

The court records of State, the count back to 1890. The whole document is as follows:

The New York Charities Conference decided to make arrangements for the cultivation of the unoccupied city lots for the benefit of the poor.

A committee of New York and Atlantic was formed for the purpose of lighting the electric railroad from Atlantic City to New York.

Capt. Jonathan Winkham of Bath, Maine, thinks that he is the best pilot in New England. He has been at sea less than a week short of 61 years.

Mr. Anderson (Mrs. De Navarro), who is a teacher in Boston, health for several weeks, has been looking stronger and a possible cure will come when he reaches New York. Mr. Seaver holds the position of director of the Van Gennep Gymnasium but does not prevent his having time for that college football.

SUMMER.

CHAPTER L.

I am eighteen years old. It sounds a good deal, does it not? It seemed only yesterday that we were still in the garden, and more golden day by day under the sun's fierce beams. The scarlet poppy and gorgous violets, with their heads down, seem to call me, "Come, come, come, I am here." The corn-cockle pride of the hedge, and abomination of the farmer, is now tall and straight, and the cockle-pod, which I used to think was a flower, is now a pod.

"I am not self-conceit," she remarked.

"It is not self-reliance," I said.

"It is not self-sufficiency," she added.
