CONGRATULATIONS.—Messrs. W. Douglas, W. Bush and H. L. Douglas of Markdale registered at the Globe Monday evening.

AMERICAN CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY NEW YEAR to all my customers. R. J. Watson, harness maker and undertaker, Walters Falls.

The February issue of the Heliconian is called the "Midwinter Number" and contains articles and notices and entertainment. For sale at Turner's drug store.

No Christmas.—Charles S. Luckey was hanged on Thursday last at Bruceville for the murder of his father, step-mother and sister. He protested his innocence to the last.

Owing to circumstances over which the management had no control the proposed free social entertainment at the Methodist church on the evening of Christmas day has been abandoned.

CHRISTMAS TREE.—A Christmas Tree will be held in 70 school house, No. 6, Holland, Thursday, Dec. 21, which will include a program and an excellent time is promised. Admission 15 and 10 cents. Miss McCormick, Teacher.

CHRISTMAS BOX.—Markdale stores present a magnificent holiday appearance. The display of Xmas woods is gorgeous and inviting. The demand for long stockings will surely be great.

The official figures in the late North Bruce election are: McNaughton 1640, George 1120, Pearson 901. This gave the patron a clear majority over George of 548, and over Pearson 610.

Fines in the Methodist church are now being paid for 1893. Poor households can retain their sabbath by applying to the new steward, C. W. Rutledge, any time up to the 29th and settling for same.

O. S. TEMPS.—Mr. R. McNally, of Markdale, one of the staunch members of "Old 180," came up for the I. O. O. F. at home on Tuesday. He was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Christie, Campbell street.

Come quick and supply yourself with a genuine Christmas box at Markdale's Carriage Works. Splendid cutters selling for two weeks at reduced prices. Working all a merry Xmas and happy New Year. Yours truly, R. McNally.

The annual tea meeting of the Presbyterian church, Markdale, will be held on the evening of New Year's day in the church when addresses by the local clergyman and others are expected, together with appropriate music. See posters for particulars.

REV. Mr. Edwards preached two able and highly appreciated sermons to large congregations in the Methodist church last Sunday. The morning was the funeral service of the late Arthur A. Askin, and was very appropriate.

We have received a copy of the Toronto Junction Ledger, a tri-weekly one cent paper, published by A. H. Pascoe. Fred Everett will have his hands full getting out four papers a week. He won't have time for any monkeying with his grip. We wish him success, however, with his new venture.

REDUCED FARES.—Return tickets at single fare will be issued between all stations on the 22nd, 23rd, 24th and 25th; also on the 29th, 30th and 31st Dec. and 1st January 1894 good to return on the 2nd. Round ticket at a fare and a third will also be issued on Dec. 22, 23, 24 and 25 good to return up to January 2.

Mr. R. W. Buzarr has resigned his position as head master of our school having been engaged to take charge of the public school at Markdale. During his stay with us Mr. Bright has proved himself to be a very efficient teacher and our loss will be Markdale's gain. Miss Husband has accepted a position as teacher of the junior department of our school for the year 1894 at a salary of three hundred dollars.—Tilsonburg Observer.
