PUBLIC SCHOOL CLOSING.

Tuesday afternoon was a gala day at Markdale public school. From two to four o'clock was set apart for a public entertainment, and the beautiful and spacious school building was egowited, with parents and citizens of the village and vicinity, in addition to the pupils which alone numbered over 200. The eachers and scholars had co-operated n adorning the interior of the school by uniquely arranged festioning and floral ornamentation. Each department conducted and carried out its own program, which consisted of singing, citations, short abbresses by various dizens, and the whole school in response to the fire allorn, which latter demonstrated the thorough discipline inder which the select is controlled by the able and outhusiastic stall. The ogram wound up by the united school inging vigorously the maple leaf foryer," the red white and blue," and "God Save the Queen," and murched not like a regiment of drilled soldiers sharp on the minute, 4 o'clock,
