As the people of this vicinity are not as fully represented in the columns of your paper as other parts, I hereby take the liberty of noting a few occurrences of our neighborhood.

Farmers around here are pretty well through with their seeding.

Mr. Phillip Spaulding has erected a kitchen to his house. Mr. Speck did the wood work and Mr. Myers is doing the plumbing.

Mr. Sandy Orer will have his house completed ere long.

Mr. Joseph McCullough has purchased that vacant house of Rich Wood and intends removing it over to his own lot.

That renowned McCarthy man, Mr. John M. Davis passed through here one day last week accompanied by a dairy man from the west buying cows. They bought some which they paid a handsome price for.

Mr. and Mrs. John Overland entertained a number of the young people of the surrounding county at their suburban home on Monday evening of last week up to a late hour. I wonder where the next will be?

Mr. Robert Johnson has his house about completed under the supervision of Mr. Versek.

Fosterhill has a turning out the stumps by the wholesale good uses.

Rocky Mt.

Mrs. Moore is doing some of her best work here.

Mr. R. J. Reeder is going to build a house here, having returned from Markdale Wesleyan College some days ago.

Miss Richardson of Dundalk visited at home here from Friday evening till Monday morning.

Mr. R. H. Henderson of Toronto, R. H. Henderson of Toronto, and Mr. J. H. Henderson of Toronto, are all in town Sunday and Monday.

Mr. W. E. Kilduff, who has been occupying at home here, for his health, is expected to arrive home here this week. Mr. Kilduff's many friends will be pleased to see him and give him a hearty welcome on his return.

Mr. John Wright, tax collector, has been suffering severely for several weeks with a painful ailment of the limbs and a cold confined to his bed in a very serious condition.

Surveyors and draftsmen are busily engaged this week here, preparing a plan of this village.

Our police trustees have commenced street improvements, laying new sidewalks and curbs. The new crossing at Richardson's and Spaulding's corner was much needed and is a decided improvement to Toronto St.

The commodious basement of the Presbyterian church here has been made complete this week, having been finished.

The Singer Sewing Machine Co. have been increasing a large number of ladies, and making an artistic display of needlework at their store in Clayton's block during the past few days.

Miss Sarah Smith leaves this week for a visit in St. Louis.

Miss Rupert has engaged a room in Sprule's block where she receives students and is giving instructions to a class of young artists in the use of paint and brush.

Prof. Mounser is also forming a class here for instruction in elocution.

The Flaxtonian, the factory commenced operations this evening. The grand concert on Friday evening last was excellent. The band occupied the service in front of Mr. Eiler's house, and from there the music could be distinctly heard over the village.

The boys' deserve a commendable hand. Who will move? Don't all speak at once!

All Men.
