

In Books

Received a very good cloth the best known ds to choose last can have ents.

& Co., ONT.

with friends at Dunroon and

Harkaway

(Intended for last week.)
John Elliott has sold his farm, and Logan place, to Mr. Richard Misses Murdoch are both en-for next year in the schools in they are now teaching, and are getting a raise on salary which that they are giving good satisin Teachers.

trustees have re-engaged Miss ty at an advance of some $15 on men's salary, the children are all to hear it and as far as we can so are the parents.

itors of musical instruments are a brisk business of late, some bought and we hear of as many left in one house on trial, of some of them will have to pull

Mercer has returned to Rainy District to resume his duties as for Murdoch Bros., Rail Contractors. He is accompanied A. Murdoch of this place, who for some time in Turner's store in Markdale.

Wm. Jordan, of Tullamore, Thanksgiving with his daughter, John Steer, and stayed over Sun-

This week) are sorry to learn that Mrs. Wm.

was laid up last week with like Ingrisse. Hope she be better.

Arthur Murdoch is at present on to his mother here and is call-end to see old friends. He turn in a few days to Rainy District where he has been rail-ilding for the last year.

Walters Falls

ion matters are the topic of the reengaging of Mr. Frank Olmhouse is completed and greatly its appearance. Messrs.

Son did the work.

trustees of the Methodist church ave let the contract for the of a new chimney. Mr. Mars the work.

R. and R. H. Olmstead and Brown left on Monday for a kent hunt in the wilds of Mus-We wish them success.

Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian 10th line, Holland, will give annual fowl supper on Nov. 6th. time is anticipated.

and Mrs. Hiram Bonelli, of Head, spent Friday last with in our burg.

J. Fries is engaged as teacher

Dayman, of Clarksburg, under the parental roof.

High Wilson left on Monday burge to complete his apprenwith his old boss, Mr. R. J. who recently removed from to that place.

of the Methodist congrega-as held recently for the ap-ment of a superintendent of the School to take the place of R. ur, who has filled the office for part of his stay among us. owing are the officers and appointed: Superintendent Ward; assistant supt., Mr. ell; teachers, H. Bonnell, A.
Barker, Frank Olmstead, R. H. Olmstead, Lucy
Lillie Taylor; Sec-Treas. T.

ount of money to lend on security at the lowest rate of

Expenses low. No fines
es valued personally. No wait-convenience of inspectors. W.
g. Markdale, Appraiser for Permanent Loan Company.

Books

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS

Durham Presbyterian Church has been renovated, and new seats are being put in at a cost of $675.

Mr. James Dowd, of Chatsworth, recently imported thirty western ponies which he is offering for sale.

Mr. J. H. Dundas sang a solo in Christ Church last Sunday evening in fine form. It was well received, as it should be.

There is no word of the return of the soldiers from South Africa yet, though the steamer Idaho is being eagerly watched for.

The second quarterly meeting and sacramental service for this conference year will be held next Sunday morning in the Methodist church here.

Lost—Brown frieze overcoat between W. Stewarts, east back line, and Markdale. Finder will please leave it at the STANDARD office, and oblige, R.
R. Smith.

Mr. Ed. Sargent, Berkeley, will have a clearing credit sale on Tuesday next, Nov. 6, commencing at 1 o'clock. He is giving up farming and everything must be sold. Geo. Noble auctioneer

The STANDARD and Weekly Globe to end of 1901 for $1.75. This includes a picture of the "Canadians at the Rattle of Paardeberg", which the Globe supplies to all subscribers old or new who pay a year ahead.

Mrs. Elizabeth White of the 11th of Glenelg, will hold a clearing credit sale on Thursday the 8th November, commencing at one o'clock, farm stock, implements etc. Twelve months credit on approved paper. Geo. Noble auctioneer.

Mr. John McWhirter, of Walters Falls, will hold an extensive credit sale of farm stock, implements, etc., on Monday, November 12, commencing at 1 o'clock. Twenty months credit on approved paper. W. J. Shepherdson, auctioneer.

The Preeder's Gazette, weekly journal devoted to the interests of the Stock Farm, the leading publication of its class in the United States, published by J. H. Saunders Pub. Co. Chicago, is clubbed with the STANDARD both papers for $2.50.

Subscriptions taken at this office for the Christian Guardian, either new or renewals. New ones get the balance of this year with all of next for one dollar. Would like five new subscribers during this month of November. One already, who'll be the next? Every Methodist should have it.

Mr. M. E. Richardson and J. B. Lucas, M.L.A., will address a mass meeting of the Electors of South Grey in the Marsh Hall, Markdale, on Saturday evening on the public questions of the day. Dr. Landerkin or his representative invited. Reserved seats for the ladies. A company of Italian harpers will render choice music for half an hour before the meeting. Meeting commences at 7.15. Doors open at seven o'clock.

The chapter of the Rural Deaconry of Grey met in Christ Church, Markdale, October 23rd. The Holy Communion was celebrated at 10 a.m., the celebrant being the Rev. J. R. Newell, assisted by the Rev. William Hindle, rector of Shelburne. In the afternoon the chapter was convened for the dispatch of business and to discuss various matters of interest to the Church. The Rev. Rural Dean Ryan, B.D. occupied the chair. The Rev. Messrs. Hill and Newell were appointed a mission's committee with visitatorial powers. The appointment of a missionary delegation to visit every parish in the deaconry was left to the Rural Deacon.

