

Markdale Standard.

O. W. Rutledge, Proprietor.

MARKDALE SEPTEMBER 21, 1893.

The Premier of Canada Coming!

The Hon. Sir John S. D. Thompson Premier of Canada. The Hon. Geo. E. Foster. The Hon. Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper.

The Ministers also desire to meet and be interviewed by as many of the representatives of the Patrons of Industry, Farmers' Institutes, Agricultural Associations or other representative organizations of farmers as can attend.

Markway.

Mr. Burfield has been indisposed of late. Mrs. Angus has also ill. Mr. Hoagland Smith is having his well drilled.

Kimberley.

The farmers are getting through with their hay and the grain is turning out fairly well. There are a plentiful crop of this season and there appears to be a good demand for them, but prices are very scarce.

Marwell.

The Rev. W. Jones purchased for himself a coat. The Rev. E. Woodger has a new hat. Mr. Little and Bella returned from Toronto Saturday.

Woodhouse.

Here is a thing of the past. The year is fairly good. Not many of this side attended the Toronto Exhibition this year. Some made a honey moon of it.

SCHOOL BOOKS.

Great variety of school books, slates and pencils for opening of school. W. Turner & Co.

Walter's Falls.

Mr. S. Marshall is now booming things in the threshing line. His new engine works well and everything hums.

Champion Big Foot.

Champion Big Foot evidently resides in this locality. When one of them is removed from a buggy there is room for a better one.

Summer complaint.

Take Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. Stephen's Drug Store.

The Laurier Demonstration.

A large gathering attended the demonstration at the town of Durham on Monday last to hear the Hon. Wilfrid Laurier.

Eugenia.

It may be said the harvest is past (we don't mean in the sense in which the prophet Jeremiah used these words twenty-five hundred years ago).

Thanks.

I take this means of thanking a number of my customers for waiting on me so long and so patiently.
