cars are strained as the looked; the his location of the bars and whining with joy. The girl turned and way after her—and presently returned with for 304 the same extravagant joy at seeing him. The man declared that he had been until twould be prepared bedrehand, which is loot. He had been until twelve years old.

"He's our Tapin," screamed the girl; the baby, should be prepared bedrehand, which should be prepared bedrehand, and better the baby should be prepared bedrehand, and better the baby should be prepared bedrehand, and put into a bottle tightly corke a singlification of the baby should be prepared bedrehand, and better the baby should be prepared bedrehand, and put into a bottle tightly corke a singlification of the baby should be p

A company has been formed at Copen-lagen with the object of building a perman-erat Biffel Tower in that city. The tower, which will be built of steel and iron, and which will be lighted by electricity, is to be 1870 feet in height. A Vienna correspondent telegraphs: It is announced from St. Petersburg and Brince Krapotkin, a wealthy young heutenapp, has committed suicide in that city. The papers are not allowed to report on the sublight, and even in inditary circles nothing in a superson of the causes of the sub-The marriage of H. R. H. Princess Marie of Edinburgh with H.R. H. Prince Ferdinard of Roumania will taket place on the light January max at Signaringen, the residence of the parents of the oristogram.

The German Emperor's money matters have steadily grown more barassing. He is said to be so deeply involved with money lynders that the court officials have difficulty gotting their salaries. Complete statistics of the great fire at St. Complete statistics of the great fire at St. Februs, Nowfoundhard, have just been issued. The number of houses destroyed was 1850, the number of families burned out 1874, and the total number of persons burness. out 10.234.

An English company is being formed to the acclimatization of elephants in South America. The valley of the Amazon and its tributaries are thought to be very suitable for elephant farming. nonneed. Born on the steps of a throne, the thirteenth son of Francis I, of Naples, the thirteenth son of Francis I, of Naples, died in a garret; tor the very modest lodgings he occupied on the fourth floor of a liquise in the Rue Montaigne were little better. The deceased Prace fought galliantly in defence of the kingdom of his lighty in the lad been a great invalid for years, and lived an absolutely fettred life. Who says the old goldfolds of Australia or okhausted? At Bendigo, where they have been diligently extracting the precious digids exceeded the edit by 255,0 0. The depend shaft is Mr. G. Lousei's No. Iso, where they are getting gold at a depth of feror of cremation. A commettee of the Royal Society of Victoria which was apnew animation and the expense of a memoral u.b. The cost of carriage most depend upon the wishes and position of the monances.

There has been a new development of the Asstralian frozen meat trade. In teresating stores have necessablished at Peat One hundred and twenty a vest engine the 15th of this meet a second with was valued at 1 . . . . . Some while ago a hery in gore with a good activity in a file to reiner, a glering from a necessive standard restands and the following the first large days, the door a processor their last and issued a reference to the fight in the eleventh but are be posteroid. If the first post of the fact of the fact of the first post of the fact of plying a merop lone to anonomous decreased; and the hurned out to be the barren of the President's chan, had someth. The yeas being instructional testing to vale via softton and tecords his year, key with the noss.

A Chicago man bays in all

But of travelling drumners we natured to being called a square. One night he had proposed when a terrific stars, in my and three distinct one tounded, close to the hotel, S. 'A murder has i cen vo. stroyed, and all the very y stolen. In a back room dy of the servant; so marks of a man's in green on her throat. Care free is the heplow of the suse. The murder second immitted on the day of the second in on that evening the second account, who was previously known in thous money, change 1 % A curious statement is a er to the American and the funous nurry are set 5, 1889, is made by 15, and in this new book of 11, and a Samoa. "It will be a set of the set o thite nationspreper con-prriesne the three violati three German was so pia were wrecked too the cen merchant vesses. I quaped, and she steamed so the ear and gutrode the storm Mr. Seven an eave the es of the war sinps was "dies", political han a nautical catastropia. Union codin' ry circumstances, he say, they would and had all have steamed on Softine nation at ave easily escaped. But the realous and ostile feeling between the firmous and intricans was so great tied, eather was at I inclined to up anchor and steam out to irtain safety leaving the other in occupa-on of the harbor. Mr. Stevenson idlines ie Germans for the whole of the trouble in uring his travels in MeMeo. It was drag-ged out into the open ground by two horses and was found to measure their y seven feet a length. Inside of it were descripted the planes and flesh of a horse in a half dige stell party and there was no doubt that it had availowed the animal whole. Dr. Grandner ythons and Boas attain a length of over one having been encountered longer than at which has been mentioned, though many raons have seen scrpents alive which they timate to be of considerably greater size.

The Largest Serpent The largest scrpent of which as mate

Show me the man you hoad. I know by at symptom, better that I y any other, at symptom, better that ly any other, that kind of a man you are yenself; for you show me what your ideal of manicod what kind of a man you long inexpress-

If we would have powerful minds we

Waterous nd screens the grain, grinds