FLESHERTON HAPPENINGS

(By our own Correspondent.)

Mr. M. K. Richardson, M.P., whose successful mercantile operations in this place extends back over a period of 36 years and his name through his straightforward, long and happy business relations with the public, has become a household word throughout a large section of Grey County, has disposed of his general business here to Messrs. J. A. and W. J. Boyd and F. H. W. Hickling, of this place, who were given possession on Tuesday last. In the fall of 1865 Mr. Richardson, jeweller by trade, came from Toronto and opened in general business and grain buying in an unpretentious store on the corner of Sydenham and Durham streets where his five brick block now stands. In a few years the business outgrew the accommodation and enlargement of the store was found necessary. In 1874 the business again demanded increased room and the store adjoining his dwelling on Sydenham street was built and occupied till 1884 when the volume of trade demanded still greater accommodation and he erected the commodious business block which he has since occupied. Two and a half years ago Mr. Richardson extended his business by opening a large and well-stocked store in Dundalk, which he yet owns and will have supervision of. Very many will regret Mr. Richardson's retirement from business in this place, but all will be pleased to see him enjoying a well earned rest, in partial freedom at least from business care. Mr. Richardson was one of the first to state, will remain a citizen and take the same deep interest in this place and surrounding country that he has ever had, and specially does he feel that his partial freedom from business will enable him the better to devote himself to his Parliamentary duties and the interests of his constituents in South Grey. The grain business carried on by Messrs. Cole and Richardson will be continued by Mr. Cole. The new firm—Messrs. Boyd, Hickling & Company, who succeed Mr. Richardson, is comprised of young, energetic and capable business men, well known in this section of Grey County. Boyd Bros. have for the past fifteen years been successful lumber, shingle and lath manufacturers, dealing also extensively in wood, ties and poles. They have also for the past five years conducted a successful grain business at Flesherton Station, where they built and own a large grain elevator. Mr. Hickling is a first class accountant and business correspondent. He has for ten years been in charge of Mr. Richardson's office and is thoroughly conversant with the business he now enters as partner upon. The grain business formerly conducted by Boyd Bros. will be continued by the new firm to whom we tender our congratulations and whose enterprise we trust will be rewarded with a large measure of success.

A meeting of the executive of the Artemesia Sabbath School Association was held at the manse here on Monday afternoon last. Those present were Rev. L. W. Thom, Pres.; Rev. T. R. White, Secretary; Rev. Ivison Wilson, T. R. McKenzie, E. Hemphill and W. Allen. It was resolved that the annual convention of the Association be held in Meaford Road Methodist church on Sept. 30th. A good programme will be prepared for an afternoon and evening session.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Sherwood, east back line, lost their only child, Margaret Ethel, on Wednesday of last week. The little one, two and a half years of age, died at the home of its grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wright, west back line, and was buried in the public cemetery here on Thursday last.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed in the Presbyterian church on Sabbath last, when four new members were received into the fellowship of the church. Rev. J. Hunter, of Markdale, preached at the preparatory service on Friday.

Evangelists Crossley and Hunter have through an invitation extended from Rev. Mr. Thom consented to visit this place on Saturday afternoon next and conduct a religious service which will be held in the Methodist church commencing at half past two. As the ministers here a unit in favor of these noted evangelists this visit may lead to their return for a series of special meetings. There will doubtless be a crowded church on Saturday next. In view of an Epworth League Rally to be held in the Methodist church this Tuesday evening Rev. Ivison Wilson's Sabbath evening last was "Is the League any good?" This Mr. Wilson answered in the affirmative and dealt with the subject in a very able and interesting manner. The text chosen was Luke 24:49, and the speaker's last and most important thought was "Reverent and all efforts to make the League effective fail. The free express delivery to and from the station has been established and the service began on Monday last by Mr. W. Trimble, who has been engaged by the Company.

Messrs. J. A. and W. J. Boyd have purchased the Campbell property, containing four lots west of the parsonage on Toronto street. These lots make two most desirable building sites and the Messrs. Boyd are fortunate in securing them. New residences will, we understand, adorn these lots in the near future.

