EAST GREY FAIR - A FINE EXHIBIT - UNFAVOURABLE WEATHER - BUT A RAIN THUNDER.
The East Grey fair held here Thursday and Friday last encountered bad weather, which was disagreeably cold and showery, keeping many at home who otherwise would have graced the occasion by their presence. The early part of the day was disagreeing enough for the fairgoers, but when noon had come and began to pour in and by two o'clock the expectations of the most placid in the morning had been fully met by the large turnout of yeomanry of Grey who notwithstanding the bleak winds and leaden sky were not going to miss a good thing or be deprived of their annual outing at the East Grey Exhibition. The fair, which is held in a large and airy building, was well attended and a record number of people were present. The exhibits were of a high order and the fair was a success in every respect. The entry list has been ready for some time and this year was in excess of last year about 200 entries.
