MARKDALE, JULY 5, 1894

POLITICAL.

The result of the late Ontario election is a subject of comment varying in complexion according to the party bias of the person or paper making the statement. There are three distinct parties at least, none of which have a majority over the other two combined, so that to say the least, the situation is not satisfying to any, "we believe the Patrons hold the more enviable position of the lot."

McNichol's majority in South Grey was 600—a slender one.

Dynes of Huron was ahead 500—again a slender one.

The figures for Grey appear to be: Gagey 1775, Rorke 1676, Hartman 1126. Majority to Gagey—significant.
