LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS

Gleanings in brief for busy people.

The last Thursday of November (28th) will be Thanksgiving Day in Canada. Canada has won sixty per cent. of the live stock premiums awarded at the Pan-American. In the removal to Owen Sound of Mr. W. J. Blakston Pricerville loses one of its most respected and valued citizens. Don't forget the Fall Millinery Opening days at McFarland, Stafford & Co.'s are next Wednesday and Thursday, October 2nd and 3rd. Large quantities of grain, principally peas and oats, are being marketed in town. Markdale is maintaining its old time reputation as the leading market in Grey. Mr. Hank Noble has sold that part of the McDougall block formerly occupied by Wm. Lucas & Co. as a banking office. Mr. J. A. Crowston, barber, is the buyer. The Weekly Globe from now until the end of next year for one dollar together with a beautiful picture of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and a splendid picture of a pair of horses, "Our Pets." Or the Standard and the above for $1.80. Three lines have been surveyed between Owen Sound and Meaford for the Manitoulin and North Shore Railroad, one via Bogrior, one via Woodford and one along the lake shore. Bogrior people are desirous of securing it and are making an organized effort in that direction. A story is told of a man named Moon who was presented with a daughter by his wife. That was a new Moon. The old Moon was so overcome with joy that he went off and got drunk, and that was a full Moon. When he became sober he had 25 cents left. That was the last quarter. But when his mother-in-law met him at the door with a rolling pin there was a total eclipse of the Moon with seven stars visible. The Harvest Home services in connection with Ebenezer Methodist Church, in the suburbs, will be held October 6th and 7th. Special and appropriate sermons will be preached morning and evening on October 6th, by Rev. Wilson, B.A., B.D. of Flesherton. On the Monday evening following a hot Fowl Supper will be served, beginning at 5 o'clock p.m. A good programme of music and addresses is in course of preparation. Adults 25 cts.; children 15 cts. Don't forget the date.

Millinery Opening.
McFarland, Stafford & Co. will hold their Fall Millinery Opening on the days of Wednesday and Thursday of next week, Oct. 2nd and 3rd. The ladies are all cordially invited to attend. Miss Perdue in charge.

Notice.
Markdale Planning Mill is now supplied with over three hundred thousand feet good dry pine, and I can supply my customers at very low prices. Good sound pine siding $18.00 per M. feet; pine flooring $18.00 per M. feet. Sash, doors, mouldings, spruce flooring and siding all will be sold at low prices. Call and see us before purchasing. S. Hill, Prop.

Central Fall Exhibition.
Walters Falls has again been favored with fine weather for its Fall Exhibition which has been in full swing this Tuesday and Wednesday. The hall is filled with a very creditable exhibit, the show of fruit being particularly large and fine. There was a fair attendance first day to witness the sports. Walters Falls and Heathcote foot ball teams played a game which resulted in a victory for the visitors, and then Strathavon downed Heathcote. After this Markdale and Heathcote lacrosseists had a game resulting in a victory for Markdale by 8 to 1. The following are the names of the Markdale players: Inside home, Thompson; outside, Campbell; 1st home, Sproule; 2nd home, Hale; 3rd home, Hill; centre, Wilson; 3rd defence, Pendleton; 2nd defence, Armstrong; 1st defence, Stephenson; cover point, C. Alton; point, Rae; goal, Dundas; referee, Cronin; field captain, G. Alton; time keeper, A. Smith. Ye Editor is attending the fair to-day (Wednesday) as we go to press.

Soc in Evening.
The Epworth League of the Methodist Church indulged in a social evening on Monday last which was successful from every point of view. A large number of the young people of the town together with a few older ones were present and all appeared to enjoy themselves immensely. The program, though not lengthy, was well rendered, and consisted of the following selections: Music by Sunday School Orchestra; solo, Miss M. McDougall; selection by orchestra; duet, Miss Lena Rutledge and Mr. Geo. Wilson; and another selection by orchestra. A pleasing feature of the program was a "guessing contest" which was the cause of much merriment and added greatly to the enjoyment of the evening, and the tasty refreshments which followed reflected great credit on those who were responsible for them. Mr. John Cross presided in his usual efficient manner.

Apology.
To ROBERT J. McKENRITT—I hereby withdraw any language or expressions used by me at any time in any way reflecting upon you, and hereby express my regret for having said the same. Dated this 13th day of September, 1901. James Lyons (X) his mark. Witness, P. McCullough.

Practically Progressive.
That Mr. A. S. Irving, of the suburbs, is a progressive farmer goes without saying. He erected this season a large addition to his already good sized residence. Some people may build big houses for appearance but Andrew evidently enlarged his domicile with a view to actual requirements as a little pair of daughters were this week added to the family. The first instalment, some fourteen years ago, was also a pair of girls, and five single ones intervene, making nine in all, two sons and seven daughters.

Millsap-Purkis.
At the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. Purkis, 419 Stockville street, Toronto, the wedding was celebrated last Wednesday afternoon of William J. Millsap of Erynan Bros. & Co. and Miss Florence Purkis. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of friends, by Rev. James L. Gordon of Bond-street Congregational Church. The bride was attired in a beautiful brown broad-cloth travelling suit. She was assisted by Miss Millie Millsap, who wore a costume of white organdie, trimmed with white roses. Little Miss Gladys Fletcher made a pretty flower girl. Charles J. Purkis was best man. After the ceremony a reception was held. The happy couple left on a honeymoon trip thru Northwestern Ontario. They received many beautiful presents, including a handsome set of silver cutlery from the employees of Lyman Bros. & Co.

Chatsworth people are talking village incorporation.
The Rev. Rural Dean Ryan, of Durham, preached in Christ Church both morning and evening last Sunday. Everyone was highly pleased with his discourses.

County Clerk Rutherford has received a beautifully engrossed memorial of condolence, the gift of the County Council to the widow of the late Commissioner, Thomas Willis-Croft. It is an excellent specimen of art, and when framed will be a fitting testimonial of the Council's esteem.

Glencol Agricultural Society's Fall Fair takes place the 8th and 9th October. Send or call on the Secretary for a copy of prize list. Large posters are out announcing the Exhibition, and entries are already coming in. Mr. Geo. Noble, the Secretary, has his office conveniently located in his son's fruit store opposite the Standard office.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. Caesar has been C.P.R. station agent at Markdale for over twenty-one years and has been connected with the C.P.R. for twenty-eight years. He is one of the oldest agents on the entire C.P.R. system. Mr. and Mrs. Caesar speak in glowing terms of the wonderful and magnificent scenery en route to the coast, and of the beautiful Chilli-wack valley. They expect to return home next week—Chilli-wack, B.C., Progress, Sept. 18.

Messrs. Davis and Dawson, proprietors of the Owen Sound Sun, have dissolved partnership. Mr. Dawson retains the business.

Owen Sound and Stratford lacrosse teams played a semi-final match on Friday last at O.S. for the intermediate C.L.A. championship, resulting in a victory for the former by 6 to 0.

A few weeks ago a Glencol farmer named James Connor drove to Owen Sound with his aged father, set him down in front of the general and marine hospital, and then went away leaving the old man to shift for himself. Mr. Connor, Sr., has since been committed to goal for two months on a charge of vagrancy—Aytun Advance.
