FLESHERTON HAPPENINGS
 (By our Own Correspondent)

Our sister burg, Caylon, was on Wednesday afternoon of last week, stirred with an interesting event which took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
 James Ashdown, it being the marriage of their only daughter, Miss Alice J., to Mr. William A. Smith, of Toronto Junction, formerly night operator at Flesherton Station. Rev. J. Ward, B.
 D., of this place, performed the cere mony. Mr. W. A. Mela, of Caylon, and Miss Meta Smith, of Erin, were groomsmen and bridesmaid. The young couple left on the evening train for Toronto. The bride was the recip ient of many beautiful presents.

M. Richardson & Co's and T.J. Shep pard's millinery openings took place here Wednesday, Thursday and Sat., and attracted a large number of ladies who were loud in their praises and emphatic in their expressions of ap preciation of the many artistic and beautiful creations in head-gear shown.
 The stocks are also very complete in the newest lines and novelties for trimmings. Patrons of these estab lishments should therefore find but little difficulty in being suited with head adornments.

The remains of Mrs. Down, sr., whose demise we reported last week, were interred here on Thursday after noon. Before proceeding to the ceme tery a service was held in the Metho dist church when an appropriate address was delivered by the pastor, Rev. J. Ward. "Till He Come" was effectively rendered by Miss Joy. The pulpit and the deceased's pew were appropriately draped in mourning.

The services in the churches were of a specially interesting character on Sabbath last. In the afternoon Rev.
 Mr. Thom was assisted in the Presby terian church by Mr. Thos. A. Rodger, Y.M.C.A. (Secretary, Hamilton, who was intently listened to while he dis cussed in his usual lucid and impressive manner on sowing and reaping. The choir, assisted by Dr. R. H. Hender son, of Toronto, and Miss Ayers, of Point Edward, rendered an appropriate Easter Anthem. Mr. A. S. VanDusen addressed the Christian Endeavor Society meeting in the evening very interestingly on the Easter subject, "Dead to Sin, Alive to Christ." In the Methodist church the pastor preached in the morning, having an appropriate Easter subject. In the evening the usual Easter song-service was held, the choir rendering special music. "The Magdalene," "The Holy City," and "A Dream of Paradise" were rendered by Miss Ayers, Mr. R.
 N. Henderson, and Mr. W. Barnhouse, respectively. Mr. Ward gave a short address and Mr. Z. E. Boyajian, a native of Armenia, spoke interestingly for over half an hour on the customs of his country and the terrible persecu tions endured by the native Christians at the hands of the Turk. Mr. Boyajian will speak more fully on the subject on Thursday evening this week.

Miss Mary Jane Hoy, eldest daughter of Mr. Richard Hoy, Moorey House, Collingwood Road, passed away at her home there on Sunday last. Her re mains were interred in the Public Cemetery here on Tuesday afternoon.
 Deceased was 19 years, 4 months of age, and has been an invalid for a long time.

Master Charley Bellamy, second son of Mr. W. J. Bellamy, is carrying his arm in a sling and nursing a sprained shoulder, caused by a fall from the roof of M. Richardson's salt house.
 Charley and some other lads were hat ting a boy's good time when the suc cessful tumble occurred.

Mr. Andrew Bentham had a success ful sale of his farm stock, etc., last week, and has moved up town to the house vacated by Mr. Fred Sheppard on Collingwood street.

Mr. Harry Stewart left last week to take charge of a cheese and butter fac tory at Kintore, Ont. Harry was entertained with a few friends at the home of his brother-in-law, Reeve Mc Tavish, on the eve of his departure.

Miss McCaul, of Durham, stenog rapher in Mr. E. J. Sproule's convey ancing office, has resigned her position we understand to take up a further business course. Miss McCaul will be greatly missed, especially in the liter ary society, of which she was an active and much appreciated member.

Miss Zilla Trimble is in Toronto attending the Easter Millinery Open ing.

Bradey-Hall.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. J. Hall, Invermay, on Tuesday evening, March 26, 1901, when her daughter, Jennie, was united in marriage with Mr. W. Edward Bradey, of Markdale. The interesting ceremony was solemnized at half past six o'clock by Rev. J. W. Jones, L. Th., rector of Christ Church, Invermay, in the presence of a small party of relatives and friends. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Annie Hall and Mr. R. W. Bradey. The bride was modestly gowned in a dress of green cashmere with suitable trimmings of broad silk, lace and ribbon. The parlor was decorated for the event with entwining of colored bouquets and evergreens, with bouquets of flowers which presented a pleasing appearance. Mrs. Will A. Dunn was present and played Mendelssohn's Wedding March in her usual excellent manner, and during the evening Mrs. Dunn and the Misses Lawson of Owen Sound, delighted the guests with a number of choice vocal and instrumental selections. After the ceremony the party occupied the dining room and partook of a tempting wedding dinner. The bride received a number of useful and choice gifts, which evidenced the high esteem in which she was held by her friends. Mr. and Mrs. Bradey left by train for Markdale with hosts of good wishes for their future prosperity and happiness. The bride's travelling costume was of blue ladies' cloth, with trimming of gimp and white satin. In her new home near Markdale, Mrs. Bradey has a large number of warm friends, she having taught school in that locality for the past five years.—Tara Leader.

Get Rid of Neuralgia.
 There is no use fooling with neuralgia. It is a disease that gives way only to the most powerful remedies. No remedy yet discovered has given the grand results that invariably attend the employment of Polson's Nervine. Nervine is a positive specific for all nerve pains, and ought to be kept on hand by every family. Sold everywhere, 25 cents a bottle.

Charlatans and Quacks
 Have long plied their vocation on the suffering pedals of the people. The knife has pared to the quick; caustic applications have tormented the victim of corns until the conviction shaped itself—there's no cure. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor proves on what slender basis public opinion often rests. If you suffer from Corns get the Extractor and you will be satisfied. Sold everywhere.

Boys! It is only necessary to take Miller's Compound Iron Pills to retain youthful appearance and vigor. Sold by W. Turner & Co., Markdale.
