

Week's Commercial Summary: The new United States 4 per cent loan is now offered to the public at 11 1/2%.

Coldwater wants a fire engine. Collingwood has a French society. Scarlat fever prevails at Atherton.

Stratford's rate of taxation is twenty one cents. The Regina Exhibition will open July 29th.

London has a great spook session on hand. Oranoville has organized a new fire brigade.

The burned stores of Midland are to be rebuilt. There are still rumors of smuggling at Quebec.

Wolves are playing havoc with the deer in Cardwell. There are 600 cords of shingle timber in the yard.

There is an organized gang of robbers in Orillia. Hunter and Croswell will be at Carleton Place.

Some Parisians want the license reduced from eight to six. The Sarnia tunnel pays 1-1/2 per cent.

Four hundred licenses have just been issued at Montreal. Large quantities of fish are being caught through the job at Barrie.

Ottawa City Council has refused to reduce the rate of the City of Ottawa. A North Hastings Farmer's Institute has been organized at Madoc.

A Toronto girl brags of having had twenty-four offers of marriage. An attempt was recently made to burn the R.P.R. shops at Winnipeg.

A sawmill is to be built at Windsor with $100,000 capital back of it. It is proposed to run an electric railway from Aylmer to Port Burwell.

Winnipeg has decided to separate from the County of York. Jarratt's Corners, by a majority of one refused to build a new schoolhouse.

Travellers in the Woodstock jail refused to eat. The Dominion Government is offering the emigrant sheds, Sarnia, for sale.

The Lombroki fire department will have two days' celebration in June. Only fifteen voters' lists appear on the books of the City of Toronto.

Willie Burnett, Dresden, was elected county master of the Orangemen of Ontario. Barrie ladies last week played a game of hockey with the gentlemen, but lost.

The blacksmiths of the Midland region are arranging a cash system for their work. Guolph's Knights of Hythias have leased the handsome hall of the new Opera house.

A Gananoque minister is crusading against the progressive church parties of Ontario. George Minnie Campbell, of London, an old army veteran, died last week, aged eighty-five.

Eighteen fine horses were shipped to the city from Bradford to Montreal, but at low prices. Mary Lovatt, an old lady living at the Industrial Home, Aurora, was burned to death last week.

THE WEEK'S HAPPENINGS

Arranged and Condensed For Our Own Readers. Each Province Furnishes Its Quota of Interesting News.

Week's Commercial Summary: The new United States 4 per cent loan is now offered to the public at 11 1/2%.

Coldwater wants a fire engine. Collingwood has a French society. Scarlat fever prevails at Atherton.

Stratford's rate of taxation is twenty one cents. The Regina Exhibition will open July 29th.

London has a great spook session on hand. Oranoville has organized a new fire brigade.

The burned stores of Midland are to be rebuilt. There are still rumors of smuggling at Quebec.

Wolves are playing havoc with the deer in Cardwell. There are 600 cords of shingle timber in the yard.

There is an organized gang of robbers in Orillia. Hunter and Croswell will be at Carleton Place.

Some Parisians want the license reduced from eight to six. The Sarnia tunnel pays 1-1/2 per cent.

Four hundred licenses have just been issued at Montreal. Large quantities of fish are being caught through the job at Barrie.

Ottawa City Council has refused to reduce the rate of the City of Ottawa. A North Hastings Farmer's Institute has been organized at Madoc.

A Toronto girl brags of having had twenty-four offers of marriage. An attempt was recently made to burn the R.P.R. shops at Winnipeg.

A sawmill is to be built at Windsor with $100,000 capital back of it. It is proposed to run an electric railway from Aylmer to Port Burwell.

Winnipeg has decided to separate from the County of York. Jarratt's Corners, by a majority of one refused to build a new schoolhouse.

Travellers in the Woodstock jail refused to eat. The Dominion Government is offering the emigrant sheds, Sarnia, for sale.

The Lombroki fire department will have two days' celebration in June. Only fifteen voters' lists appear on the books of the City of Toronto.

Willie Burnett, Dresden, was elected county master of the Orangemen of Ontario. Barrie ladies last week played a game of hockey with the gentlemen, but lost.

The blacksmiths of the Midland region are arranging a cash system for their work. Guolph's Knights of Hythias have leased the handsome hall of the new Opera house.

A Gananoque minister is crusading against the progressive church parties of Ontario. George Minnie Campbell, of London, an old army veteran, died last week, aged eighty-five.

Week's Commercial Summary: The new United States 4 per cent loan is now offered to the public at 11 1/2%.

Coldwater wants a fire engine. Collingwood has a French society. Scarlat fever prevails at Atherton.

