LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS

Gleanings in brief for busy people.
Rock Marien bought fifteen horses at his fair here last week.
A full report of the death of President McKinley will be found on the inside of this paper.
Mr. Walker completed his contract for crushing 700 yards of stone.— Durham Chronicle.
The past has proven that watches repaired by W. J. Shortill have given satisfaction. Charges moderate.
Mr. R. H. Boyce has accepted the situation of elevator manager for F. T.
Hill & Co. for the winter, and commenced this week.
Mr. John J. White, of Glenelg, has purchased the Jackson homestead at Pleasant Valley, Holland, from Mr.
Albert Jackson, of this place.
The Durham Review took its annual holiday the week before last, and the occasion was made memorable by the arrival of a young son in the family of the editor.
Dr. Fontaine, Ph. D., LL.D., who lectured in town last winter, and has been in this country lecturing and preaching since, would be more respected if he paid his bills.
Tenders WANTED.—Tenders will be received up to noon the 25th September for the erection of a 2-story brick building. Plans and specifications can be seen at R. W. Ennis' harness shop, Markdale.
Markdale Lodge A.O.U.W. will attend divine service next Sunday morning at the Methodist church. All the members are urgently requested to be at the hall at 10 a.m. so as to march in a body. There will be a special meeting of the lodge Friday evening at 8.
At Christ church both morning and evening the Rev. Rural Dean Ryan, B.
D., rector of Durham, will be the officiating clergyman. The Rural Dean is favourably known here and in this vicinity, and will no doubt meet a hearty reception from the people of Markdale.
On Tuesday of last week Mr. J. H.
Davidson, a gardener of Mt. Forest, was in Durham, and while delivering goods to a customer his team took fright and ran away. In their mad career they ran over Saml. T. Orchard, an old man nearly 90 years of age and father of S. T. Orchard, of Holstein, inflicting terrible injuries about the head; from which the old gentleman has since died. One of the horses had a leg broken and had to be killed.
A Relic.
On Wednesday of last week Mr. Wm.
Jackson, of this village, handed us a copy of the New York Herald, of Saturday, April 15, 1865, the issue announcing the assassination of President Lincoln. The American war was then in full swing, and the paper which is over 36 years old and in good condition is a deeply interesting relic.

Drowned in Cistern.
Shortly after 6 o'clock Monday evening last when W. J. Stephens, grocer, and family returned home they were horrified by finding Mrs. Stephens' sister, Mrs. Mary A. Brown, drowned in the cistern. The body was cold in death, though she had been seen about the house as usual, by a neighbor about an hour and a half previously. Deceased lost her husband in Chicago, where they resided several years ago, and some time later had a stroke of paralysis which affected her brain from which she never fully recovered. She had been living here with her sister for some five years. An inquest was held Tuesday morning under Coroner Cameron, of Owen Sound, the jury returning a verdict of death by drowning, there being no evidence to indicate anything other than by accident. The cistern was upper cover and the family procured the water by dipping it up with a pail through an opening. There was over five feet of water in it at the time of the sad event. Deceased was 35 years old and leaves one child, a son of ten years. The funeral took place Wednesday a. m. to the public cemetery.
Rev. Mr. Newell officiating.

Styles for the Winter.
The easiest and simplest way we can suggest for our readers to get a good idea of the styles that will be popular this winter is to buy a copy of the October Delineator, just on sale at every news stand. The Delineator for October foreshadows, by means of its New York, Paris and London connections, those tendencies of fashion that will certainly prevail. In addition to the fashion features and practical dressing advice that has made the Delineator famous, the October number is full of good general reading, most tastefully decorated, under the immediate direction of the well-known artist, William Martin Johnson. Mr.
Johnson's work is known to lovers of the beautiful, by reason of the Garfield edition of Ben Hur, as well as some other books of large sale. Mr.
Johnson believes in illustrations that illustrate, rather than in pictures that only ornament a page. The whole October number of the Delineator is full of interest to men as well as to women.

