Look well after your Horses' Feet.

If you have a horse that is worth shoeing have him shod well. Remember we do not burn the foot to fit the shoe. Every foot dressed properly and shoe fitted cold. Call and see the most complete assortment of horse shoes, bare iron steel bolts, clips, whiffletree irons, neckyoke irons, sleigh dogs, clippers—in fact, everything the people need on shortest notice. set for the ceremony the bridal party entered the sacred edifice, which was charmingly decked with flowers, to the solemn strains of a bridal march rendered on the organ by Miss Runstadter.

First came the bridesmaid, Miss E. Hughes, and then followed the bride, accompanied by her sister, Miss Gertrude. At the altar railing awaited the groom and his brother, Mr. H. Smyth, of Markdale, who ably performed the duties of best man. The ceremony of tying the knot was proceeded with by the Rev. Father Gohl. The bride looked radiant in a costume of fawn broadcloth skirt with ruchings of silk and bolero with applique trimmings, which was worn over a tucked blouse of white silk and chiffon. A hat to match the costume and a bouquet of bridal roses and smilax, completed the bride's costume. The bridesmaid wore a pretty and becoming gown of cheviot with silk trimmings, and a white silk blouse. A pink chip hat and a bouquet of pink carnations completed her toilet. Miss Gertrude Hughes wore a frock of pale blue silk with chiffon trimmings. Her hat was of blue and white silk creation and she carried a basket of scarlet carnations and lilies. Following the tying of the knot came the celebration of the nuptial mass, at the close of which the bridal party was driven back to the bride's parent's home on Galt street, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served. The happy couple left on the 3.30 G.T.I. train for a trip to Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto, and on their return will reside in Flesherton. The presents were numerous and beautiful. Mr. and Mrs. Smyth have taken up their residence in Mr. R. T. Whitter's dwelling house on Toronto street, and the STANDARD scribe wishes them an abundantly prosperous and happy life.

MARRIED—At the residence of the bride's parents, Sam Matio, California, on the 29th ult., Miss Allie Moore to Mr. David Goulding, of San Mateo, formerly of Toronto. The young bride is the second daughter of Mr. J. E. Moore, formerly furniture dealer and undertaker in this place. She was highly esteemed by all who knew her, and her many friends will wish her much happiness in her new relations in life.

The following taken from the Galt Reporter respecting our esteemed townsman, Mr. William J. Smyth, who was on Wednesday of last week married in Hespele, to an esteemed young lady of that town, will be read with interest by the numerous friends of the groom who reside in Grey County. "A well-attended and prettily arranged wedding" was celebrated in the E. C. church this morning at ten o'clock when Miss Minnie A. Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hughes, became the bride of Mr. William J. Smyth, a worthy young man of Flesherton, Ontario. From usual grave decoration does her part that day. Many, however, have turned of since and performed their duty of love.

The officers and privates of No. 6 Company, 1st Batt., are this Monday morning getting in readiness for their journey to Niagara Camp to-morrow. E. K. Richardson, Toronto, has therefore been called upon to perform Major's duties in the saddle. He will take Mr. M. Richardson's regular roster from here.

Dugan, of Toronto, was in town on Tuesday and went out for a walk on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Stephens and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis and Mrs. W. A.