Stratford's rate of taxation is twenty one cents. The Regina Exhibition will open July 29th.

London has a great spook session on hand. Oranoville has organized a new fire brigade.

The burned stores of Midland are to be rebuilt. There are still rumors of smuggling at Quebec.

Wolves are playing havoc with the deer in Cardwell. There are 600 cords of shingle timber in the yard.

There is an organized gang of robbers in Orillia. Hunter and Croswell will be at Carleton Place.

Some Parisians want the license reduced from eight to six. The Sarnia tunnel pays 1-1/2 per cent.

Four hundred licenses have just been issued at Montreal. Large quantities of fish are being caught through the job at Barrie.

Ottawa City Council has refused to reduce the rate of the City of Ottawa. A North Hastings Farmer's Institute has been organized at Madoc.

A Toronto girl brags of having had twenty-four offers of marriage. An attempt was recently made to burn the R.P.R. shops at Winnipeg.

A sawmill is to be built at Windsor with $100,000 capital back of it. It is proposed to run an electric railway from Aylmer to Port Burwell.

Winnipeg has decided to separate from the County of York. Jarratt's Corners, by a majority of one refused to build a new schoolhouse.

Travellers in the Woodstock jail refused to eat. The Dominion Government is offering the emigrant sheds, Sarnia, for sale.

The Lombroki fire department will have two days' celebration in June. Only fifteen voters' lists appear on the books of the City of Toronto.

Willie Burnett, Dresden, was elected county master of the Orangemen of Ontario. Barrie ladies last week played a game of hockey with the gentlemen, but lost.

The blacksmiths of the Midland region are arranging a cash system for their work. Guolph's Knights of Hythias have leased the handsome hall of the new Opera house.

A Gananoque minister is crusading against the progressive church parties of Ontario. George Minnie Campbell, of London, an old army veteran, died last week, aged eighty-five.

Eighteen fine horses were shipped to the city from Bradford to Montreal, but at low prices. Mary Lovatt, an old lady living at the Industrial Home, Aurora, was burned to death last week.

Week's Commercial Summary: The new United States 4 per cent loan is now offered to the public at 11 1/2%.

Coldwater wants a fire engine. Collingwood has a French society. Scarlat fever prevails at Atherton.

Stratford's rate of taxation is twenty one cents. The Regina Exhibition will open July 29th.

London has a great spook session on hand. Oranoville has organized a new fire brigade.

The burned stores of Midland are to be rebuilt. There are still rumors of smuggling at Quebec.

Wolves are playing havoc with the deer in Cardwell. There are 600 cords of shingle timber in the yard.

There is an organized gang of robbers in Orillia. Hunter and Croswell will be at Carleton Place.

Some Parisians want the license reduced from eight to six. The Sarnia tunnel pays 1-1/2 per cent.

Four hundred licenses have just been issued at Montreal. Large quantities of fish are being caught through the job at Barrie.

Ottawa City Council has refused to reduce the rate of the City of Ottawa. A North Hastings Farmer's Institute has been organized at Madoc.

A Toronto girl brags of having had twenty-four offers of marriage. An attempt was recently made to burn the R.P.R. shops at Winnipeg.

A sawmill is to be built at Windsor with $100,000 capital back of it. It is proposed to run an electric railway from Aylmer to Port Burwell.

Winnipeg has decided to separate from the County of York. Jarratt's Corners, by a majority of one refused to build a new schoolhouse.

Travellers in the Woodstock jail refused to eat. The Dominion Government is offering the emigrant sheds, Sarnia, for sale.

The Lombroki fire department will have two days' celebration in June. Only fifteen voters' lists appear on the books of the City of Toronto.

Willie Burnett, Dresden, was elected county master of the Orangemen of Ontario. Barrie ladies last week played a game of hockey with the gentlemen, but lost.

The blacksmiths of the Midland region are arranging a cash system for their work. Guolph's Knights of Hythias have leased the handsome hall of the new Opera house.

A Gananoque minister is crusading against the progressive church parties of Ontario. George Minnie Campbell, of London, an old army veteran, died last week, aged eighty-five.

Eighteen fine horses were shipped to the city from Bradford to Montreal, but at low prices. Mary Lovatt, an old lady living at the Industrial Home, Aurora, was burned to death last week.

Week's Commercial Summary: The new United States 4 per cent loan is now offered to the public at 11 1/2%.

Coldwater wants a fire engine. Collingwood has a French society. Scarlat fever prevails at Atherton.

Stratford's rate of taxation is twenty one cents. The Regina Exhibition will open July 29th.

