Surprise Presentation.

The home of Mr. W. A. Brown was taken possession of on Tuesday evening last by about fifty parishioners with baskets in hand and good-will in their hearts and for a couple of hours a genuine social festivity was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Brown hadn't the first intimation of anything of the kind and were therefore genuinely surprised. The following address was read, during the evening, by Mr. W. G. Pickell, S. S. superintendent and a purse of $30 presented by Mr. W. A. Armstrong, assistant choir leader:

MR. W. A. BROWN,

DEAR BROTHER,—We have met this evening for the pleasing purpose of showing you our esteem for yourself personally, and our appreciation of your untiring work in the Choir and Sabbath School of the Methodist Church of Markdale.

For many years your services as Leader in the service of song and Bible Class Teacher in the Sabbath School have been most faithful and unflagging, until now your health demands a rest.

During the time when your home was overshadowed by the great sorrow which came upon yourself and family, you had our heartfelt sympathy and our most earnest prayers, and in your humble and cheerful submission to the will of God in those dark hours, you have shown us how the religion of the Lord Jesus Christ can sustain the true Christian.

In presenting to you this small token of our regard for you, we feel that it is but a mere sign of our well wishes toward you. We trust that your health will be renewed and your life long spared to the Church and your family.

Our prayer is that the great hereafter where with youth renewed and immortal, we shall meet and know each other, your voice so often heard in the songs of earth, may help to swell the song triumphant of the redeemed of every nation and kindred and tongue.

Signed on behalf of the Sabbath School and Choir,

W. G. PICKELL.

Barr-Head.

The employees of Mr. Minnis' mills are of a hospitable disposition and on Friday evening last treated the neighboring young people to a sociable at their boarding house. Some were conspicuous by their absence and others by their presence; some are fond of music and dancing and still others will take to education. The supper was abundantly satisfying but the head sawyer would prefer helping his best girl at table than "Ary one else doing the gallant. After tea a chew of gum was passed around—kind of desert, eh? Indecision is liable to cause mental unrest, and such was evident in some quarters, but Joshua was all Wright at times anyway. All went merrily until the day began to dawn, professors Bowers and Galyin furnishing excellent music all the while, and the guests prepared for home, when lo and behold 2nd Samuel was missing, but it was concluded that he was safe, as it was noticed through the evening that he had taken a biblical turn of mind and had gone home with the cause of his conversion. The cheese maker and two others proposed seeing one young lady home safely but 1st Samuel would have no partnership business and acted as chaperon himself. The perplexities, embarrassment and mental strain on such occasions can only be understood by those who have "been there."
