NOTES.

Dr. W. T. Aikins, one of Toronto's oldest and most successful practitioners, died at his home there on the 24th May, aged 79 years. The doctor had been ill for three years.

The Pope has just completed a Latin poem of 500 stanzas, pointing out the beauties of frugality and the evils of gluttony. The poem is filled with charm and quiet humorous.

Mr. A. T. Q. Dobson of Montreal, President of Dobson's Bank, died on Friday last, aged 70 years. Deceased was a philanthropist and had been a generous donor. His contributions to McGill University amounted to over $250,000.

"Almighty Voice" an Indian murderer, who had sought refuge from his pursuers in a bluff near Duck Lake, was killed on Monday as the result of a rush on the position by the Mounted Police and volunteers. Fortunately none of the attacking force were injured.

By the birth of the Duchess of York's little girl the grandchildren of Queen Victoria's family rises to eighty-seventy of whom are alive. She has had nine children, four sons and five daughters, forty-one grandchildren, and thirty great grandchildren. Two of her children and eight grandchildren have died.

MUNICIPAL.

Our Village fathers are very canny this season in the expenditure of public funds. They made rather close calculations, and are consequently collecting a few cents more than they deem it wise, to enable them to continue this season in every way. Mr. [illegible] of Bay city, Michigan, [illegible] Mr. Robson's, one day [illegible] was a decided success. [illegible] ton, the teacher, is to be congratulated, as also parents and pupils [illegible] the large attendance and all round success of this their first picnic. We understand that a bell is to be purchased with the proceeds. A real Jubilee [illegible], eh?

Mr. John Kelly has been indisposed for the last week, as has also Mr. Robt. Avison.

We regret to learn that our former neighbor, Mr. Samuel Greenaway of Philadelphia is not in good health. We also hear he intends returning this next fall.

Wodehouse.

Another Wodehouse "I'll sing of a wedding and that at Dunleary, now a wedding is the place to be moping or dreary. The wedding took place between James and his dearie on 26th last May in the evening.

On Wednesday of last week at the residence of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. John Ward of this place, Miss Adeline Ward and Mr. James Brown were united in marriage bonds. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a select company by the Rev. Mr. Goldberg of Markdale. The bride received many presents from her friends who were present on the occasion. The bride and groom are happily domiciled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Pickering. Congratulations brother benedict.

There was a "taffy" party last week I judge from what I noticed.

The masons are at work at Robt. Wiley's barn foundation.

Ed. Wilcox has his new wagon and general carpenter's work shop almost completed.

Cherry Grove.

Mr. Wm. Dickey has had a serious attack of Quinsy but we are glad to report that she is on the mend.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sewell returned from Meaford on Monday evening having spent their honey-moon in that town.

Mr. and Mrs. House left for Allandale last Friday, Mr. House having accepted a situation on a farm in that locality. TRUTH.

Berkeley.

Cold, wet weather is still with us.

Mitchell Bros. have been enlarging their store houses, which is proof of the prosperous development of this enterprising firm.

Miss Clara Bowler of Barrie was visiting her sister Mrs. J. Clark.

Mrs. F. McCarroll spent a few days with friends in Guelph.

Messrs F. Grundy and E. Collins and Dr. J. S. Tennant of Lucknow have been on a fishing tour to our beautiful neighboring lakes.

Meaford Road.

The Queen's birthday passed off very quietly here. Some of the natives took in the festivities at Eugenia, others attended the garden party at Mr. G. Hutchinson's, while some went after the speckled beauties, with varied success.

Mr. R. Pritchard paid his parents a short visit on the 24th.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Carson of Priceville visited at Mr. C. Gilbert's last week.

Mr. W. Cooper is building a straw shed for Reeve Boland.

Mr. James Brown, jr., and Miss Adeline Ward were married last Wednesday the 26th.

Mr. Albert Hutchinson left for Feversham last week. He is running the cheese factory there this season.

Miss Weber of this place accompanied by Miss Wiggins of Kimberley visited at Flesherton last week.

Miss Anderson of Glenelg is visiting at her sister's, Mrs. G. Hutchinson.

Those who have orchards would be looking to their interests to pay them a visit as the tent caterpillar are numerous this year. A stitch in time sometimes saves nine.

Miss Gilray attended the Teachers Convention in your burg last week.

Lauriston.

Although the weather was disagreeable on the 24th, yet those who attended the U. E. L. picnic and concert at Walker's corners were rendered somewhat oblivious to its condition by the enjoyable time they spent. A number from a distance were present among them being Master John Dinsmore and the Misses McMaster from Clarksburg and the Misses Robson and Messrs Cook from Traverston.

