SUCCESS
Right Business Principles
Growth With Success.
We do not dictate to people where they should buy. No time for that. Our own business takes all our time.
Business increasing daily because people are sure of GOOD WORK, GUARANTEED WORK,
COURTEOUS TREATMENT,
MODERATE PRICES.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

June 29.
Green peas are in. Strawberries are plentiful. Haying will begin forthwith. Saturday will be a public holiday, July 1.
A servant girl wanted. Mrs. M. Richardson, Fleisherton.
Building operations continue brisk and good progress is being made.
Mr. A. S. Irving, Markdale, has now on hand a fresh burned kiln of lime.
A quantity of young pigs four weeks old for sale. Geo. Lamb, Glascock.
Arrived at Stephen's drug store one barrel Castor Oil, two kegs blue stone.
Shortill, the optician, is now competent to practice Rhinocopy. See ad on this page.
W. H. Green of Proton found his stray cattle near Walkerton, recently advertised in the Standard.
Three valuable brands of vegetables, Elgin, Hamilton and Waltham, always in stock at Shortill's the jeweller.
The clean-up in the Klondike for the present season, it is estimated, will amount to at least $18,000,000, more than twice last year's yield.
Mrs. Mary Coleman is having a residence erected on her farm on the suburbs so that her farm tenants may occupy the present dwelling.
Every lady should save herself during hot weather by procuring their supply of bread from the baker. G. J. Matthews makes a delicious article.
There's a clipping on this inside of this paper from the Ottawa Journal in reference to a former Walkerton boy, which will be read with interest by many.
At Stephen's drug store—Fresh supplies just in for farmers and stock men. Sulphur, salts, sulphate, ginger, fennel, gentian, mustard, sweet nitre, insect powder.
Mr. McKee, cutter for Massey-Harris paid out $5,300 within ten days for lumber between Markdale and Owen Sound. This is the first, from which to purchase your farm implements.
Berkeley Presbyterians will hold their annual picnic in the park on the 1st of July. A substantial refreshment stand, and a good time is promised. Admission, 25 and 15 cts.
At the meeting of the O. O. F. E. held at 10:30 a.m. last week, Mr. J. J. Trevelyan was elected district director for this district. The next meeting will be held in the afternoon of the 1st of July.
Mr. J. J. Matthews, the proprietor of Markdale public cemetery, is prepared to attend to removals and also to a general and beautiful burial plots. Residence near the railway depot on Main street.
