MARKDALE, DECEMBER 27, 1894

CHRISTMAS DAY.

Christmas of 1894 has come and gone, and from end to end joyous by its happy greetings and social gatherings. The air is crisp and biting and frosty and the ground covered with a glistering mantle of about one inch of snow. A number of sledges were seen during the day but the wheels were largely in the mud. Additional snow berries have been imported the sleighing so that in a hundred cases there is "Christmas Sleighing." A proprieate service was held in the church and town hall. The services of several clergymen, clowns and others were held in the Methodist church.

Prayer Meeting.

The Sabbath School reached the full complement of participants. Built in 1875, it is now used as
