VOICE OF THE PRESS

REV. DR. TALMAGE ON RELIGIOUS NEWSPAPERS.

If They Have the Right Spirit, No Doubt Each Day Does More Good Than First... Washington, Nov. 28.—In a previous discourse, Dr. Talmage having shown the opportunities of the press, in this discourse speaks of the mission of religious newspapers. His text is, "That which is sown to the Lord shall also be reaped, and he will also give to you a hundred fold, and he will also increase your seed, and he will also multiply your fruit."

What good is a 50 or 60 or 100 churches, or a Sabbath audience compared with the 10,000 or 20,000 or 30,000 that are pulpits that preach day after day... The Century Magazine, with its November number, enters upon its twenty-seventh year. During its long career, by reason of its many notable contributions to the literature of the day, it has acquired a position as a leader in thought.

After an Heirless. The Alleged Object of Prince Alexander's Trip to America. According to Which the General Public in England Have to Pay. THREE CLASSES. In England have to pay. "Well you see, sir, said a rather portly customer by what they call, 'sir' what I mean is that I am a 'number' we know it as a 'number' and charge him ten and six. On the other hand, if he asks for a 'number' we know it as a 'number' and charge him ten and six. On the other hand, if he asks for a 'number' we know it as a 'number' and charge him ten and six.

How Worry Kills. Modern science has brought nothing more curiously trifling than the fact that worry kills. More worry kills more people than any other cause of death. Worry is a disease of the brain, and it is a disease that is not cured by medicine. Worry is a disease that is not cured by medicine. Worry is a disease that is not cured by medicine.