The Fall Fair.
The leading agricultural journals point out that there is nothing that helps good farming more than the annual awarding of premiums for the best products of the farm. The desire to excel prompts a man to follow the best methods of agriculture, or stock raising. Boys and girls on the farm will experience an increasing interest in life if they are given something as their own in the different departments of their work with which to earn honors and money at show time. Every good farmer does not exhibit his products, but it will be noticed that those who do not compete are all good farmers who can give special pointers to their neighbors concerning the raising of certain stock, or producing a certain variety of roots, vegetables, fruit, grain, etc.
The meeting of these people one with another, exchanging views and opinions as well as having a sociable chat is where the greatest benefit of a fall fair comes in. Encourage the boys and girls to take an interest in the competitions, and you will help to keep them on the farm.

Markdale has now a steam laundry.
Mr. Crowston having this week completed putting in an up-to-date plant.
Mr. R. W. Ennis has purchased a lot and asks this week for tenders for the erection this fall of a two story brick shop.
Lost.—About three weeks ago, a brown overcoat. Finder will oblige by leaving it at McCullough & Young's Bank. C. Pickell.
Attractive posters are out announcing Euphrasia Agricultural Society's Fall Fair which takes place at Rocklyn on Thursday the 10th October.
The first prize pair of ponies at Toronto Exhibition, owned by C. W.
Sydnie, of Orangeville, have been bought by Mr. Timothy Eaton. The price was $500.
Next Sunday St. Matthias church, Berkeley, will hold its annual Harvest Home services, when it is expected the Rev. Rural Dean Ryan, B. D., will preach the sermons.
The Markdale Citizens Band has recently purchased out of the garden party proceeds a beautiful silver slidetrombone. It is of the very latest make and is certainly a valuable addition to our band. This instrument becomes town property.
The first act of the new President of the U. S. was to appoint Thursday (today) the day on which the remains of the ex-president will be laid at rest as a day of mourning and prayer. The Duke of York will probably attend the public ceremonial at Washington as the representative of Great Britain.
If some person would get up a neat and conspicuous little sign to fit in every public doorway, "Don't stand in the doorway" or some invention that would keep such thoroughfare clearer when there is a crowd, he would richly deserve the gratitude of all people, and would doubtless make a fortune out of it besides.
"Only an old Sweet Song," a ballad of the best class, opens the September number of the J. W. Pepper Piano Music Magazine. It is by the well-known and successful composer, Mr.
Arthur Trevelyan. The Magazine contains 21 complete pieces for the piano—10 songs, 11 instrumental—10 cents. For sale at all new dealers.

ing card at the Pan-American in Buffalo.

afternoon and evening of Wednesday and Thursday, the 2nd and 3rd October. Special return trains will run

Orangeville, and G.T.R. from Harniston and all stations north of both roads, arriving in Owen Sound about 11:30 a. m., returning same night after the evening concert. Return tickets for single fare. This is an excellent opportunity to visit Owen Sound Fair, and to take in one of the best concerts of the season, including: live class vocal and instrumental music, dancing, etc. The excursion train will leave Markdale at 10:30 a. m., Berkeley at 10:50 a. m., Holland Centre at 10:40 a. m., and Chateaufort at 10:55 a. m.

President McKinley Dead.
The sad news which was flashed over the telegraph wires last Saturday morning of President McKinley's death brought a peculiar sense of gloom to all parts of the civilized world. The late cheering prospects of his recovery were suddenly changed to universal sadness. During Friday evening it became evident that the end was near and at 2.15 Saturday morning he breathed his last. The President in his last degree of consciousness, which ended about 7.45 o'clock, Friday night while his wife and friends were by him chanted the words of the beautiful hymn, "Nearer My God to Thee," and his last audible conscious words were:—"Good-bye; all good-bye. It is God's way, His will be done." Canadians had learned to look upon President McKinley as a man of sterling character and conspicuous ability. He had won the love of his own countrymen in a marked degree, and at the same time the respect and admiration of the world.
