On The Wing

Last week ye editor had an outing and was from home from Monday antil Monday of this week. Standard read-ors would, however, not suspect it from the appearance of the paper. It came out promptly and in usual shape.

Perhans a brief outline of our outing will be interesting to some, so here goes:

To begin, we took the 4.35 train Honday August 29 for Toronto there to attend the I.O.F. High, Court meeting which opened Tuesday morning holding three sessions a day until Thursday night. The Supreme Court was some days previous. The place of a neeting was the Foresters Temple, a Old England's Plag, vs Dr A w Chase The undsome ten-storev building on the Co, ner of Bay and Richmond streets are known the world over and like old England's flag the sun on the co.
