HAPPY CANADA.

Canada will be a happy country if her growth to greatness is accompanied by no more serious problems than those which now loom above the horizon.

French and English do not hate each other in this country. The cares of life, in many cases, keep the people of Quebec and Ontario from thinking about each other atall. When they do think their thoughts are clothed in the whiteness of peace and good will.

Let the heathen who get their living out of politics rage and the party organs imagine a vain thing, but Canadians, French and English, will go forward, and it is time to bid a Crisis good morning when it meets us.—Toronto Telegram.

KRUGER IN FRANCE.

The French are having a big time over the visit of ex-President Kruger, whose cowardly conduct in connection with the Transvaal is an old story, and who has provided for a rainy day by taking with him a huge slice of the funds of the once wealthy republic. His arrival in Marseilles is being awaited with feverish anxiety and preparations have been made for a great reception. Sad wrangles are taking place between the committees in charge of the festivities, each wanting precedence. Postal cards with pictures of Kruger, of scenes in the Boer war, of the Gelderland, and of the flags of the South African Republics are being peddled by an army of vendors, dressed like Boer warriors. A song specially written for the occasion is being bawled at all hours by bands of Boer sympathizers parading the streets.

Although England is watching these proceedings with more or less interest, it is not so much with a spirit of resentment. It is regarded as most natural that the excitable and impulsive nature of the French should be exercised over being honored by such a distinguished character, and probably the similarity of their experiences will have the effect of making the demonstrations more sympathetic. It is an event that will furnish considerable amusement for the British.

The suite of rooms set apart for Oom Paul on the second floor of the Hotel Noailles was visited by great crowds who did much damage to the carpets, whittled the expensive furniture, and cut pieces from the curtains for souvenirs. An admission fee of one dollar is now being collected.

It is believed in some quarters that Mr. Osler, of Toronto, has been offered the leadership of the Conservative party.

It is thought that the woman who threw the broadaxe at Emperor William probably did it through force of habit.

Sir Wilfred Laurier has been invited to be present and participate in the ceremonies of inaugurating the Australian Commonwealth next summer. Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, will be represented by the Duke and Duchess of York, and the event will undoubtedly be a most notable one in the history of the British Empire.

Queen Christania of Spain is in the habit of sending a confidental messenger all the way from Madrid to London for the purpose of depositing her wealth, which she keeps in the Bank of England. Although she is entitled to draw from the Spanish treasury 200,000 a year, she has not, owing to the straitened circumstances of Spain, drawn a cent of the money.

Hon. Geo. W. Ross, Premier of Ontario, celebrated his silver wedding on Saturday last, having been married just twenty-five years. His colleagues took advantage of the event by presenting him with a magnificent cabinet of silver and an address. Mr. Ross is now fifty-nine years old. He became Premier in October of 1899 and for sixteen years previous had held the office of Minister of Education.

Seven hundred men of the Australian contingent, under the command of Col. Price, sailed for Australia from Cape Town on board the Harlech Castle. The Mayor and Mayoress, the members of the Volunteer Reception Committee and a large crowd assembled at the docks to bid the men farewell. The Mayor thanked them for the good work they had done and for their noble response to the Empire's call. He also paid a tribute to the memory of their comrades who had fallen. The men left amid the cheers of the people.

Cheese Factory.

The annual meeting of the patrons of the Markdale cheese factory was held on Saturday last and was well attended. The financial account proved it to be one of the best paying years in the history of the factory for the patrons, which was very satisfactory considering the dry season. The average price received was a little better than ten and a fifth cents per pound and the patrons received seventy-four and a half cents per hundred for milk.

Priceville

(Came late for last week.)

The pulpits of the Methodist and Presbyterian churches respectively were occupied by the Rev. Dr. Fraser of Annan last Sunday. Dr. Fraser's sermons at both churches were very much appreciated. On Monday evening the annual meeting of the Priceville branch of the U C Bible Society was held in the Baptist church. On account of the unfavorable weather the audience was small, but those who were present had the pleasure of listening to a very able address from Dr Fraser on the work of the society. The speaker prefaced his remarks by giving the causes of the Boxer rebellion in China. He proved conclusively that the missionaries were not the prime cause of the trouble in that country, but that instead the movement was instituted to prevent all foreigners from exerting any influence whatever in Chinese civilization, trade and commerce. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered to the speaker at the close of his remarks. The following officers were appointed for the ensuing year: Pres, Rev, J Matheson; Vice-Pres, Rev F W Varley; Sec W G Watson; Treas, Archibald McDonald; Depository, N McKinnon; Committee, N McCannel, John McLean (South Line) Dougal McCormack, C C James, S McDermid, Daniel Ferguson, Arch McLean (South Line,) W J Blakeston. The President requested the committee to meet at the Methodist church next Monday evening for the purpose of appointing collectors, etc. This local branch contributed nearly $60 for the funds of the society during the past year. A hearty vote of thanks was given to the collectors for their excellent work.

