

BOERS.

I Into An ly 150-Bravery White Gives Ladysmith--The Free State.

...he had placed all the
...toward the enemy.
...the threat of admira-
...and it is hoped that
...was captured across the
...arrive later.

...AND MISSING.
...The Durban Infantry
...of them are wounded,
...of their number
...of their positions
...is reported to be a
...in July arrived here
...and Major
...wounded men doing
...to have an

...show that a heavy rain
...of a cessation of fir-
...Boers were destroying
...scouts pushed in and
...with the British pick-
...from Eastport.

...AT LADYSMITH.
...Escourt says: A
...but a reliable
...of Wednesday
...there on Friday, No-
...that volunteers
...from their positions
...the regular troops.

...White-out-maneuver
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

Mystery of Shaft No. 13.

CHAPTER III--Continued.

She stammered for the moment, but Elizabeth to the maid, looked at her, and then she stood like one petrified, and stared down at the toy weapon held by the mistress's back. "It never saw it before," she thought, "this is child's play Mrs. St. George. No matter in whose hands that pistol is--your husband has confessed it to be his."

Who shall decide the degree of guilt involved in that truth, which murder, which other person's deed? Certainly not the man whose name was on the list. He had been witnessed, with the result, by the woman who was plainly proven to be lying, while the man's confession was borne out by the facts. "Who shall decide the degree of guilt involved in that truth, which murder, which other person's deed? Certainly not the man whose name was on the list. He had been witnessed, with the result, by the woman who was plainly proven to be lying, while the man's confession was borne out by the facts."

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

THE ATTACK ON THE ARMOURD TRAIN AT KRAAIPLAN.

For hours Capt. Nesbitt and his men in charge of the armoured train which was wrecked by the Boers at Kraaipan, kept the enemy at bay. It was only when the Boers opened on them with shells that they surrendered.

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

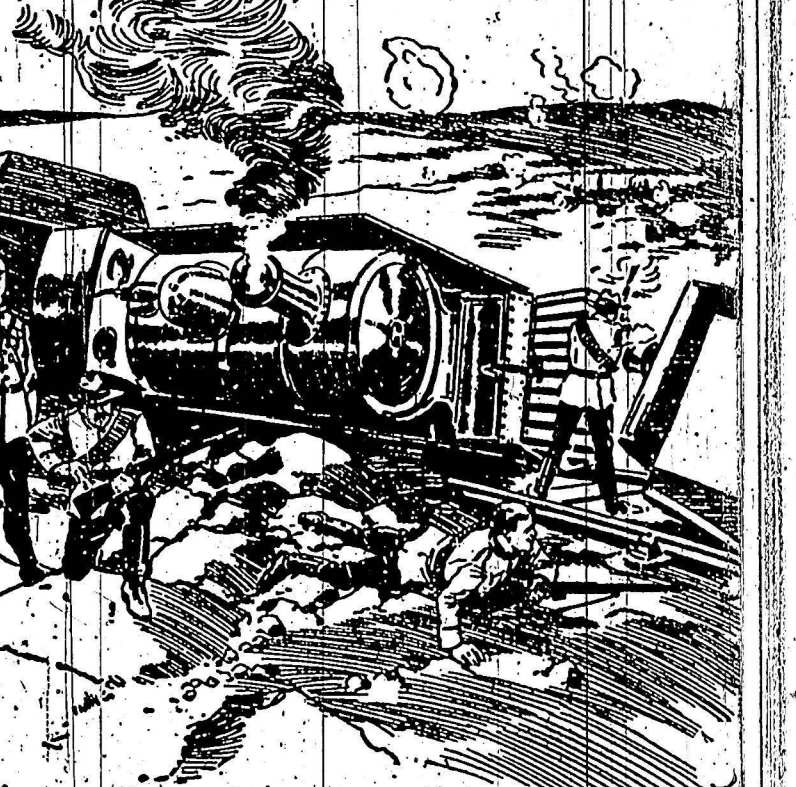

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

For hours Capt. Nesbitt and his men in charge of the armoured train which was wrecked by the Boers at Kraaipan, kept the enemy at bay. It was only when the Boers opened on them with shells that they surrendered.

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

BRITAIN'S MEDICAL CORPS.

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers

...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers
...of the Boers