LOSING companies and others interested extensively in real estate report a general retarding of confidence and a dropping up of sales. The bottom has doubtless been reached, and with the prospect of an early realization of better times, values will firm up and gradually advance, and the demand for farm property increase.

THANKSGIVING day was well and truly observed by Markdale business men as a public holiday. The weather was spring like with the mercury at 60 all day. Public services were held in the Presbyterian church at 2:30. Quite a number of shooting enjoyed an appealing tramp returning in the evening handsomely rewarded with rabbits and partridges.

MR. D. W. THOMPSON, who has been stationed on this mission of the Presbyterian church, left for his home in Markdale yesterday by the Pacific. Mr. Thompson is a promising young man and during his short time here has made many friends who are sorry that he had to go away on account of poor health, but trust that he may soon be able to enter upon his duties again.

A TRAST.—The Belle Rose Music Co. will give a concert in the Marsh Hall on the evening of Thursday Dec. 10. This company consist of three star performers, viz: Belle Rose Esmitie, one of Scotland's favorite elocutionists, Chas. Kelly, Canada's great basso and Miss Hattie Kelly, pianist and Mandolinist. Read the following clip: Belle Rose Esmitie Concert Company—This excellent company gave two performances in the Town Hall last Friday and Saturday evenings to large and enthusiastic audiences. Mrs. Esmitie is an eloquentist of no mean ability and is one of the best reciters of Scottish pieces that we have heard since the days of Kennedy, the prince of Scottish song and story. In fact her rendition of "Saunders McGlashan's Courtship" could scarcely have been equalled by Kennedy himself. Mr. C. Kelly possesses a wonderful voice which was shown to advantage in such pieces as "The Mighty Deep" and "Rocked in the Cradle of Deep" which latter song he accompanied himself with the guitar. Miss Kelly is the favorite reciter of the best contrasts in such pieces as "The Mighty Deep" and "Rocked in the Cradle of Deep" which latter song he accompanied himself with the piano and mandolin. Pembroke Standard.

STOVES, STOVES.—Jackson the great implement man has a full line of the famous pearl stoves selling at prices to suit the hard times, also a full line of straw cutters on easy terms.

IS GREAT DEMAND.—Farming, the magnificent agricultural monthly magazine published by the Bryant Press, Toronto, is meeting with well merited success. November number contained numerous portraits and sketches of presidents and secretaries of Farmers' Institutes, and among them an excellent one of Mr. J. T. Graham of Vanderburg. The edition was entirely exhausted before the demand was satisfied so that the publishers were obliged to ask brother publishers for their exchange copy. This excellent publication is in great demand.

A CHANGE in business.—Mr. W. H. Carruthers of Wolehouse, has taken a partner into his business. On Wednes. the 22nd inst. the partnership was dissolved, by the Rev. J. S. Humphreys, W. H. Carruthers and Miss Annie Lawson were united in bonds of matrimony. M. Ben Carruthers and Miss Edith Lawson supported the contracting parties. The weather was very unfavorable, but still the ceremony was held. The bride received some very handsome and valuable presents from friends here and also in Toronto where she has many warm friends. The STANDARD joins in congratulations and best wishes.

CONCERT STEPHEN.—The Epworth League annual entertainment on the evening of Thanksgiving day was a most enjoyable affair. The largest school room was filled with a merry and notwithstanding the dirty state of the room there was large attendance, the different denominations being well represented, also a good contingent from Fleshtown and Hartaway. The entertainment was the source of general interest and much amusement. A bill of fare neatly arranged on Japanese napkins was furnished containing thirty odd dishes ranging in price from one to five cents each, but the name of the dish was a command. For instance, you order, Bust of a continent, Son of Noah, tender legs of spring, no grounds for complaint, you are hurried and slip off the old block, you would get baked potatoes, egg, coffee, pie and a toothpick. But imagine the perplexity of the individual who ordered: Boston's over-throw, no grounds for complaint, spring's offering and hidden tears, hoping for a toothache variety but the interpretation being, ten-cent, a cup of cold water and a dose of the interest and water was kept up to a high pitch and the various little tales. At the conclusion of this short program, chief of vocal and instrumental music was rendered, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Simpson, presiding. The Epworth League is to be congratulated for the unique entertainment furnished.

Personal Paragraphs.

Mr. Alex Smith of Thornbury, was in town on Saturday.

