WOMEN WILL TALK.
Don't Blame them for Telluring each other about Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

THE GREAT REMEDY
FOR WEAK NERVOUS WOMEN.
It is only natural that when a woman finds herself cured her of nervousness and weakness, relieves her of pain and aches, puts color in her cheek and a life in her eyes, she should be anxious to know the whole system, she should be glad to hear her suffering sisters know of it.
Mrs. Hannah Holmes, St. James Street, John, N.B., relates her experience with this remedy as follows: "For some years I have been troubled with fluttering of the heart and dizziness, accompanied by a stammering feeling which prevented me from resting. My appetite was poor and as much run down and debilitated.
Since I started using Milburn's Heart & Nerve Pills, the smothering feeling gone, my heart beat is now regular and the fluttering has disappeared, and I wonderfully built up through the use of the pills. I now feel stronger and more than for many years. I can now do much in praise of the remedy which cured my long lost health."

Wedding Bells.

One of the most interesting events of the season took place on Wednesday evening of last week at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Stewart, Artemesia, near Ceylon, being the marriage of their daughter, Miss Bella, to Mr.
Peter V. Thibadeau. The interesting ceremony was performed by the Rev.
Thom, the bride being supported by her sister, Miss Lou Stewart, and the groom by his brother, Mr. Richard Thibadeau. After the ceremony the guests, about seventy in number, sat down to a sumptuous spread. The remainder of the evening was spent in music, games and tripping the light fantastic. The presents numerous and costly showing the high esteem in which the bride is held by her many friends. The happy couple left per-morrowing train to visit friends in Michigan and returning will reside in their cozy home in the suburbs. May their joys be many and their sorrows few is the wish of their many friends.