Miss Murray, of London, England, is visiting her brother, Dr. E. C. Murray, and will remain for some time. Mrs. (Dr.) Strain, of Great Falls, Mont., who is on an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thorp Wright, of Toronto Junction, visited her father-in-law, Mr. W. Strain, part of last week and this.

Mr. Will Irwin, of Stockert, Mont., paid his father, Mr. Charles Irwin, a short visit last week. Rev. J. S. Small, of Kewatin, and Miss Martin, of Cleveland, were the guests of the Rev. L. W. Thom Wednesday and Thursday last.

Mrs. Conrice, of Cortice, Rev. Wilson's former charge, was the guest of Mrs. Wilson from Saturday last till Tuesday. Mrs. Henry Mitchell, of the Soo, is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Wright sr. Mr. Peter Norris, of Milverton, is home nursing a broken arm received by a fall from his wheel. Miss Crossley is holidaying with friends in Collingwood.

Mr. and Miss Strachan, of Maxwell, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Clinton on Monday. Rev. L. W. Thom attended meeting of Presbytery at Shelburne on Tuesday.

Traverton
The only ones from this part who were able to get away to Toronto's big fair were Miss Annie Jardine, Mr. Will Cook and Master Earnie. They, thoroughly enjoyed the trip. Misses Madge Collyer and Vina Kress of Durham, were the guests of Miss Annie Davis on Sunday.

Mr. Thos. Cook is spending a fortnight in Owen Sound. Quite a frost here on Monday morning, but no visible damage done. An old gentleman on the 6th says: "The fellow who was so despicably mean as to steal a whip at a church festival will never poke his nose inside the pearly gates."

The following relatives from a distance attended the funeral of the late Paul Nelson, sr., on Wednesday last: Mr. and Mrs. T. Dean, Miss Jessie Telfer, Mrs. Rutherford, and Mr. Will Nelson, from Galt, and Mr. Nelson's two brothers, John and Robert, from Egremont and Normanby.

The Waudy Baptist church people have always had wonderful success at their festive gatherings and the garden party held at the handsome Baker home last Wednesday, has added to their laurels. It was a glorious night and there was a monster crowd gathered from far and near. They were a jovial, happy-hearted company and they knew how to make the best of a big feast of good things. A good deal of the pleasure enjoyed by all must be credited to the Markdale Citizens Band, who not only gave enjoyment to those present, but for miles around those left at home were seated out on woodpiles and leaning on fences drinking in the sweet melody. The boys were generous, too, in the number of selections given. The programme was far above the ordinary run of things.

Rev. J. C. Cameron, of Toronto, most happily spoke of "Sunshine in the heart;" Dr. Fontaine, a world-renowned traveller, paid Canada and Canadians the highest eulogy we ever heard uttered in a climax of oratory and eloquence. The Doctor's beautiful wife was also present, Zion choir gave two very pleasing selections. Mr. M. Richardson, M.P., made a pithy, neat speech and expressed his deep pleasure in being with them again in a closer tie than a year ago. Mr. George Birnie has rarely spoken better than he did that night. Mr. B. is quite popular over here. Misses Daisy and Katie Davis, of Euphrasia, gave excellent recitations, and their father, the popular and genial reeve, gave some sound counsel to the youths. J. M. is well liked out here. Rev. Mrs. Campbell sang a solo in sweetest tones. A musical friend declared to us that the selection by the Band Orchestra was one of the finest things she ever heard. Rev. Mr. Campbell warmly expressed his gratitude to all who assisted in making the party a success. The gate receipts were $38, and the booth did a lively trade the most of the evening, so would foot up quite an amount. Every body went home happy and pleased.

[We are informed that Mr. R. T. Edwards filled the chair ably and most acceptably, which fact Hustler, for obvious reasons did not mention.—Ed. S.]

Yes, it is true. Every very weak and Miller's Compound-Iron Pills made me strong. Sold by W. Turner & Co., Markdale.

The Cause of Dyspeptic Pains.
They arise from the formation of gas owing to improper digestion. A very prompt and efficient remedy is Polson's Nerviline. It relieves the distention instantly, and by
