

The Man

A NERVOUS WICK

WAS THE CONDITION OF GILLIS FOR EIGHT YEARS

The Best Doctors' and Hospital Failed to Help Her, and She Has Lost Hope of Ever Being Well. Her Earnest Advice to Other Sufferers.

One of the most common, same time one of the most dreaded, ailments which afflict people of this country is nervousness. The causes leading to the trouble are various, over-worry being among the most prominent. But whatever the cause of the affliction is one that makes a burden. Such a sufferer for years, Miss Margaret Gillis, of White Cross, P.E.I. Her life was one of almost incessant misery, and she came to look upon her condition incurably when Dr. William Pitts were brought to her not to this life-giving nerve medicine, she now knows happiness. Miss Gillis tells her illness and fears as follows:

"Past eight years my life has been a constant misery. My nervous system was shattered, and I was led to a more physical wreck.

My trouble began in one of the ways that so frequently afflict my time, and life did not seem living. For several years I was treated by doctors, I even ventured to go to Boston, where I remained for some time, but soon my condition became more and more

uncontrollable.

My trouble increased

and I was compelled

to give up all work

and to remain at home.

My nerves were

so bad that I could not sleep at night,

and I was unable

to eat or drink

properly.

I was unable to walk without

falling down,

and I was unable

to stand upright.

I was unable to