London has a great spook session on hand. Oranoville has organized a new fire brigade.

The burned stores of Midland are to be rebuilt. There are still rumors of smuggling at Quebec.

Wolves are playing havoc with the deer in Cardwell. There are 600 cords of shingle timber in the yard.

There is an organized gang of robbers in Orillia. Hunter and Croswell will be at Carleton Place.

Some Parisians want the license reduced from eight to six. The Sarnia tunnel pays 1-1/2 per cent.

Four hundred licenses have just been issued at Montreal. Large quantities of fish are being caught through the job at Barrie.

Ottawa City Council has refused to reduce the rate of the City of Ottawa. A North Hastings Farmer's Institute has been organized at Madoc.

A Toronto girl brags of having had twenty-four offers of marriage. An attempt was recently made to burn the R.P.R. shops at Winnipeg.

A sawmill is to be built at Windsor with $100,000 capital back of it. It is proposed to run an electric railway from Aylmer to Port Burwell.

Winnipeg has decided to separate from the County of York. Jarratt's Corners, by a majority of one refused to build a new schoolhouse.

Travellers in the Woodstock jail refused to eat. The Dominion Government is offering the emigrant sheds, Sarnia, for sale.

The Lombroki fire department will have two days' celebration in June. Only fifteen voters' lists appear on the books of the City of Toronto.

Willie Burnett, Dresden, was elected county master of the Orangemen of Ontario. Barrie ladies last week played a game of hockey with the gentlemen, but lost.

The blacksmiths of the Midland region are arranging a cash system for their work. Guolph's Knights of Hythias have leased the handsome hall of the new Opera house.

A Gananoque minister is crusading against the progressive church parties of Ontario. George Minnie Campbell, of London, an old army veteran, died last week, aged eighty-five.

Eighteen fine horses were shipped to the city from Bradford to Montreal, but at low prices. Mary Lovatt, an old lady living at the Industrial Home, Aurora, was burned to death last week.

Week's Commercial Summary: The new United States 4 per cent loan is now offered to the public at 11 1/2%.

Coldwater wants a fire engine. Collingwood has a French society. Scarlat fever prevails at Atherton.

Stratford's rate of taxation is twenty one cents. The Regina Exhibition will open July 29th.

London has a great spook session on hand. Oranoville has organized a new fire brigade.

The burned stores of Midland are to be rebuilt. There are still rumors of smuggling at Quebec.

Wolves are playing havoc with the deer in Cardwell. There are 600 cords of shingle timber in the yard.

There is an organized gang of robbers in Orillia. Hunter and Croswell will be at Carleton Place.

Some Parisians want the license reduced from eight to six. The Sarnia tunnel pays 1-1/2 per cent.

Four hundred licenses have just been issued at Montreal. Large quantities of fish are being caught through the job at Barrie.

Ottawa City Council has refused to reduce the rate of the City of Ottawa. A North Hastings Farmer's Institute has been organized at Madoc.

A Toronto girl brags of having had twenty-four offers of marriage. An attempt was recently made to burn the R.P.R. shops at Winnipeg.

A sawmill is to be built at Windsor with $100,000 capital back of it. It is proposed to run an electric railway from Aylmer to Port Burwell.

Winnipeg has decided to separate from the County of York. Jarratt's Corners, by a majority of one refused to build a new schoolhouse.

Travellers in the Woodstock jail refused to eat. The Dominion Government is offering the emigrant sheds, Sarnia, for sale.

The Lombroki fire department will have two days' celebration in June. Only fifteen voters' lists appear on the books of the City of Toronto.

Willie Burnett, Dresden, was elected county master of the Orangemen of Ontario. Barrie ladies last week played a game of hockey with the gentlemen, but lost.

The blacksmiths of the Midland region are arranging a cash system for their work. Guolph's Knights of Hythias have leased the handsome hall of the new Opera house.

A Gananoque minister is crusading against the progressive church parties of Ontario. George Minnie Campbell, of London, an old army veteran, died last week, aged eighty-five.

Eighteen fine horses were shipped to the city from Bradford to Montreal, but at low prices. Mary Lovatt, an old lady living at the Industrial Home, Aurora, was burned to death last week.

MARKDALE STANDARD

THE WEEK'S HAPPENINGS

Week's Commercial Summary: The new United States 4 per cent loan is now offered to the public at 11 1/2%.

Week's Commercial Summary: The new United States 4 per cent loan is now offered to the public at 11 1/2%.

Week's Commercial Summary: The new United States 4 per cent loan is now offered to the public at 11 1/2%.

WOMAN'S GRIME