Curling. Two rinks from Rocklyn played here on Monday evening and were beaten by about 20 shots. Rocklyn curlers are good sports and gave a good exhibition of the game. Word has been received from the O. Sound Bouspiel to the effect that R. L. Stephen's rink has won from Meaford by 9 points, while Wm. Lucas' rink has gone down before Owen Sound by the narrow margin of 3 points.

Mrs. Luther Hawkon. Mrs. Luther Hawkon, of the 11th line, Euphrasia, who has been for over a year in a critical state of health, was taken to Toronto over a week ago for specialist treatment, died on Sunday, February 10th. Her remains were brought to Flesherton Monday, and on Tuesday interred in the Public Cemetery there. She leaves a husband and three children to mourn the serious loss. A memorial service will be held next Sunday at Harkaway.

Notice. To any and all whom it may concern: Having received a letter dated Markdale, Feb. 6th through the mail from some one who appears to be ashamed of their name as the 'epistle contained none, I beg to say to the writer please practice some of the Scripture that you so ably quote, and come and see me privately, and if that is not satisfaction enough for you I am willing to meet you before the public in any public hall named by you and have you bring forward any and all questions you may demand to have 'ventilated'. Now please come out from behind the curtain. (Signed) John B. Willaw, Markdale.

Death of William Dundas. The sudden death last Sunday morning of our respected citizen, Mr. William Dundas, east a gloom over the village. Deceased had been falling in health for some time, having been afflicted with bronchitis and heart trouble for several years, but was otherwise in his usual state of health up to the hour of his demise with the exception of two or three days the latter part of last week when his old complaint troubled him somewhat more than usual. During these last days he seemed to realize that the end was near as he expressed his belief that he was not going to survive, tho' his friends and physician were quite hopeful. He had been an active member of the Ancient Order of United Workmen for over thirteen years and the lodge turned out in large numbers together with representatives from Flesherton and Rocklyn lodges and under their supervision assisted by his pastor, the Rev. J. R. Newell, the last rites were solemnized and respects paid to the remains of the departed. Mr. Newell conducting the burial service at the house of mourning and the lodge officials at the grave. Deceased was sixty-four years old, and leaves a widow, three daughters and four sons to mourn the loss of husband and father.

Social Evening. On Monday evening of this week the Epworth League of the Methodist Church here returned the recent visit of the Flesherton League. About fifty went down in several well filled sleighs, and the weather being warm and the pitch-holes plentiful the drive there and back was full of interest and thoroughly enjoyed. The attendance from Markdale was greatly augmented by the league from Eugenia so that the three leagues together constituted quite a large gathering of young people. The early hours of the evening were spent in the basement in a social way, after which on the invitation of Rev. Mr. Ward the audience adjourned to the church proper, where the program, furnished by the Markdale League, was given. Rev. Mr. Buchanan occupied the chair and opened the proceedings with prayer and singing. Then followed the different numbers in the order named: Instrumental selections by the Guitar Club, who responded to an encore; address, Rev. White, Eugenia; reading, Miss Minnie Rutledge; solo, Miss G. Noble; address, Mr. J. Cronie, president of Markdale league; cornet solo, Mr. W. Perkins, who responded to an encore; address, Mr. Sine, president of Eugenia league. Rev. Brown excused the lodge turned out on an address owing to the hour being late, and Rev. Ward extended an invitation to the basement where an excellent lunch was served and the remainder of the evening spent in social enjoyment. At the conclusion Mr. White moved a vote of thanks for the hearty welcome afforded the visiting leaguers which was seconded by Rev. Buchanan and replied to by Rev. Ward. The parting hymn "God be with you till we meet again" was then sung and the gathering dispersed.
