MARKDALE, MAY 10, 1894.

Harkaway.

Several patches have been loosing grain occassionally last winter and this spring, Messrs. Carbert and Bassett being the first to notice it. Mrs. Burnett has lately lost about 40 bushels oats.

Master George Neely, son of Mr. Thomas Neely, met with a terrible accident the other evening, while driving the team attached to a waggon with set harrows thereon. While driving down a sharp descent the bottom boards and harrows slid forward striking the horses which caused them to run away. They ran about thirty rods when the tongue of the waggon broke and ran into the ground upsetting the harness. Geo has two ribs broken and some bad bruises. He is some easier at time of writing.

Beaverdale.

Business is booming in Beaverdale.

Good intentions but a sad mistake. One of our enterprising farmers in order to save his potatoes, thought to cover his pit with manure, but to his surprise in the spring found he had covered a snow drift twelve yards away. It saved the potatoes just the same.

The black and yellow cart is on the go yet, but they don't get loft like the nice buggy and heavy harness.

There is some talk of Best putting an addition to his dwelling. Success Will.

Bonar says our foreclosure thinks of taking his departure for the far north west. We regret losing such an enterprising merchant.

Temple Hill gypsies were scouring Beaverdale on Sunday, horse trading, with but poor success.

Our Durham correspondent has been completely misinformed with regard to a tea-party being held at Mr. Jas. Ryans. No such event took place on my Thursday evening. There is a vast difference between a tea-party and a tea-party although some people are not aware of the fact. A person writing for any paper should be certain as to the correctness of news before inserting it.

Miss May Sullivan, who has been laid up for some time with a bruised ankle has so far recovered as to be able to be about her duties.

Misses K. and E. Sullivan spent Sunday at their uncle's, Mr. Jas. Sullivan.

Walter's Falls.

Dr. McDougall Meaford and parties from the city were up here last week on a fishing expedition. They succeeded in netting a good catch of the speckled beauties.

Mr. Sypher with his load of goods, gave us a call last week.

Master Chas. Barker spent a few days recently with friends on the Derry Line.

Our G. T. of T. council will give an entertainment on Monday evening May 21st. Mrs. T. Parker is at present visiting friends in the vicinity of Heath Head.

We wonder if there is any reward for climbing through brushheaps.

It is rumored that it was Heighsy around Mt. Forest a certain evening last week.

One of our young men of this neighborhood who did not come to church on Sunday evening last, and as a result was kept waiting around in great suspense, while some one else was out for a walk and was not aware of his presence in the village.

It is reported that two of the young men from Sydenham spent a pleasant evening recently in the vicinity of Mountain View.

The Ladies Aid Society of Knox church, Holland will give a parlor social at the residence of Dr. McLellan, Straithnairn on Friday evening, May 11th. The admission is only 10 cts. A good time is expected.

Lauriston.

Now that seeding is over the boys are anxious to steal a day for fishing.

We are pleased to see Mr. Ed. Bell home again.

Messrs. Francis and George, and Miss Maud Walker are visiting Collingwood friends.

Miss Maggie Walker and Miss Whelan spent Saturday and Sunday in Durham. On their return they were accompanied by Miss Maud Whelan, who intends spending a couple of weeks with her sister.

Miss Lizzie Walker of Holland is spending a few days with Miss Laura Wiggins.

Every job in this part has been given to carpenter Watson; this is surely an indication of his efficiency.

Berkeley.

[illegible] COON QUARTERS.

Berkeley citizens are becoming alarmed as to the fate of their local scribe, possibly after such a noted and active career he feels a lack of mental energy, and has taken a tour, hoping thereby to regain his former vigor. If such should chance to be the case we trust he will pardon us on his return if we at odd times trespass on his territory.

Seeding is over with many of the farmers of this vicinity and they are being charmed with the rapid growth.

Frazier Abbot is at present preparing the timber for John McKenzie's barn.

A large number, among whom was the organizer, attended the meeting of the C. O. O. F. on Saturday night last. Two new members were added to the lodge.

The Berkeley saw mill still runs night and day and rollers in large quantities are being manufactured.

Miss Nora Drinkwater, who has been very sick lately, is now recovering.

Master Willie Walker, after two weeks illness, is now we are pleased to hear, on the mend.

Mr. A. Baines for the next two months acts as teacher at Vandeleur, in place of S. Crane, who is to attend the O. S. C. during said time.

Two Jewish pedlars are in our midst at present.

Last Friday was arbor day at our school and to judge from the appearance of things the time was well employed.

The Late Victor Lang.

