The England Interested.

The English newspapers have given much attention of late to Canadian affairs. Mr. Laurier's personality has been described by many English journalimportant newspapers in England, said lately that: "On the question of Canadian loyalty to the mother country there can be no doubt, while Mr. "Laurier's views on the maintenance of the empire are already well-known. Quite recently the Premier, when receiving hospitality at Montreal, at a banquet given to Viceat Montreal, at a banquet given to Vice-Admiral Erskine, took advantage of the opportunity to impress upon his hearers that like themselves he and his Government were deeply attached to the British nation, and that he yielded to no British nation, and that he yielded to no one in his devotion to the British throne. Speaking more directly of the honor which his fellow subjects had conferred upon him, he promised to use his best endeavor to do his duty by Canada and the great Empire of which she forms a part. Those are very significant words, and it may be assumed that they were and it may be assumed that they were Says He Is Loyal. Curionaly enough, it is just because of this loyalty of Laurier's that the French Canadians have what may be termed a diminished admiration for the Premier, to "He says he is loyal," said a French of Canadian to me once. "He may be, but if he is I do not understand it. We say it is the loyal to Canadian but we have no all loyal to Canada, but we have no great admiration for England. If Canada came under the French, would Ontario be loyal? I think not." Which was
