A Narrow Escape.

People who are exposed to the sudden changes of our northern climate have little chance of escaping colds, coughs, sore throat and lung troubles. The best safeguard is to keep Hagyards Pectoral Balsam at hand. It is a quick relief and reliable cure for such complaints.

A Gold Watch FREE!

Here is a chance to procure a choice of Lady or Gents gold watch free gratis for nothing.

HOW?

Come to Lusk's Photo Gallery, Markdale, and get a half dozen cabinet photos, (at regular price), and draw a ticket. The tickets are numbered up to 50, one of which will take the gold watch. The artist does not know the number of prize duplicate, but it is held by a responsible party, and at the close of competition, Christmas evening, the lucky number will be produced. The watch is on exhibition at W. A. Brown's jewellery store, and is guaranteed by him for 2 years.

All are invited to attend. Only those whose membership fee for 1895 has been paid prior to election of officers can vote.

U. B. R. T.—The Owen Sound Branch No. 48 of United Brotherhood of Railway Trackmen held their annual meeting in Arnsmith's Hall for the election of officers for 1895. Bros. B. Tansley, pres; J. Ashdown, vice pres; J. Pickett rec. sec. F. Maidment, treas.; W. Ross, fin. sec; D. Telford, guich; G. Crow, inside sentinel; J. Gawley, outside sentinel; G. Bailey, H. Crowther and E. Lomas, trustees.

THE annual school meeting of S. S. No. 6, Holland, 70 school house, took place on Wednesday Dec. 26th, when several gentlemen aspired for the office of trustee. The following were the nominees, Messrs. Welsh, Jamieson and Abbott. A poll was demanded and the excitement ran high until 1.30 p. m. By this time fifty votes were polled. As no more ratepayers presented themselves to vote the poll was closed at 2.10 p. m. The following are the number of votes poled for each candidate. R. Jamieson 30, J. Welsh 12, T. Abbott 8.

A good time was enjoyed by the Bible Class, taught by Miss Etta Ford in Christ Church Sunday School on Wednesday evening Dec. 26 at the home of Mr. Ford. There were games of all sorts, also refreshments served. In the midst of the hilarity and unexpectedly the Rev. M. M. Goldberg, Mrs. G. and last but not least, little MISS G. made their appearance, which helped to enliven the evenings entertainment. Thus a happy and enjoyable evening was spent by our young people under the auspices of Miss Ford's Bible Class.

CONDOLENCE.—At a regular meeting of Owen Sound Branch No. 48 of U. B. R. T. Saturday evening Dec. 20th 1894. Dear Brother Rickett, whereas through the unaccountable designs of an all-wise Providence which we poor mortals are not permitted to fathom, there has come to the household of Brother Rickett a great affliction in the death of his bright and promising child, be it therefore resolved, that we, the members of Branch No. 48 do hereby extend to Bro. Rickett our heartfelt sympathy and condolence in this sad bereavement and we pray that He who doeth all things well will sustain and comfort him and his family in this, the hour of their sorrow. B. Tansley, Jas. Ashdown, J. Pickett, D. Telford.

The Canadian Almanac for 1895 is the best yet issued. In addition to the commercial, statistical, astronomical, departmental, ecclesiastical, educational and financial information with which it is filled, there are special features not included in any previous issue. Among these may be mentioned Dr. Bourinot's article on "The Procedure of the Canadian House of Commons"; a series of articles on the defences of Canada; an article on the Sault Ste Marie Canal; and a sketch of the British possessions throughout the world, with a map of the world showing British territory. The reader will find this issue of the Almanac a mine of information. Every patriotic Canadian should buy a copy and read it. It will well repay the trouble. Published by the Copp, Clark Co. (Limited) Toronto.

FOUND.—A small hand satchel. Enquire at this office.

The annual meeting of the Liberal Conservative Association of East and Centre Grey will be held in Markdale on Friday the 11th January 1895.

LOST.—In Markdale, on Monday last pair gentleman's gold rimmed specs. Finder will be rewarded by leaving at post office.

