This assertion will sound like a conundrum to most people as January and February are generally considered slow months in business, but SUCH IS THE FACT. Trade is continually opening our way and new customers daily express their approval of our methods when comparing our prices with what they have been accustomed paying elsewhere.

A volume of trade that warrants our buying in large quantities, a practical knowledge of when and what to buy, capital enabling us to take advantage of every cash discount and sell only for cash or its equivalent.
