PREACHERS AND TEACHERS.
DISCOURAGEMENTS.

There are discouragements to both preacher and teacher coming from those from whom they might naturally expect help and sympathy, but it is a pleasure to believe this unhappy class is not numerous. Then there are many things connected with the ministry and teacher's work over which they have no control, and for which they are not responsible, but for which they are blamed. It is well that there are those to whom we can tell the things we feel we can control and where we are out of the control of others and can do the best we can, and where we are responsible for the labors are a blessing to many hearts we may not know it, because no one has told the preacher or told him that his words have been a blessing to them. If we want our people to preach well, we must try to teach well; if we want them to be loyal, helpful pastors and teachers, let us not think it extravagant to speak a kind word and by living in touch with them do all that we can to help and encourage them in their work.

Between seventy-five and eighty attended the entertainment on Friday night. The scenes made to suit the occasion caused considerable fun, especially the green lads loded with one of the properties, holding up Walters as he is returning home from Berkeley with a purse full of money and Pradly approaching took in the situation retraced his steps and returned home another road. Messrs Logan, Murdoch, Walters, Bissel and Laub who entertained the audience with sentimental and comic songs, were justly encored. Miss Nettie Bothell of Walters Falls and Rosa McLaughlin furnished the instrumental music while the former sang a few appropriate songs. The antics of the punch and judy family caused great amusement for all.

Mr. Thos. Gordon P. S. I. made a visit to our school last week and reports progress good and everything satisfactory.

Who were the four young men that went to Markdale and coming home feeling the effects of fire water, called at a place, but to their dismay encountered the lord of the house, who has made it hot for them?

A sequel to the great Carson City fistic battle took place near here, the other day in which Fitzsimmons' double was knocked out in three rounds.

Glascott.

Changeable weather.

Hard times and money scarce but as a general thing stock feed is plentiful.

Some from this part took in the Berkeley soiree and reports a good time.

The latest matter of discussion among our sports has been the Corbett and Fitzsimmons contest and no doubt some surprised at the result.

Priceville.

Mr. Wilson of Orangeville occupied the pulpit in the Presbyterian church last Sabbath.

Miss Minnie Waters, old Durham road, has been in Hamilton for some time, returned home last Saturday.

Mr. E. Simpson, jr., who has been indisposed for some time is on the mend and will likely very soon be about again.

Mrs. Alexander McLeod, north line, is quite ill. She had been attending the burial of her Sister near Galt and was taken sick before reaching home. Dr. Hutton is in attendance.

Mr. Thomas Ferris, who has carried on the butcher business for a year in our burg, is moving on to his farm again this spring.

The conundrum supper which was given in Watson's hall last Friday evening, under the auspices of the Methodist church was an entire success. This was the first supper of the kind given in Priceville and notwithstanding the uncertainties as to the interpretation of the mysterious bill of fare, and embarrassment often experienced upon receiving the order, there was general satisfaction. Of course satisfaction here sometimes consisted in seeing one's neighbor get disappointed as badly as himself. Just imagine a person with keen appetite receiving, as per order, a tooth pick and glass of water for first course. The next order, however, was as likely to prove most satisfactory. The Flesherton glee club furnished excellent music. The following comprised the club. Miss Richardson pianist; Messrs Barnhouse, Beecroft and Dr. Mahan; Miss Christie and Mrs. Blackburn. The music, which was kept up during refreshment hour, was much appreciated. Miss Richardson gave also some excellent music on the violin. The following were noticed from outside points besides the Glee Club: Mrs. Barnhouse, Mrs. Beecroft, Miss Richardson and Mr. Oswald, Flesherton, and Mr. and Mrs. Innis, Mr. C. Noble and Mr. Robt. McNally, jr., of Markdale. The roads were bad and the weather horrible, otherwise a much larger attendance would have been present. As it was, $28.50 was realized. A merry party that intended spending the evening elsewhere but were prevented from so doing by the inclemency of the weather, were present and enjoyed themselves quite agreeably, so "it's an ill wind that blows nobody good."

CRETE,—
"And what is this? Nay, nay, 'tis brazen false,
Our England's voice the foremost in the pack
Of hounds that serve the Turk and bark so loud
They lie! Or if they speak but half the truth,
Let pity find some spot where Saxon shame
May hide her burning face"
W. J. BENGOUGH.

Them air's my sentiments tu.

The Greco-Turkish fight has been left in shadow the past few days by the Corbett-Fitzsimmons one.

Evening services are being held in St. Matthias church, and will continue throughout lent.

The annual tea-meeting which took place on the 18th in the Methodist church proved to be a success in every respect, which could not have been otherwise under the supervision of the Rev. Mr. Savage of Toronto, who thoroughly understands the art of pleasing an audience. Very interesting and instructive addresses were delivered by the Revs. J. M. Simpson and T. G. Scott of Markdale. Miss Pickell of Markdale entertained the audience with two very suitable solos, Miss E. Ewart accompanist. Miss Moore and Mattie Gillespie favored the audience with appropriate recitations which were well received. The choir sang a number of anthems suitable to the occasion. Dr. Sproule, M. P., of Markdale officiated as chairman and with his pointed comment did not fail to leave a pleasant impression on the audience. The program was brought to a close by singing the national anthem. Some people have remarked that Vandeleur must be a very large place judging from the scope your correspondent takes in when reporting to your paper. To persons thus minded we would say that we have within our community designated as Vandeleur, a church, a school and a post-office and when reporting we purpose to do so about what we hear (as our name means Heresa) and know to be true of the people who are connected with Vandeleur for any one, two, or all three, of the above purposes, and thus keep represented in your valuable paper one of the most progressive communities within your district.

HERESA.

A Yankee Fraud.

During last autumn several of our exchanges as well as the STANDARD accepted an advertising contract from "The Globe Advertising Agency" of St. Louis, Mo. The contract was for three months, but when completed no funds were available for same, so the publisher was misled to start. The adv's were headed "A Chance to make Money," "Churning done in a Minute," "A Wife equal to a Gold Mine," "Money made in a Minute," &c. Nothing was heard of the concern since until this week when the following letter, from the Post-master at St. Louis which explains itself, was handed to us, and which we publish so as to post our readers as to the nature of the fake:

SIR:—Replying to your enclosed letter concerning J. F. Casey & Co., you are respectfully informed that on Feb. 20, 1897, we received a communication from the Department at Washington, D. C., declaring that the business conducted by the Globe Advertising Agency, of which J. F. Casey was the secretary, was fraudulent and forbidding them the use of the mails. We receive communications almost daily inquiring about this firm, but this is the only information we can give.

Yours respectfully,
JAMES E. MATSON,
JAS. S. ROWE, } Auditors.

"THERE'S WISDOM IN ECONOMY"

And there are different sorts of economy. The economy which "saves at the spigot and wastes at the bung." Is more than no economy at all.

The truest saving is to buy good reliable things of a good reliable firm who sell such things at the lowest possible prices.

We sell on such a close margin of profit that our customers feel confident that the bottom has been struck. Hence the active progressive look of things around here.

It is very simple to do honest storekeeping—give the right values and satisfy every customer. When you know how. It's the knowing how that's made our store so popular. It's the doing of it that's pinned the confidence of the public here.
