

Cottonades, Shirtings, Denims & Flannelettes !

In these Standard Staples we aspire to lead. In support of this aspiration we have made our stock thoroughly complete in every feature. Having looked well to the quality of our goods, and have made the prices, the very lowest, we invite the attention of careful buyers to this department, confident that we are offering better goods at lower prices than buyers generally offered in this line of goods.

Give us a trial when you want anything in this line.

H. MERCER,
MARKDALE.

Markdale Standard
C. W. Rutherford, Proprietor
MARKDALE, FEBRUARY 27, 1896

Berkeley.

The weather continues pleasant. Our large continue to grow. Mr. Thomas Small has during the past month built a dwelling house and has moved into it.

Mr. W. Rose built a temporary chopping mill and is doing a lot of chopping. Flour, feed and hay are becoming interesting commodities.

Mrs. Nedra Brinkman was visiting friends in Chatsworth and Owen Sound last week.

KUCKLYN.

Mr. Bob Keeler of Chingaycoose is here visiting relatives.

The annual meeting of the Kucklyn Chinese Factory Association was held here on Thursday last.

Mr. J. W. Paton is in Toronto this week attending the meeting of the Grand Association of Patrons of Industry as delegate from Grey County Association.

The pump discussion is being followed with interest by Standard readers hereabouts, the rival manufacturers being both well and favorably known in this neighborhood. This reminds us that Mr. John Murray, Councillor Holland, was here a few days ago with a sample of Anderson's Double Acting Force Pumps, which being simple in construction and principle promised to be well-nigh perfection.

Traverson.

May "Mirza's" future ever be as bright as the gnom that dwelt from his pen? His seldom poor "Juster" gets angrier, but above, so that kindly fate will be treasured for aye.

Mr. Edwin Thist is a most go-ahead agriculturist. This week he intends driving over to Teeswater to the parental home of Mr. A. G. Goodfellow to purchase a load of cuts of the white English variety, which have a great reputation. He and Mr. G. of the mill will see him for seed.

Mrs. McLocklin returned home last week after a six weeks' stay with her daughter, Mrs. Mary Wilson of Flesherton.

Joe McGrade is soon to become a father yet. His name is well earned.

Mrs. Delaney had a very sick cow last Thursday, but prompt action on her part and the skill of some young Hackett, V. S., of Markdale restored her to usable vigor. There's a good prospect before the Doc.

Miss Fernie Cameron of a country further south and Miss Maggie Cameron of Dornoch were the girls of Arista Sue Greenwood last week.

Master Tom Glencross left Thursday for Toronto to spend a week in visiting his two sisters and take in the sights of the Queen city.

You cannot get torts, and pies, and cakes and sandwiches, anything like those they have at Zion, the speeches and recitations are just as good to take as the tables and tea - but the music and singing is like the perfume of a tropical, vernal kiss. Coming along on Friday evening, the 28th and Tea from 7 till 8. Program from the noon sunkins over to the morning star.

A quiet courtier often leads the most direct to wedded bliss. This seems to have been the case with Mr. James Murphy, for very few were aware that he contemplated joining the bachelors, but such is the case, for the genial young fellow was wedded in Toronto, on Tuesday, the 18th inst., to Miss Lizzie Dulian, formerly of Traverson, but who has lately resided in the city. The bride is a fair and winsome maiden and "Jim" is one of the best of good fellows, so the young couple begin the new sphere of life under bright prospects. Good wishes galore, and blessings go with them.

Huskler.

Wore Greased Gloves Seven Years. John Siron, Mason, Aultville, Ont., had Salt Rheum so severe that for seven years he wore greased gloves. He writes: "I used a quart of a box of Chase's Ointment. It cured me. No trace of Salt Rheum now." Chase's Ointment cures every irritation of the skin, allays itching instantly, and is a sterling remedy for piles. Avoid irritations. 50c per box.

Maxwell.

The Presbyterians held their tea meeting on Wednesday evening the 26th.

Mr. Thos. Gamay, M. P. P. is in Toronto attending parliamentary duties.

Miss Aggie Strachan went to Toronto last week.

A meeting of the Farmers' Institute was held on the evening of the 27th.

Part of the Methodist church shed collapsed under the weight of snow recently.
