FLESHERTON HAPPENINGS

(By our own Correspondent.)

The East Grey Fall Fair management are busy making final preparations for the fair here on Thursday and Friday this week. The prize list is a very interesting one for exhibitors from whom entries are coming in freely and the management feel that good weather only is now required to make the Fair of 1901 a great success. Mr. LeRoy Kenney and Miss LaDell highly pleasing entertainers have been engaged for the Fair concert on Friday evening.

As promised by us three weeks ago we give our readers the benefit of Judge Morrison's decision in the case of Scutt vs. Moore, both of the township of Osprey, tried at the last Division court held here. The defendant, acting as pathmaster, ordered the cutting down of a number of trees left for shade trees on the roadside opposite the farm of the plaintiff, who for the removal of the same sued the defendant for $60 damages. The Statutory provisions for the removal from the roadside of ornaments or shade trees which have either been planted or left standing are that any owner of adjoining property shall be entitled to ten days notice of the intention of Council to remove such trees, shrubs or saplings, and shall be entitled to recompense for trouble in planting and protecting the same; and no owner of adjoining property, nor any pathmaster or other public officer shall remove, cut down or injure trees, shrubs or saplings on pretence of improving the public highway without the express permission of the Municipal Council having control of the same. In this case there was no by-law of Township Council passed, no instruction given to the defendant, nor any permission or act of the Township Council in regard to the removal of the trees. The defendant was therefore held by the Judge, notwithstanding that he was pathmaster, to have acted without authority and to have been a wrong doer from the beginning. Judgement for the plaintiff, $25 and costs. Mr. Lucas was Counsel for the plaintiff, and Mr. Sampson for the defendant.

The rain interfered with the attendance at the social evening in the Presbyterian church on Friday evening last. The pastor occupied the chair and an interesting program was rendered, consisting of short addresses by Revs. Wilson and Lamont, of this place, and Buchanan, of Dundalk, a solo by Miss Christoe and three quarettes by the Misses Alice, Minnie and Annie Joy and Mr. T. J. Sheppard, after which refreshments were served and an enjoyable evening spent together. The ladies had the basement of the church beautifully decorated for the occasion.

The 24th anniversary of the opening of the Methodist church here will be celebrated on Sabbath next with services befitting the occasion. At 11 a. m. the service will be taken by the pastor, Rev. Ivison Wilson, whose subject will be "Inspired Philanthrophy" and in addition will give a five minutes talk to boys and girls. At 7 p. m. Rev. L. W. Thom, of this place, will be the speaker. Special music will be furnished by the choir at both services. Instead of the tea of former years in connection with the Anniversary the Trustee Board have asked for a thankoffering of $100 on Sabbath, that the anniversary of 1901 in our sister church may be a great financial success and spiritual blessing is our earnest wish.

At the regular meeting of the W. M. S. held in the Methodist church some days ago officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: Pres. Mrs. (Rev.) Ivison Wilson; 1st Vice-Pres. Mrs. W. H. Thurston; 2nd Vice-Pres. Mrs. W. W. Trimble; Cor.-Sec. Mrs. S. Ranton; Rec.-Sec. Mrs. R. N. Henderson; Treas. Miss Christoe; Pres. of systematic giving, Mrs. Jos. Clinton.

Miss Hannah Bellamy, of Toronto, has located here and on Monday last opened up a shop for dressmaking in the office formerly occupied by Dr. Carter on Toronto street. Suits, fancy waists, childrens wear and all kinds of plain sewing done. Miss Bellamy has the latest system—New Century—for cutting and by close attention to the wants of her customers hopes to merit a fair share of the trade.

Mr. Daniel McMullen, of Eugenia, who had been ill for some weeks with typhoid fever, died on Monday evening of last week, and his remains were interred here on Wednesday afternoon. The funeral was under the auspices of the A.O.U.W. Lodge here, of which Mr. McMullen was a member. Deceased was 44 years of age and leaves a widow and five children to mourn his departure.

The news received here last week that Editor A. R. Fawcett, of Toronto Junction, had been bereft of his beloved wife by typhoid fever caused his numerous friends here to feel sad indeed and all sympathize deeply with him in his sore bereavement.

We are sorry to learn that C. J. Leitch, formerly of this place but for some time merchant tailor and postmaster at Wahgoon, was last week partially burned out. His shop and dwelling were in the same block and though reported fully insured the loss and inconvenience to Mr. Leitch will doubtless be great.

Mr. George Burritt, tailor, Kimberley, is starting business this week in Mr. Clayton's block. Mr. Burritt entered upon benedict life a couple of weeks ago and we welcome him and his bride to our midst. They will occupy Mr. VanDusen's house on Spring st.

The scholars in Dominie Reid's school, east of the village, have been taking physical exercise recently in transferring the wood pile from the yard to the woodshed and for their diligence were on Friday last treated by the trustees to a good fat bag of candies.

Rev. Kendell, of Conn, preached an edifying sermon in the Presbyterian church here on Sabbath afternoon last. Mr. Thom supplied at Conn and is holidaying in that vicinity last week.

On Sunday evening last Rev. Mr. Wilson in the Methodist church chose for his subject the character of Deborah, Judges 5:12, and preached a special sermon to young women, exhorting them to find the highest interpretation of true womanhood. 1st, said the speaker, choose and insist upon the highest quality of morality; secondly, Find and enter your divinely appointed sphere; and lastly, Judge your power by what woman has done.