Womans Missionary Association

The county convention of the Womans Auxiliary Missionary Association of the Deaconry of Grey was held in the basement of Christ Church, Markdale, October 23. There was an excellent attendance. Mrs. Boomer, of London, was present to give advice and direction in the absence of Mrs. Baldwin, who on account of illness could not undertake the journey from London. Mrs.
Sage, wife of the Rev. G. B. Sage, B.A., B. D. of St. George's church, London, accompanied Mrs. Boomer. Mrs.
Ardill, Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Matthews, of Owen Sound; Mrs. Ryan and Mrs.
Parker, of Durham, and others from various points, were present. The women of Markdale who were present were representative. Mrs. Ardill presided in the temporary absence of Mrs.
Newell. Mrs. Parker was appointed secretary of the Deaconry Convention.
After the conclusion of the business before the convention, a branch of the Association was formed for Markdale.

Miss J. Norton, of Holland Centre, spent Sunday in town among friends.

Mrs. Mullin, of Hillsburg, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Tuck.

Mr. Allie Watson has secured a situation with the Robt. Simpson Co.
of Toronto.

Mr. John A. Murdoch left last week to join his brother at Savanne, Rainy River District.

amount of money to lend on
security at the lowest rate of

Expenses low. No fines
es valued personally. No wait-

convenience of inspectors. W.
g. Markdale, Appraiser for Permanent Loan Company.

One week till polling day, Nov. 7th.
Two months until the end of the century.

Pasture is magnificent and live stock in prime condition.

White wine, proof and malt vinegars all at Stephen's drug store.

Shingles for sale at Markdale and Rockvale. Armstrong Bros.

This fall has been a record breaker for fine weather and little or no frost.

Get your watch repaired by W. J.

Shortill, expert on all fine mechanical work.

Whole pickling spice, sweet spice, and catsup spice for pickling, at Stephen's drug store.

Skirts, Jac-kets, etc.,
ever shown in Markdale and all at special
prices

Our
Dress
Goods

department.
No collection hereabouts as large or so stylish.

Everything is to be found here at special prices.

Fancy Blacks sign at 22c $2.25 per yd

Newest Suitings in tweeds broadcloths homespun, etc 25c to $1.75

New Plaids,
sign at 18c
to 75c.

New Fabrics
for dresses, poplins, coverts, cashmere, etc. 20c
to 85c

Special
Corset
Bargains

6 doz pr new steel filled corsets made of good jean,
made to sell at 75c. special 50c.

Ladies vests fleeched under long sleeves, ribbed cuffs, large size, special 25c.

Smallware Department

This department is devoted to the showing of small articles

Fancy Hair Ornaments,

Belt buckles,

Corsets,

Handkerchiefs,

Berlin wools,

Andalusian wool,

Skein silks,

Stamped linen, etc.

Staple
dept.

500 yards cottonades
heavy weight 12c.

New French flannel in dot, stripe or floral design, newest color per yd 50c.

50 yds only table linen 68 in wide blousing
price 30c-35c

85 yds unbleached white linen good extra heavy price 20c

Special Value this week in Flannelettes, Flannels, Cottons,
Towels,

Wrappettes,

Eiderdowns,

etc.

Millinery & Cloak Room

We cannot point to any department with more pride than our Millinery Department.

This season is not the result of our big show room, nor yet from special advertising but simply the result of the attendant upon our efforts to lay before the ladies of this section the very best in millinery goods at all times at the most reasonable prices.

Mr. Percy Tebbutt has returned to his home in Lauriston, after two months absence.

Messdames Boomer and Sage, of London, were the guests at the Rectory last week during their stay in Markdale.

Mr. W. Stephenson, of Elora, arrived in town last week and has entered the employ of his brother, J. H. Stephenson, grocer, who is a jeweller.

Many of the friends of the Rev. W.

Hinde were pleased to see him in town last week. During his sojourn he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Douglas.

Misses Maggie and Fanny Matheson, of Massie, and Miss Maggie McClure, of Chatsworth, visited at Mr. R. G. Walkers, Lauriston, and also with Markdale friends for a few days this week.

Mr. John Walker returned last Monday from Ould Ireland after spending the most of the summer there with relatives. Monday was the most juicy day we have had this fall, but John said he was accustomed to it as he had rained in Ireland the last 22 days, prior to his leaving, every day but two.

Personal Mention.

Miss J. Norton, of Holland Centre,

spent Sunday in town among friends.

Mrs. Mullin, of Hillsburg, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Tuck.

Mr. Allie Watson has secured a
situation with the Robt. Simpson Co.

of Toronto.

Mr. John A. Murdoch left last week
to join his brother at Savanne, Rainy River District.

amount of money to lend on
security at the lowest rate of

Expenses low. No fines
es valued personally. No wait-

convenience of inspectors. W.
g. Markdale, Appraiser for Permanent Loan Company.

McFarland & Co.

Amongst the largest importers and distributors of dry goods in Ontario.

Location of the Departments offering special bargains this week and next.

Also showing the ground floor plan of the new big store.

McFarland & Co.

MARKDALE

GREY COUNTY'S BIGGEST STORE.

Stairway to Tailoring Department.

Main office

Ladies Waiting Room
Make use of it.

</