LIVED BY LOVE.
 Or, How the Wharf Wait Became a Princess.
CHAPTER I.
 THE FIRST STEP.
 "We must think 'bout clothes next, Aurea," said Tara when she had agreed to accept the strange man's proposal. "You will want quite a lot of things, some to wear indoors, some to go out in, and some to wear when you are out."

THE SHEEP-ASTRAY.
 Talmage applies himself to ring once more the old gospel-bell.
 A General Indictment—Sheep Cost Astrey by Straying Into Other Pastures or by Being Seized by Dogs—A Door Wide Enough to Let All Out.
 Washington, D.C., March 8, 1902.—The Gospel sends out its glad message in this season of Lent. It is a message of peace to the church and to the world. It is a message of love to the rich and to the poor. It is a message of hope to the despairing and to the dying.

GOOD MANNERS IN 1902.
 Important Hints for the Public Conduct of the Up-to-Date Society Young Men of This Day.
 What is probably one of the oldest books in the world, and which has been published in Paris the other day, is entitled "Good Manners in Conversation." It is a book of 100 pages, and is written by a Frenchman. It is a book of good manners, and it is a book of good manners in conversation.

HOW A HOME WAS LOST.
 The Bitter Experience of Mr. Belwood, of St. Simons.
 Attached With Nerveless of the Limbs He Became Helpless and Suffered Intense Agony—Spent His Home in Despair—With Specialties Without Avail—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Came to the Rescue When Other Means Failed.
 From the Simons Reformer.
 The virtues of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People have often been published in the columns of this paper, and they are well known to the readers of Norfolk County, and it is widely conceded that they have brought joy into more than one household, and their merits are attested by the records of the courts. In this instance the fact is brought directly home to the readers of this paper. Mr. Belwood, a resident of Simons for about 20 years, and for years a resident of Fort Erie, a member of the lower limb, from which he had been afflicted for some time, was afflicted with a disease which was called "rheumatism," and it was a disease which was called "rheumatism," and it was a disease which was called "rheumatism."

THE SYSTEM OF PENNY-IN-THE-GAS
 meters is slowly making way in Michigan. In the metropolis it has already become exceedingly popular. The work done December 18th through the Gaslight and Coke Company, cost $1,000,000. The weight of the coins so far used is more than six tons. The coin is made of brass and is the size of a penny.

THE COCONUT TRADE.
 Profits Prevented by the Tariff, Which Takes Only One Very Small Grower in Florida.
 Dealers in foreign fruits say that unless the duty of 20 cents per unit on coconuts is repealed, that delicious article will soon cease to be imported into this country. The first of these coconuts was brought to this country in 1820, and it was a delicious article. It was a delicious article, and it was a delicious article.

QUEEN VICTORIA.
 Sir Edwin Arnold's Early Recollections of England's Queen.
 In the reign of Queen Victoria, the world was a different world. It was a different world, and it was a different world. It was a different world, and it was a different world.
