What the counts wants is population—not emigrants, who come here as to a half-way house by come here as to a half-way house but emigrants who come to stay; and Mr. Sifton is certain to get many of that kind, more than have come of late gears. The prime feature of the session, however, a feature that will render it forever memorable, is the tariff discrimination in favor of Britaila, the first practical step towards the closer union of the Empire that has been taken since Adam Smith preached it over a century ago. To put it on the lowest grounds, the value of this move as a business advertisement for Canada in the United Kingdom can hardly be overestimated. It may be said without Another feature is the disappearance of the Red Parlor as a power in politics. The infant-industry fellows who used to strut in the Russell House and walk up to the Finance Minister and tell him that he must do this, that and the other thing, as if they owned him body and breeches, now wear a subdued and chopfallen air. Mr. Fielding listens to them politicly, but that is all. They no longer make the tariff to suit themselves and grind the people. gas in electric culverts no really effective means of prevention has yet been hit upon. A remedy, which apparently has much merit, is proposed by Prof. Clowes. A standard hydrogen flame, fee from a small steel cylinder of compressed gas, is inclosed in a bruss vessel, provided with a transparent front. The quiet trade in wholesale circles at Toronto this week is due in a measure to the unfavorable weather. The sorting up-trade in dry goods is backward, the detrade in dry goods is backward, the do-mand being slow owing to cool and wet atmosphere. The grain crops are not as promising as a week ago for the reason, but the hay crop is likely very heavy. Some improvement is re-ported in groceries, there being a demand for tens and sugars. The latter are firm in prices, with larger purphases than lasted in consequence of the ap-proach of the berry sesson.

Trade conditions at Montreal are practically, unpitered, and our general remarks of last week will apply at date. marks of last week will apply at date.
