C. W. Rutledge, Proprietor.
MARKDALE, JUNE 7, 1894

Priceville.
Mr. John Corbun, has not been very well for some time past. We hope to hear of his recovery at an early date. Our worthy merchant, Mr. Neil McInninn, had the misfortune of straining his back, a few days ago, while helping to raise a box of eggs.

8th Line, Osprey.
The cold wet weather for the past three weeks has been quite a drawback to farmers in preparing for crops. There is a slight improvement in this section if the recent frosts have not been too severe.

Kimberley.
A baseball match was played here on Saturday between the married and single men. The match was a very close one, but the married men won by a score of 10 to 9.

Walter's Falls.
The rainy weather has hindered considerably the preparations for the week-end. The school children will be glad to hear that the school will be in session on Monday evening.

Berkeley.
Owing to the very rainy weather of the past two weeks the crops have become somewhat retarded in their growth and the view from many hills is beginning to wane.