Revs. Thom, of this place, and Buchanan, of Dundalk, drove together to the S. S. Convention held at Thornbury Thursday and Friday last. Mrs. Buchanan was the guest of Mrs. Watt at the manse the Convention days.

Rev. Dr. Moffat, of Toronto, was a visitor at the manse on Monday and renewed old acquaintance with your scribe.

Mr. Uri White, of Toronto, visited over Sunday with his brother-in-law, Mr. W. Barnhouse.

Mr. A. Munshaw has been ill and confined to his room for a couple of weeks with a heavy cold, but is now on the mend.

Mr. Everett Hoy is holidaying in Toronto this week.

Mrs. J. W. Armstrong left last week to visit her daughter, Mrs. J. D. Clark, at Ottawa.

Miss Maggie Rutledge, who has been summering with her mother here, returned to Montelier, N.J., on Friday last.

Percy, the ten year old son of Mr. Jas. Felstead, of the suburbs, was thrown from a buggy on Sunday last and sustained a bad fracture of the leg near the ankle which was afterwards reduced by Dr. Carter.

Impressions.

EDITOR STANDARD:—

Having recently spent a few days in Markdale permit me to note some impressions made from personal observation.

On landing at the depot a stranger cannot but be impressed favourably on stepping upon a permanent six-foot sidewalk leading into the village, some five minutes walk. Upon further investigation I found that the chief portion of the sidewalks of the place are of this character, which at once gives the village a substantial bearing. Then, on approaching the business part from the depot one is forcibly and favorably impressed with the almost solid and unbroken frontage of substantial brick structures and large plate glass shop windows. These business places both exterior and interior have a decided city-like bearing and while the stores are not numerous they are large, and strongly indicate prosperity, some even approaching Toronto departmental stores in size, departments, convenience and stock, as well as in the throng of shoppers. Another pleasing feature is the excellent condition of the streets. The macadam roadway on Main street is certainly a credit to the place, and would do no discredit to places of much greater pretentions, and besides, all the streets, both main and minor have beautiful gravel roadways. The large number of substantial private residences, both new and in course of erection is an evidence that citizens have faith in the perpetuity of the town. I was informed that those who are erecting these modern and substantial residences are doing so for themselves, not for speculation, and that they are men of ample means. This feature at once precludes the possibility of bankruptcy, or even the danger of an injurious financial boom, which so frequently follows the modern boom. The spirit of progress and enterprise seems to be contagious here, as, from the centre to the circumference this go-ahead aspect is manifested, and this beautifully located village presents a thrifty, progressive appearance.

I might speak of other impressions of a favorable character, but let one more suffice. I have been in many country printing offices in my time but the Markdale STANDARD office is certainly the neatest and most attractive one I ever visited. J.M.B.

The Tarte Transportation Policy.

Wheat is now being carried from Fort William to Montreal, via. Owen Sound and the Canadian Pacific Railway, for ten cents per hundredweight, and no charge for terminals. From Markale, on the very line over which this grain passes, the Canadian Pacific Railway charges for wheat shipments to Montreal 14 cents per hundredweight, and in addition the shipper has to pay terminals, that is, transhipments charges, which amount to 1¼ cents per bushel, or 2½ cents per hundredweight more. The rate from Markdale to Montreal is therefore 6¼ cents per hundredweight, or 65 per cent higher than the rate from Fort William.

As compared with shipments from Duluth, the discrimination against Ontario is even more marked. The Canada Atlantic Railway Company carries wheat by steamer From Duluth to Parry Sound and thence by rail to Montreal for 5 cents per bushel, or 6¼ cents per hundredweight, free of all terminal charges. Thus the rate from Minnesota to Montreal, via a Canadian road is almost exactly one-half the rate from Markdale, Grey County, Ontario, to the same place.

Nineteeen-twentieths of the grain passing over the Canada Atlantic road was grown in the United States, yet the Dominion Parliament at its last session voted several hundred thousand dollars to provide trans-shipping facilities for this line at its Montreal terminus. At the Parry Sound end of the line the railway provided its facilities at its own expense, but Mr. Tarte announced in Parliament that if the Government had only been asked to construct them it would have done so.

This is an example of the Tarte transportation policy. Everything for the railroads—nothing for the people. If the Ontario Liberal members would only act together, they could compel justice to the people of this province. They cannot move too soon.—The Weekly Sun.

Life of President McKinley.

(From the Guelph Herald of Sept. 16.)

The World Publishing Company of Guelph, Ont., have arranged to issue in Canada the best of all of the forthcoming books on the life of the late President McKinley. It will be a magnificent work profusely illustrated, written by Murat Halstead, the celebrated war correspondent, the man that was selected by the Government of the late President McKinley to write the official report on the Phillipine Islands. Murat Halstead has been a life-long friend of President McKinley, and it will be a labor of love for him to finish this book, which has long been in preparation. It will be complete—his boyhood, manhood, war services, political and social life, assassination, full account of the assassin and the anarchist's conspiracy connected therewith, medical treatment, death, burial and state funeral. The book is so cheap and so excellent that every family should have one.

We understand that a magnificent portrait of President McKinley, 18x22 inches in size, on card board, will be given with each copy of the book.

The work will be sold by subscription, and agents will find an announcement of interest to them in another column.
