which was capitalized originally at $80,000,000, afterwards reduced to $40,000,000. The exchange was built in a most thorough manner and cost the Harrison International Company over $26.000. The Southwestern Company secures the plant at less than 30 per cent. of the cost. Its failure is at tributed to the fact that only one exchange can be operated successfully in any one community, and that the rates charged by the Harrison Company, 88 and $3 per month, were far below the cost of operating. The Southwestern Company can use to advantage a large part of the plant, but the telephones bells and switchboards will be destroy ed. The Southwestern Telephone Company operates in the territory gen erally known as that of the Erie Tele phone Company.