Mr. Jas. McDonald who lost one of his arms in a saw mill at Corbetton a couple of years ago, has had the member replaced with an artificial one. It is his own invention, and is said to be a success.

R. C. CHRISTMAS TREE.—A Christmas tree entertainment will be held in the separate school house near the new R. C. Church Glenelg, on Wednesday evening, the 9th January. A good program will be furnished. Admission 15 cts

CUNNINGHAM and Ryan, the two witnesses for the defence in the Irwin burglary case, who were arrested on charge of burglary, have been tried in Toronto and found guilty. Sentence was deferred in order to ascertain further former records.

MUSICALE.—A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dundas on Friday last. A program consisting of vocal and instrumental music, recitations and readings, with palatable refreshments and wicked in ass second, or middle, section, was appreciated and enjoyed by the company. Proceeds in aid of Christ Church rectory fund, Receipts 12.50.

EVEN clergymen meet with disappointments. A Rev. gentleman in town lately married a young couple. At the close of the ceremony the groom handed the minister an envelope, which the latter carefully placed in his coat pocket. When he got home he opened the envelope, and was surprised to find nothing more than a piece of paper on which was written the word "thanks."—Meaford Mirror.

DIED ON THE ROAD.—A man by the name of Thomas Nelson, while going to work in the bush, fell dead on the road just at the far end of the long swamp on Derby gravel road, on Friday afternoon last. He was seen to fall by a young girl, and when found life was extinct. Heart disease is supposed to have been the cause. The deceased was about 60 years of age, and leaves a grown up family to mourn his loss.—Tara Leader.

ANNIVERSARY.—The anniversary entertainment of the Presbyterian church was held in Marsh's Hall on the evening of New Year's day. The evening was fine and the sleighing fairly good which aided much in a good sized crowd being present. The refreshments were good and plentiful, and of course thoroughly enjoyed. The Rev. J. F. McLaren, B. D. occupied the chair very affably. The program consisted in addresses from Rev's Pentland, Goldberg and Edwards, cornet solos by Prof. Galvin, baritone solos by Mr. Saunders of Owen Sound, instrumental music by Miss Annie and Master Will McLeod and selections by the choir all of which were ably rendered. Proceeds $41.

MISS S. IRWIN, of Markdale, who has taught in Mayburne for 1894 has resigned to attend the Normal at Ottawa. Mr. Douglas takes her place. Miss Irwin is a very successful teacher. She is blessed with a strong constution, is energetic and a good disciplinarian. Her pupils were dearly attached to her. After obtaining her professional second and teaching for a few years it is her intention to attend the University. As she took her non-professional second on the latin option she is prepared to matriculate at once if she wishes. Miss Irwin is an unusually clever student with a penchant for mathematics. As a specialist in this department she will have few equals and no superiors. As Miss Irwin was a former pupil of ye editor's he knows whereof he speaks. We are anticipating a brilliant University career for her in a few years.—Dundalk Herald.

MADE HAPPY ON NEW YEAR'S.—Mr. Wm. Flesher of Artemesia has as fine a family of daughters as you'd find in a week's travel, but tho're leaving him, one by one. Mr. Albert Jackson of Pleasant Valley, Holland, is a prosperous young farmer and evidently possesses superior common sense, for he has gained the hand and heart of Mr. Flesher's oldest daughter, Miss Beatrice M. and on Tuesday last they were united in holy matrimony by the Rev. S. H. Edwards, at the residence of the bride parents. Miss Bertha, sister of the bride's, and Mr. John A. Kirk, of Massie, supported the contracting parties through the knotty ceremony. This was at 6 o'clock p. m. A large company of invited guests witnessed the happy event and joined in the pleasantries and greetings of the occasion. A splendid dinner was partaken of with a relish and no mistake. The bride received many handsome and useful present and the fair young couple start out with bright prospects for a happy life. The congratulations of a large circle of well wishers go with them. The STANDARD ditto.
