Deceased had not been enjoying the best of health of late, but was so spirited and ambitious she could scurcely he prevailed upon to take rest and eight children (5 sons and 5 dayghin order to recuperate. She was obiged, however, to alsent herself from place of business on account of a ere attack of la grippe, and despite he efforts of kind friends and medical aid she continued to grow worse until Friday evening the 6th about 4 o'clock when she passed away after but two weeks illness, aged 29 years and 4 months. Mary, as she was familiarly called, had been for 12 years a faithful and trusted employe in Mr. McFurland's store. Her modesty and courtesy together with kindly disposition and cheerful attentive demeanor towards customers and the blic rendered her a general favorite, and her premature demise has cast a gloom over the whole community.