Revs. Matheson and Varley officiated. Messrs John McArthur of this village, D K McArthur of Hopeville and Mrs James McDonald of Boothville are brothers and sister of the deceased.

Mr. Sam Baines some few days ago met with an accident that might have been serious. He was standing on a fence when his feet slipped causing him to fall heavily on his stomach across the fence, breaking several ribs and otherwise injuring himself. He is improving steadily under the doctor's care, but is still confined to his room.

Mr. John Duncan some few days ago was called from Toronto by telegram to the bedside of his daughter Eliza who was seriously ill. Later news is favorable for recovery.

Some few horses are changing hands. R. English has replaced the one he lost some time ago. Thos. Moran, jr., has sold one and bought another. R. Moran has also bought another young horse. All above purchases were at good prices.

It is with regret that we announce the death of Mrs. John English. Just one week ago the aged lady while sitting near the stove became unconsious and was removed to her bed. She remained in this condition until Tuesday, when she passed away. Deceased was over 80 years of age.

In order to remove our attention from the above sadness we would slip over to another stage of life and report an event which leads our minds from sadness into merriment and pleasure. This took place on the 14th inst. at the residence of Mr. Charles Boyle, when his daughter Elizabeth was made the wife of the man of her choice in the person of Mr. George L. Ledingham, of Dornoch. The happy event took place at 5 o'clock p.m. on the above date. The invited guests (your humble cor., wife and daughter being included), being about sixty in number, appeared in due time. Shortly after the appointed time elapsed Miss Wray Jackson, of Holland Centre, commenced the wedding march, and Rev. William Graham, of Dornoch, took his place as officiating clergy. The bride was given away by her brother William, and the rest of the bridal party having taken their places Mr. Graham proceeded to lawfully make them man and wife. The bride was assisted by her sister Hannah, and the groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Arthur Ledingham, of Paisley. After the customary congratulations the assembly partook of a richly prepared dinner, and after ample justice had been done in this line all prepared to spend a pleasant evening and all participated in different amusements to their heart's content. At twelve o'clock all dispersed to their homes, wishing the happy couple a pleasant voyage on the sea of time. Two large tables were laden with useful and ornamental presents to the bride, showing the esteem in which she was held by her numerous friends. We noticed in the display a $5 bill, sent by a relative, also in a velvet case a $10 gold piece which would make your eyes glitter, the case and contents given by an esteemed friend. Altogether it was a pleasant affair and the young couple start with brightest prospects in view. Congratulations

The West.

I listen to the rumble and rattle of the rail
And to my ears unfolded the world's most wondrous tale;
The prairie tamed and broken; the forest split in two;
The lake and ocean blended; the mountain shivered through;
The chasm kept with iron; the cataract swung back;
Both Time and Distance shrunken with every foot of track.

The tramp of millions westward is echoed from the wheel;
The strain of millions striving; sensations new to feel;
Now cities planned at twilight, perfected with the dawn;
Our Nation's blight replenished by western brain and brawn.

The fruits are ripest most luscious; the flowers fairest bloom;
The men are best and bravest, and there is least of gloom;
Where sets the Star of Empire where Sun of Progress dips,
And furnishes the wheat fields and gilds the groaning ships.

The Snow Storm.

A fall of soft as and of purity.
The very air is shaken snow-ball seems,
In tenderness the winter fairy flings
Her pearly mantle o'er earth's faded dreams.

With loving grace and gentleness she hides
The withered beauty of the hill and dell,
And brightness gives for brightness we have lost,
Till we forget the Summer's sad farewell.

WOMEN WILL TALK.

Can't Blame them for Telling each other about Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

THE GREAT REMEDY FOR WEAK NERVOUS WOMEN.

It's only natural that when a woman finds a remedy which cures her of nervousness and weakness, relieves her pains and aches, puts color in her cheek and vitality in her whole system, she should be anxious to let her suffering sisters know of it.

