[illegible]
I suppose we will hey[illegible] in [illegible] your reports Mr D. A. T. Taylor [illegible] increase in your cash surplus from $92,
000 31st Dec 1891, to $9597.38 31st Dec 1892, quite a disappointing decrease, over $19,000 to 3 years and when we remember the rate collected by the Dominion Grange in about Gonlds that [illegible] of the former [illegible] the [illegible] as one of the agents of the Dominion Grange paid him certain sums about the same. Dayman intimated to his liability and the action of the board who believe him, when he makes a statement like that. Does he want to [illegible] and has we have a man in the em[illegible] of the Dominion Company, who would listen to the deliberations of our board and then come and tell a man like Dan, who has proven himself to be [illegible] not the destroying Angel of [illegible] and commercial [illegible] [illegible] would believe a man who would be guilty of such [illegible] as know [illegible] would [illegible] this Mr. Doyle would ask [illegible] [illegible] to believe such [illegible] signed another [illegible] Grand Master [illegible] Mr. Doyle [illegible] Doyle [illegible] public. But [illegible] of workings the Company [illegible]

[illegible] amount [illegible] is taken for the [illegible]
[illegible] of the premium which [illegible] forwarded [illegible] with the application [illegible] the [illegible] accepted [illegible] between the [illegible] agent and the Company [illegible] [illegible] of any further liability in the matter. A Sydenham agent proceeds in the same way, viz., [illegible] for the premium, sends it to the office with the application, [illegible] and is [illegible] as settlement by the Company [illegible] the agent is credited [illegible] when paid, he is responsible for the payment of it, as well as any agent [illegible] connection with the collection of the premi-[illegible] For instance the premiums for my local [illegible] for the last three months amounts to $59.00 (No. of applications 28). I [illegible] settlement of those premi-[illegible] (with the exception of a few who [illegible] to send the premiums in in a few days), amounting to $40.70, which shows that the total cost collected in the three months is only $6.30, more than my fees amount to. In addition shows there was $848.70 added to my list (in [illegible] sent up the $6.30) of cash.
Mr. Doyle publishes a resolution passed by our executive board in Oct.
1894. But why did not Mr. Doyle go further and publish the report of an inspector who was appointed to go through my territory and examine my work. It would not answer his purpose to do so,
his purpose being to vilify and slander.
I confess I have not given as much attention to collecting, as I should have done my work has been very heavy.
This, public, I think, understand, my territory is comparatively a new one.
When I entered upon this work there was not over 1700 members in my field, to-day we have over 4000, and it seems to me, without any fear of contradiction, there is no new Grange formed in my territory since people would tell you mutual insurance is now [illegible] in a proper position in the minds of the people. We all know that the name associated Mr Doyle, mutual insurance had become a thing detestable in the eyes of the public. Where is the agent for a mutual association (Dominion Grange agents excluded) who has not had the old Beaver and the Dominion Grange and Doyle thrown at him as [illegible] against the system.
Mr. Doyle [illegible] the members of the Dominion Grange a few questions as to Dayman, where they [illegible] him well for [illegible] men may [illegible] I will [illegible] those questions.