Miss Stewart of Fleshtown is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. B. Thibault.

O. S. Timmer, Mrs. W. J. McFarland and Miss McFarland, Markdale, were the guests of Mrs. D. A. Crozier this week.

W. J. McFarland, Esq., is in Toronto this week attending a meeting of the directors of the Excelsior Life Insurance Co.

Mrs. Bertrand left on Monday for Sturgeon Falls, there to join her brother, Mr. Guy Pickell, who has purchased a new steamer in that town.

Mr. McCreich, editor of the Orangeville Banner, spent a few days with his friend Dr. Campbell, returning to Orangeville on Monday. He gave the STANDARD a fraternal call.

Mr. R. W. Bright, principal of Winton public school, visited Markdale last week. Our citizens were pleased to see him, he having been rumored that he had died. He is still alive and kicking.

The following spent Thanksgiving in town: Mr. J. H. Christie and family of Owen Sound; Mr. M. Mordey, Wingham; Mr. W. J. McCornack, Owen Sound; Mr. Thos. Noble, Winton; Mr. Hoch Armstrong, Toronto; Mr. J. E. Richards, Locklyn; Mr. Jack Hackett, Mono.

Markdallites out of town for Thanksgiving: Mr. and Mrs. McKenna, to Meaford; Principal Rowe, to Dundalk and Owen Sound; Messrs. Jack Sparling, J. H. Stephenson and Geo. Potts, to Owen Sound; Mr. and Mrs. J. Boland to Shillington; Messrs. Thomas, L. Smith and Mrs. R. L. Stephen, and Miss Benson, to Toronto.

Unfounded.

ERROR STANDARD.—I noticed in your issue of November 29 a paragraph in Rocklyn correspondence referring to me as Dep. Game Warden, and stating that I had taken from Mr. McMahon and Mr. Geo. Moscrop a deer's carcass; and had fined others $2 for simply carrying a gun. Both statements are untrue, as I have not confiscated any game or fined any one, neither have I attempted to do either up to this date. Vandalism, Dec. 1-19.

JOHN WENZEL,
Dep. Game Warden.

Very much regret that our Rocklyn correspondent sent the paragraph above referred to. Doubtless he believed it to be the facts. It is not a characteristic of our ed., to wish any one ill or to plot their injury, but rather the opposite, but in this case he has evidently been "stuffed." The false report will, we have no doubt, eventually benefit rather than injure Mr. Weber, who, we believe, an efficient official. Ed. STANDARD.

READY WITH OUR BIG BARGAINS!

Above us stands no competing stock, below us lie no competing prices.

We will commence with Bargains! We will continue with Bargains! We will end with Bargains!

Markdale has certainly gained notoriety for its handsome stores, and sharp business men. But never in its history has there been such a slaughter in the price of goods. It is each merchant trying to outshine and outdo the other.

Well, here goes, and the first slash that we will make at you is Men and Boy's Overcoats.

Men's heavy Frieze Overcoats that were sold at $10.00, now only $7.50.
Men's heavy Frieze Overcoats that were sold at $12.00, now only $9.00.
Men's heavy Frieze Overcoats that were sold at $14.00, now only $10.50.
Men's heavy Frieze Overcoats that were sold at $16.00, now only $12.00.

The next pile we slash into is Ladies' Mantles. We have about 50 left and must clear them at any price.

Ladies' Mantles that were sold at $10.00, now only $7.50.
Ladies' Mantles that were sold at $12.00, now only $9.00.
Ladies' Mantles that were sold at $14.00, now only $10.50.
Ladies' Mantles that were sold at $16.00, now only $12.00.

These are all this day's German bargains.

30 yards Dress fabric, 25c per yard.
20 yards Dress fabric, 30c per yard.

Leading the Trade!

We sometimes hear of people being touched on the raw. The immeasurable success of our cash system has been the means of stirring up in a wonderful degree the feelings of others in business. The only reason for this can be, is that we have demoralized the profits of the credit system of doing business. It is to this store alone that the people have to thank for the heavy reductions in prices of the many lines of merchandise in the past two months. We can trust the people to discover what is to their own interests. We only look for business while rendering right service.

SPECIAL IN GROCERIES!

The White Star 3 lb. Baking Powder, 15 cents. 1 lb. can. Fine uncolored Japan Tea, regular 25c for 18 cents lb. Best light brown Sugar, 31 lbs for $1.
