No Room For Christ

BY D. L MOODY Preached at the Grand Central Pala New York Oity.

"They laid him in a manger, because here was no room for them in the inn.' →Luke ii, 7.

For four thousand years every saint of God has been looking out into the mist and future, waiting and watching for the coming of the Messiah. Away back in the dark day when Adam fell. God put a lamp of promise in his hand, and told him that the seed of the woman should bruise the serpent's head and Bible students think that when Eve brought forth her first born son, and called him Cain, she thought he was a promised One. Right on for four thousand years they kept looking and watching and waiting for the coming One. That is the true attitude of every child of God, and has been for ix thousand years, excepting the 33 years that Jesus Christ was upon the earth. When he had finished his work and was ready to go back to the Father. he said, "Watch, I will come back again." The true attitude of every child of God is to watch for him

But when the world to this earth, and came on such an errand, what do we find? There say, "Perhaps, if they had known who ie was they would have given him a roval welcome." But when, a few months afterwards, wise men from the Last came and enquired, "Where is he that is born King of the Jews ?" and it was told that he was born in Bethlehem, not only Herod, but all erusalem was troubled that he had come, and Herod sent down to Bethlemel and years old put to death. But ye say he had not proclaimed his mission. But after he had been baptized, and the oice from heaven said, "This is my gioved Son, in whom I am well pleasd," and he had performed some mirwhose, he went into the synagogue, and the minister handed him the ment roll of the prophecy of Isainh, and he found the place where it was written, "The Spirit of the Lard is apon me, because he hath annointed ine to preach the Gospel to the poor; e hath sent me to heal the brokenhe hath sent me to near the hand begin to the hand break up the referred that is captives, and recovering of sight to destroying mean seeds. de muised, to preach the acc entable! car of the Lord."
