Since the publication in these columns some months ago of the particulars of the marvellous cure wrought on Mr. William Moore by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, there has been a largely increased demand in this section for this sovereign remedy for the many ills that week human flesh is heir to, and the druggists report an immense sale. That Dr. Williams' Pink Pills possess gonuine merit does not admit of a shadow of doubt. Not a week passes that cures of long standing ing illness are not reported through the company and the long of the particulars of the marvellous cure when the want to said the long, getting up and slapping he arms are used to be selected in the solution of the large of the long of the property of the use of the long of the large of th Not a week passes that cures of long standing illness are not reported through the agency of this marvellops remedy, and columns might be filled with the experiences of persons who have been restored to vigorous health by reason of their life-giving properties. A very noticeable case has been brought to the attention of the Freeholder, and that the facts might be given for the benefit of other suffering mortals we have taken the trouble to verify them.

Those who were intimate with Mr. Blondin sympathized deeply with him in the heavy affliction he suffered for many years in the continued illness of his wife, who from a complication of diseases was unable to render any but the slightest assistance in household matters, which were perforce left to himself and his small children. Mr. Blondin at that time lived in the north-west part of the town, which, for lack of drainage is rather unhealthy; and to the bad sanitary condition of his house, among the other causes, Mr. Blondin attributes his wife's breakdown. Mr. Blondin now resides over reakdown. Mr. Blondin now resides over he old post office, and when the reporter alled there he was introduced to Mrs. Blondin, who appeared well and hearty and certainly very far removed from the wreck of humanity such as she must have been of humanity such as she must have been from all accounts, a few months ago.

"I wish you could tell me something about your case, Mrs. Blondin," said the reporter, "though I should hardly think from your looks you had been an invalid."

"Well sir," said Mrs. Blondin, "I was for several years a very sick woman. I had a constant racking headache, no appetite, my skin was dry and pecling off, I had pains in my back, neck and shoulders, and was constantly tired and indeed very miserable." ole."
"Yes," interjected Mr. Blondin, "I be