The funeral of the late Victor Lang, the unerowned King of Normanby, took place from his late residence at Neustadt on Thursday morning. The attendance at the house is estimated at fully 2,000, and there were 200 well-filled vehicles in the procession which followed the remains on their last sad journey of some four miles to the Carlsruhe Cemetery. Nearly all the county's twenty-two municipalities were represented. Mr. Lang leaves a blank not to be easily filled in South Grey, and especially in his township of Normanby, where he was magistrate and peacemaker, and had the confidence of all classes and creeds. He was a man of many offices having been Inland Revenue officer since 1862, a public school trustee for over twenty years, reeve of his township for eleven consecutive years, Warden of the County in 1887, and chairman of the County Finance Committee for several years past. He was a native of Baden, Germany, and came to Canada as a child. In youth he learned the printing trade, and for nine years conducted a German newspaper, Die Wechter am Sauneen at Neustadt. He leaves a widow and eleven children.

Mary Declared a Strike.

There are two sides of the "labor question" of course. But it must be confessed that we have only scant sympathy for the professional agitator and the walking delegate. The Detroit Free Press turns the tables in the following important individual manner;

The walking delegate never tired of talking of the strike. He held that it was justifiable if ever a strike was, and he was prepared to demonstrate that it was perfectly proper to strike to secure any desired result. He so told his wife and she seemed to agree with him. She said it seemed to be the easiest way of enforcing a demand.

And that night when he came home he found that the table was not set.

"I want a new dress," she said, when he asked what the trouble was.

"I know. You've been bothering me for that dress for a month," he said, "but how about supper?"

"There isn't any" she replied, "this is a strike."

"A strike?"

"Yes a general tie-up. I have been trying to secure a peaceable settlement of this trouble for some time, but now I mean to enforce my rights."

"Mary, do you dare—?"

"Oh, don't talk to me that way. If I can't get you to arbitrate, why, I've got to strike. I don't care if it does block the wheels of trade."

"But Mary, you don't understand."

"Oh yes I do. I've made my demands and they've been refused. I have asked for arbitration with a view to compromise and that has also been refused A strike is all that is left, and I have struck."

"But your demands are unreasonable."

"I don't think they are."

"Your no judge."

"Your the judge of your own demands when you strike, and I'm just as good a judge as you are when I want something. It no use talking. This strike is on."

She folded her arms in a determined way, and he subsided. It was, perhaps, half an hour, when he looked up and said:

"Mary, is the strike still on?"

"It is still on, she replied."

"Aren't you hungry."

No. I saw that there was something in the treasury before the strike was ordered."

"Meaning the pantry?" he asked.

"Meaning the pantry," she returned.

"I believe I'll get a bite" he said.

"It is locked," she replied. "The reserve is to be used simply to keep the strike going. You can't touch the strikers resources."

"Be careful Mary," he said, "If I shut off the cash—"

She laughed, and nodded toward the pantry.

"I can stick it out a week, she replied

Five or ten minutes later he proposed that they compromise on the basis of $10.

"Twenty," she replied firmly.

But that means ruin" he protested. "I can't afford it."

"That's your business," she answered "I offered to arbitrate once."

It was ten o'clock that night when he he finally gave in, and somehow he felt that he had experienced a new phase of the strike business. It looked different from the other side of the fence.

Priceville.

Some of the farmers of this vicinity have already finished seeding.

Mr. McAuley expects to have the carding mill &c., in operation about the first of June. The family are residing in the McLean, establishment, west of the village.

The funeral of the late Donald Ferguson, of Egremont, took place on Tuesday 1st inst. and was very largely attended. The deceased had been ailing for over a year. He left a large family and a widow to mourn their loss.

Mr. Robert J. Watson and wife, of Walters Falls, were visiting their friends here last week. It must be a pleasure to them to have a visit now and then to their native village.

Mr. McLean, of Durham, is at present engaged with Mr. C. C. James, as a harness maker. We hope he will find everything pleasant as well as profitable while here.

Mr. Young, Life Ins. Agent of Mount Forest, was here last week doing business.

Mr. Donald McLeod, of Glenelg, joined the great army of Benedicts last Tuesday. He concluded that it was not good for man to be alone, so he joined hands with Miss Kate Spain of Toronto. We wish the young couple a prosperous voyage through life.

Mr. John McKechnie's knee still keeps weak. He is unable to do any of the spring work.

Miss Annie McKechnie, teacher of S. S., No. 10, Glenelg, treated herself last week with grand new bicycle. She is now in course of training and will soon be able to make a good record.

I made up my mind never to be without B.B.B. in the house, and I can highly recommend it to all.

HARRIET E. HALL, of Waynesville, Ohio, says: "I owe my life to the Great South American Nervine. I had been in bed for six weeks, suffering from an exhausted stomach, nervous prostration, and a general condition of my whole system. I had no hopes of getting well. Had taken medicine from the best doctors, with no relief. The first bottle of your medicine improved me so much that I was able to walk about, and a few bottles cured me entirely. I believe it is the best medicine in the world, and cannot recommend it too highly."

No remedy compares with our Nervine when taken in connection with South American Nervine Tonic for the cure of indigestion and Dyspepsia. Build up the whole system and make a new man of the sufferer. It is a great friend to the weak and nervous. If you do, you may neglect the Nervine or perfectly safe, and yet the most powerful remedy ever discovered for the cure of indigestion and dyspepsia, and will quickly drive away your disease.
