Markdale Standard. MARKDALE, SEPTEMBER 28, 1929. We intend to enlarge and otherwise improve the Standard on the occasion of moving into its new quarters, but as the security of publications is causing some delay in the completion of the block we have decided to make the contemplated enlargement of the paper next week the first issue in October.

Meaford Road. Mr W T Kelly has rented his farm for a term of years to Mr. Jacob, Holly. Mr W McCallum of Arthur was over last week visiting friends. Mr W Kelly is going to work his father's farm.

Kimberley. Mr McGowan is doing a rushing business in the roller mill. The farmers have a soft snap plowing since the heavy rains. Kimberley sidewalks have been repaired. Messrs Barrett and Stafford have put on the second coat of paint on the house of Joseph Henderson, Main street.

Don't. Don't stand in the doorway where there's a crowd. Don't fasten your horse where animal or vehicle obstructs a street crossing. Don't eat fast. Don't drink. Don't keep the dressmaker waiting one day for her money when you can pay it.

Don't wait till the last month in the year to hand in what you intend to contribute to the church. When you lift your heart and voice in gratitude for the blessings of the year don't fail to show your sincerity by a material contribution.

Rocklyn. Sept 23 - The town is booming. Almost every citizen is improving his dwelling. Mr McCallum has moved his house onto a stone foundation. Mr John Dillon has moved his house across the road to his stable thereby making a great improvement to the premises.

Traverson. Mr John Greenwood returned on Monday, after spending a week with his daughter, Mrs George Robertson of Molesworth. Mr and Mrs Thos Cook were very successful at the Markdale show. Tom had a grand crop this year.

Fleisherton. The Fall exhibition held here on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week again encountered unfavorable weather, but with a fair measure of success. In some lines the exhibitors were as large as on former years, but as there were better conditions on the whole a fair average and gain was shown. On Wednesday, considering the threatening sky, the attendance was good and very gratifying to the management.