Mrs. Hannah Holmes, St. James Street, St. John, N.B., relates her experience with this remedy as follows:—"For some years I have been troubled with fluttering of the heart and dizziness, accompanied by a smothering feeling which prevented me from resting. My appetite was poor and I was much run down and debilitated.

"Since I started using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, the smothering feeling has gone, my heart beat is now regular, the fluttering has disappeared, and I have been wonderfully built up through the tonic effect of the pills. I now feel stronger and better than for many years, and cannot say too much in praise of the remedy which restored my long lost health."

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS

Mr. Wm. Bush will please accept thanks for a steak of venison,

Gentlemen! Get your pipes, cigars and tobacco at Stephen's drug store.

Neatly printed up-to-date Teacher's agreements, only ten cents a pair at this office.

A local adv. one week in the STANDARD got a cash purchaser for the Methodist Church pipe organ's predecessor.

Mr. Wm. Bush brought home a fine yearling deer from Osprey where he had gone ahunting. The animal weighed 130 lbs.

Two years ago the Lord's Day Alliance had but twenty-four branches; today it has one hundred and ten branches and five thousand members.

The STANDARD would like to know if any of its exchanges have been successful in collecting accounts from the Electine Medicine Co., Dr. Arnold or W. J. McCartin.

Rev. Wm. Buchanan officiated last Sunday at the re-opening services of the Markham Methodist church after repairs. Rev. Mr. McAteer ably filled Mr. Buchanan's pulpit.

Mr. John McDonald, of Chatsworth, moved last week into his palatial new residence which is lighted by acetylene gas, has hot and cold water conveniences and otherwise up-to-date.

Mr. J. W. Knott and Mr. Robert Elliott, both respectable Euphrasia farmers, moved into town last week, having each had a comfortable residence erected on George street during this season. We extend a hearty welcome.

Dr. Ego's office and surgery is now next door to the postoffice, and his residence on the opposite side of the street over Turner's drug store, in the premises lately occupied by Edward Rutledge.

McFarland & Richards, who opened a large general store in Dundalk about a year ago, have made a big success of their business. They both have the natural gifts which help toward success in the retail trade.—Canadian Grocer.

We notice by the Greenwood Times, B. C. that Mr. A. A. Crowston, formerly of Berkeley and brother to our tonsorial artist Mr. J. A. Crowston, is proprietor of an extensive wholesale and retail grocery establishment and fruit store in that thriving town. The Times says "This grocery is a model one and is a credit to Greenwood."

Mr. W. J. Hamilton, of the suburbs, has erected and completed a substantial bank barn this season. The building is 50x70 feet with 22 foot posts, and stone foundation full size making ample room for winter quarters for stock and roots. John finds it a vast improvement and great comfort. He intends flooring the stables with cement. Mr. Wm. Banks did the frame work and Mr. Jo. McCullough the stone masonry, both giving entire satisfaction.

Mr. Geo. B. Reeve has been appointed General Manager of the Grand Trunk Railway, to succeed Mr. C. M. Hays. The appointment was a complete surprise, for Mr. Reeve, after 40 years of service, had retired from the [illegible] after rising to the position of [illegible] Traffic Manager, and since last spring lived in California, where he had a farm and expected to spend the remainder of his days. It was also a gratifying surprise, for in railway business and social circles Mr. Reeve was everywhere esteemed and popular.

Men Wanted.

To cut 100 cords 4 foot wood by cord or contract. B. Cutting, Euphrasia.

Mr. Eddie Brown, son of Mr. David Brown, of the woollen mills, Walters Falls, met with a painful accident while hunting in the Parry Sound district. He was one of a party from Walters Falls and while resting the gun on the ground in an upright position it was accidentally discharged and the contents went through the palm of his hand. The wound is a nasty one but we hope he will not lose the use of the member.

Reward of Merit.

It is safe to say that no family paper in existance has ever had the run of prosperity that the Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal, has enjoyed. It deserves it all, too, for no other newspaper has ever attempted, to give such real good value for so little money. This year the publishers of the Family Herald have certainly excelled themselves, and in offering the two pictures, "Christ in the Temple," and "Home from the War," along with the Family Herald and Weekly Star for one year for one dollar no one will deny that it is the biggest dollar's worth ever offered. The Family Herald and Weekly Star are going to do a bigger business than ever, and it is a case of merit.
