Leading the Trade!

We sometimes hear of people being touched on the raw. The immeasurable success of our cash system has been the means of stirring up in a wonderful degree the feelings of others in business. The only reason for this can be, is that we have demoralized the profits of the credit system of doing business. It is to this store alone that the people have to thank for the heavy reductions in prices of the many lines of merchandise in the past two months. We can trust the people to discover what is to their own interests. We only look for business while rendering right service.

Councillor Arrowsmirn, of Glenelg, has almost decided to retire from municipal politics, but if he should again take the field it will be as a can-didate for the Deputy-Reeveship for which position many of his friends have been for some time urging him to aspire. Mr. Arrowsmith's popularity has worn well. He has polled the second highest vote, we believe, ever recorded for a municipal candidate in Glenelg, Mr. Finley MacRae in his palmy days alone exceeding it.—Durham Ohronicle. Personal Paragrafs.

A good family paper improves in quality and influence as the years pass way. This is emphatically true of the Canada Presbyterian. It has never been better than during the past twelve months; and the publishers promise many attractive features for 1807. (noxonian continues his bright articles; The Sunday School Lesson and Christian Endeavor Topics will be specially treated by competent writers; and all the useful departments, such as the Missionary World, the Family Circle, Our Young Folks, etc., etc., will be well kept up. In the pages deoted to "Our Contributors" old-time avorites, as well as many new writers of note, will appear from week to week. The unusually low terms to clubs, offered to mark the close of twenty-five years of publication, will enable every Presbyterian family in the country to subscribe for this excellent paper, and will doubtless result in thousands of