Our enterprising neighbor, Mr. Baird has been recently enjoying a somewhat extended trip having visited London, Berlin, Listowel and other points.

Miss Helen Isaac of Dromore, who is at present the guest of her sister Mrs. Baird, spent part of last week in Markdale and with other Lauristonites took in the Teachers' Convention. They were pleased to see their old friends Miss Bell and Miss Whelan.

Miss Lottie Wilson and Alfie Murray together with Mr. and Miss Page spent the latter part of last week with friends in Proton.

Mr. Batty Wright is home from the west and Stewart, who is attending the N. B. C. of Owen Sound, accompanied him.

Walters Falls.

Mr. W. J. McKechnie, graduate of the Northern Business College, Owen Sound, is visiting at Mr. R. J. Watson's.

The last of the series of temperance meetings for Holland was held in Knox church, 10th line, on Sunday evening. The church was well filled to hear this great question discussed. The speakers were Rev. H. Berry and Mr. H. Boswell of this place and Rev. Geo. Yeomans of Holland Centre. The Walters Falls Methodist choir furnished music for the evening. The meetings throughout the township have been very successful and we hope will be the means of doing a great deal of good. There will be meetings of the same nature throughout Euphrasia in August and September. Why not other townships fall in line and push this grand cause along.

Mr. R. J. Watson was in Owen Sound on Tuesday of last week.

The directors of the Great Central Agricultural Society will hold their annual meeting on Saturday next at 2 o'clock to arrange matters in connection with their great show which will be held on the 8th and 9th of Sept. next. A full board is requested.

Rev. H. Berry attended the district meeting in Owen Sound last week.

Mrs. R. Clark drove to Owen Sound Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Walters, Mrs. Seamans, Mrs. Young and Miss Mary J. Coleridge were in Owen Sound last Tuesday.

At the Quarterly official meeting of the Methodist church held here on the 24th May, a resolution was passed unanimously expressive of the high appreciation in which the pastor, Rev. H. Berry, is held, he having rendered three years faithful and efficient service.

The people of Walters Falls and vicinity should not forget the grand concert to be given in Oddfellow's Hall next Tuesday evening June 8th. The program will be essentially the same as lately enjoyed by a large Markdale audience. The company is about 20 strong and is composed of the best Markdale talent. The entertainment is full of life from beginning to end and will be found interesting to everybody. There will be dialect songs, choruses and solos, orchestral music, stump speeches &c., concluding with a lively play in one act entitled "The Doctor's Servant." Mr. W. J. Benson of Markdale well known as the most popular humorist and best comic singer in this part of the country, is one of the leading lights of this company. This concert which the people of Markdale payed 25 cents to hear, will be presented at the Falls next Tuesday night for a nominal price of admission, adults 15c. children 10c. There are no reserved seats so come early. Read the large posters.

West Berkeley.

A gloom is cast over this community owing to the unexpected demise of little Eddie Winlaw, whose interment took place last Thursday the 27th May, followed by a large concourse of sympathizing friends and relatives.

The weather continues moist hereabouts retarding the developement of the grasshoppers.

'Twas to Garafata tp., that Thomas and Sarah Sowerby was last week. Thomas has returned but Sarah sent a substitute, a Mr. Amos Fiellyn. What you think of that girls?

Miss Katie McCormac of Glenroaden a former pedagogue here, paid us a short visit lately. Kate purposes going to the prarie province in the near future there to teach the young idea, of course.

A gang of traders known as gypsies are relieving our inhabitants of their surplus dry goods and other truck which they choose to take giving in exchange tinware.

Mr. Frederick Stafford has been changing the appearance of his famous Mount Nebo lately. What can't a good man, team and plow do anyway?

Flesherton.

Mr. James E. Baskerville of this place, who has been in a delicate condition of health for a number of years, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. (Dr.) Reid, Horning's Mills, on the 25th ult., and his remains were brought here for burial on Thursday afternoon. On arrival a service was held in the Methodist church conducted by Revs Mahan of this place and Kemp of Horning's Mills. The latter preached a practical sermon from our Lord's parable of the builders, Matt. 7:25-28 closing with a touching reference to the last days of the deceased whom he had visited and had good reason to believe that he was now through God's mercy in the glory land having earnestly sought and found peace with God. His last hours, though peaceful, were filled with regrets for having done nothing for Christ and he left a dying message with the speaker for his companions warning them against the folly of a wasted and Christless life. Deceased was the third son of the late Rev. James Baskerville and was 30 years 8 months and 17 days of age. His highly esteemed mother and sisters have the sympathy of many friends in their sorrow.

