+ Wholesale trade of Toronto is withou special feature. The more moderate weather tends to improve the general selling, and the distribution of merchandise will be facilitated. Merchants speak with more confidence regarding the out-look for spring trade, but there are no indications of enhanced prices for leading as one of the favorable factors in the trade stuation. But manufacturers till complain of heavy stocks, with a limited demand from the trade. The movement of country produce has been restricted by the heavy fall of snow in many sections points, and to this face the nigher prices of preduce are also partly due. There is practically no wheat coning out, which gives rise to the feeling that there is no more of this cereal in the country than
