LOCAL NEWS.

Daisy weather.

Excellent wheeling.

Business indifferent.

Get your taxes ready.

Money not circulating freely.

The day of rockening is drawing near.

All municipal councils meet on the 15th December.

Municipal nominations take place on Monday, the 31st December.

The usual anniversary entertainment will be held in the Presbyterian church on New Years.

Printed annual school meeting notices, suitable for any section, for sale cheap at this office.

The Commercial Travellers Association of Canada has nearly 4000 members and a reserve fund of $250,000.

Rev. Mr. Fraser preached last Sunday in the Presbyterian Church and will again occupy the pulpit next Sabbath.

The Standard's circulation keeps growing and will crowd well up to eleven hundred by the end of the year.

Mr. Donald McLeod, shoemaker, formerly of this village, died suddenly on his bench at Hopeville on Monday of last week.

Mr. J. W. Whitby has this week opened a shoe-making establishment in the stand formerly occupied by the late John Shea, Toronto street.

The editor of the Acton Free Press is a hustler. The first paragraph in last week's paper says: "The last month of 1895 opens next Saturday."

Mr. Geo. Furneaux, stone mason and brick layer, a respectable, honest and industrious citizen, moved with his family last week to Dunham.

Lost.—A cornet lyre, in front of the Rink Hall, on night of band concert. The finder will oblige by leaving it at this office, or return to T. C. Ritchie.

Mrs. J. W. Whitby has commenced dress and mantle making at her residence, opposite the Presbyterian church, Toronto street. A share of public patronage respectfully solicited.

School trustees who are looking for maps, desks or any other school supplies will find to their advantage to see us before giving their order to outside firms. W. Turner & Co.

Patron Pow Wow.—The quarterly meeting of Euphrasia Patrons will be held next Saturday at Rocklyn commencing at 2 p. m. Euphrasia is a strong P. of I. township and a good rally is expected.

The two senior departments of our school opened on Tuesday and are comfortably quartered over the new Stephen, McCullough & Young block. The junior department opened in the Orange Hall on Wednesday.

The annual meeting of the Canadian Press Association will be held in Toronto in February. Every publisher should be a member. It costs $5 to join and $2 a year afterwards for membership dues. J. B. McLean, sec'y, Toronto.

The Wiarton Canadian puts more commercial value on a cord of wood than a whole stack of politics. The Standard has no reason to complain on this score, the promise being satisfactorily fulfilled generally.

The mileage says: a wise man carries his umbrella on rainy day. Mr. Norman M. Hall moved to town from Traverston last week and immediately had his life insured. Hope he has no misgivings as to his personal safety among our citizens.

Holiday goods are now being placed in conspicuous positions in the stores and the enterprising dealers won't fail to have an attractive ad. also in as conspicuous a spot in the newspaper as possible. Keep an eye on the advertisements and you can readily decide the right place to visit for Christmas goods.

The evangelistic meetings which have been in progress at Harkaway, conducted by Rev. Mr. Edwards, close this week. They were attended by unusual spiritual power from the first, and great good was accomplished extending for miles around. Many heads of families as well as young people there resolved to lead a new life.

The Dundalk Herald says, in reference to the janitor's potatoes which had been stored in the basement of the Markdale school building recently burned, "The trustees deserve the roasting the tubers got." That's a harsh judgment Mr. Glendinning, the sacrifice of the lives of six men by such a cruel death, for such a trivial offence—if indeed an offence at all.

Topic Social.—On Wednesday evening next, Dec. 12, a Topic Social will be given by the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church, at the home of Mr. Edward Rutledge. In December 1890 this Society subscribed $500 towards the church building fund, and now have all paid but about $55, and it is hoped that this social will materially assist in wiping out this balance. This promises to be a most entertaining and enjoyable re-union and all are cordially invited. Admission fifteen cents.

Swept Overboard.—Mr. John Sparrow, formerly of Sullivan township, shipped 585 sheep and 1600 barrels of apples from Owen Sound early in Nov. for the Old Country via Montreal. Soon after the steamer entered the Gulf of St. Lawrence a storm arose and swept the decks carrying overboard Mr. Sparrow's sheep, besides 843 other sheep, 140 cattle and doing considerable damage to the steamer. Mr. Sparrow continued his journey. He had his sheep insured.

Condensed Gleanings.

What our exchanges for fifty miles around are saying.

Advertiser, Owen Sound.

Painful Accident.—We regret to learn that Mr. Wm. Masson met with a rather painful accident while driving down the oatmeal hill last night. His horse slipped and fell coming down the hill, and Mr. M., in jumping out of the rig, fell on his right arm, spraining the wrist very severely.

News, Chatsworth.

On the evening of the 16th ult., the Second of Holland was the scene of a cruel and inhuman event when a farmer who shall be nameless here, who has lately met with unknown failures, for revenge cut the throats of two of his horses, which caused their instant death.

Messrs. Newlands & Co., Galt, Ont.

My customers like the robes well that I bought from you, and we would say that they are the best substitute for the Genuine Buffalo Robe that we have ever seen and we intend handling no others in the future as we believe them the best robe on the market. We are using one ourselves and like it well.
