Deborah Hancock was busily engagd in decorating her birthday cake. She sighed as she placed the last candlo, one more than the previous year. How fast those little waxen milestones seemed to multiply! Several years before, when the whole surface of the cake was so thickly studded that she could find no place for the new taper, Miss Hancock paused to ponder.

Was not 35 a good age at which to lose count? The temptation was great. But all false pretense was abhorrent to the sturdy Hancock mature. Prevarication even to one's self was not to be tolerated. And what folly could equal in silliness that of attempting to conceal one's ago?

Capt. Geo. Crandell, of Lindsay, Tells How He Secured Released From This Dangerous Malady. From the Watchman, Lindsay, Ont. In the town of Lindsay and surrounding country no man is better known or more highly respected than Capt. Gco. Crandell. Forty-seven years ago he was owner and captain of the first steamer that navigated the Scugdg. Since that time success has crowned his life both on land. and water. For forty-nine years he was a member of the Lindsay town council. He is now 73 years of age and enjoys the best of health, but it has not always been thus. Some years ago the exposure and worry incident to his calling began to tell upon his health, and his heart showed signs of weakness. His sufferings and complete restoration through the use of Dr Williams' Pink | Pills are best told by himself. To a reporter the captain gave the following story: "Several years ago my hearf began to bother me. At first I took little notice of it, but the trouble gradually grew worse until I had to summon medical aid. I suffered much pain and at times was attacked by smothering spells which caused me great distress. Frequently these spells attacked me during the night and it was with difficulty that I managed to breathe at all. I consulted several doctors, but their medicine failed to benefit me. I then tried a much advertised remedy but this also failed to help me. I had Pulls from a cigar would distress me 80 much that I had to give it up altogether. I grew worse day by day, and began to think my end was near and that I would die from the trouble.