The annual report of the Flesherton circuit (Rev. John Mahan pastor) for the year ending May 26th 1897 shows the circuit's finances to be in a healthy and satisfactory condition. Notwithstanding the financial depression which is general, and that owing to removals there is a slight decrease in membership, there is a gratifying increase in the total receipts over last year. There were raised for connexional purposes $235.36; for circuit purposes $1344.00 and for ministers salary including horse hire $700, making a total of $2279.36. The present membership is 283. In the Epworth League there are 26 active and 4 associate members, and the receipts for League purposes were $24.36. In the Sabbath School here the membership is 188 with an average attendance of 130. There are 400 volumes in the library, and the receipts for the year were $95.00.

Mr. John Hales of the village met with a financial loss a short time ago and last week a few of his neighbors and friends to express their sympathy in some tangible way presented him with a tidy young cow accompanied by a short address kindly expressive of their good wishes for himself and his estimable wife. Mr. Hales heartily thanked the donors for their gift and so kind an expression of good-will.

The principal of the Flesherton school did not exchange ideas with his bredderen and sisteren in convention last week but plodded right along as in the days before conventions were in vogue. Miss Irwin, however, of the junior department took advantage of the inspiration afforded by the occassion.

Evangelist Rodger preached to a large congregation and specially to the young people in the Presbyterian church on Sabbath morning last taking for his subject "The Lord is my helper," Heb. 13:6. This was dealt with in four simple divisions, viz: Able to help willing to help, near to help and known to help. The illustrations used were apt and well suited to the child mind and the speaker who is quite at home dealing with the young held the closest attention of the children throughout. By request Mr. Rodger sang a touching and beautiful solo which was greatly enjoyed. The special collection to the Ladies Aid fund amounted in all to $8.25.

Rev. Mr. Thom preached in the Baptist church Sabbath morning and Rev. Balfour of Eugenia in the Methodist church in the evening.

Mr. W. A. Armstrong accompanied Rev. Mr. Mahan as lay delegate to the District meeting at Owen Sound last week.

Miss Emma Armstrong of Toronto, visited at her uncle's Mr. W. Strain's for a couple of weeks and returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Will Stewart of Weston is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. John Osborn.

Mr. Robt. Wright of Collingwood, visited his sister, Mrs. Wm. Wright, the beginning of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmondson of Arthur, were the guests of Rev. Mr. Thom part of last week.

Mrs. (Rev.) Edmunds of Monkton, attended the funeral of her brother, Jas. E. Baskerville Thursday last.

Messrs F. Cole, carriage builder and D. O'Hara, spinner, left last week to take situations the former in Toronto and the latter at Stayner.

Mrs. Fred Tucker is visiting relatives at Uxbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Heron visited friends in Toronto last week and this.

Mr. R. J. Sproule spent Monday in the city.

Messrs Frank VanDusen, Phil Barnhouse, R. Pedlar and Geo. Wickens wheeled over and spent from Saturday till Monday with friends in Collingwood.

A number of the Markdale boys were in town on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fawcett are visiting friends at Heathcote.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay spent Sunday with the latter's parents near Shelburne.

Mrs. Thos. McCnav of Inistoge is visiting a few days with her mother, Mrs. McGillvray.

Priceville.

Mrs. Frank Tuck and daughter, formerly of this place but now of Orillia, are visiting friends here at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Lavigne, of Detroit, are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. McAuley.

We are pleased to report Mrs. Dan McLean in a fair way to recovery after her serious illness.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Singer of the Crown Hotel is in the balance between life and death as we write.

Misses Lizzie, Sarah and Mary Campbell and Miss Lizzie Scott left for Guelph last Monday.

Little Fred Kennedy, North Line, had quite a little circus last week. He together with two other parties made up their minds to attend a certain dance and when a short distance east of Priceville, Fred, who is a noted horseman, was driving his blood colt, undertook to show some of his fancy driving, but had not gone far before they came into violent collision with another rig and found themselves over quite a large bank and their buggy minus a wheel, and the horse making frantic efforts to get away. Fred says by thunder "I held on to him, he did not get away. No sir'e." He unhitched from the buggy and thought to ride him into the village but he was no sooner on his back than he was thrown sky high clear over the horse's head. Fred says he landed all right on his feet but whether this is so or not we cannot say. He begs to be let off mild as he is so young, but had any one seen the affair he says it was wild in the extreme. There came nearly being a dead correspondent from Maple Grove and one that would be sadly missed. But all's well that ends well, so says Fred.

Hector McLean is busy building the stone wall for Mr. Hugh Waters' barn.

There's to be a grand wedding in Priceville in a day or so. More about it next week.
