FLESHERTON HAPPENINGS

The East Grey Exhibition held here on Thursday and Friday last was favs on some former occasions, but the quality was good. There were many tempting pieces in the culinary line and in the horticultural show there were many beautiful things to look upon. The display of adies' work was without doubt the largest ever shown here and much more room was needed ing a much admired collection of to see him go from our midst. paintings and drawings. Mr. W. H. Thurston showed a collection of photographs and scenes which were very artistic and greatly admired. Mr. W. Moore had a fine show of harness and W. H. Bunt likewise in furniture. In penmanship and free hand drawing the competition was keep. In the former the prizes were rewarded respectively to Ethel Whitten, Mable Boyd, Bert Barnhouse; in the latter to Flossie Thurston, Ethel Whitten, Bert Barnhouse. In the outside exhibit D. Mc-Tayish and J. H. Heard were to the front with their usual fine show of carriages which attracted many sightseers throughout the day. The stock exhibit throughout and poultry was good. The speeding in the ring was keenly contested. In the open trot, Dorah, owned by Mr. Reid, Chatsworth won 1st; Vickey Clock,-2nd; Princo Erie, C. Palmer, Dundalk. 3rd; prizes $45, $20, $10, 2.40 trot Maybird, H. Wilkins, 1st; Lily Wilkins, Reid, 2nd; Seaforth, Hames, 3rd; prizes $25, $15, $10. make the cut. After dinner on Friday the Flesher ton public school turned out in fine order and with flags aloft, led by the Markdale Band, marched to the agricultural grounds where the afternoon was enjoyably spent. The slowmen and fruit vendors were well patronized. The gate receipts were $239,00. In the awarding of prizes the following acted as Judges: Horses-J. E. Marsh, Markdale, W. Black, Durham; Cattle -E. Parkins, J. McMorris, Ravenna, H. Tucker, Ceylon; Sheep and swine -J. McNicholl, Priceville; Poultry and wit-T. Brown, C. Firth, Durham; grain and roots, etc.—S. McCullough, Dundalk, A. Plewes, Markdale; dairy products D. K. McArthur, Hayesville; ladies work, fine arts and plants-Mrs. C. Knott, Epping, Miss McCullough, Dundalk, Miss Miller and Miss Madill, Shelburne; penmanship and drawing-P. S. Inspector Campbell, of Durham.

The Society concert on Friday evening was also a success. The Town Hall was crowded to the doors with an audience both orderly and appreciative. The program was given by Mr. Le Roy Kenny and Miss La Dell and the hearty encores given to nearly every numbers was an evidence that they were pleasing their audience. Miss La Dell excels in Scotch dialect and child mimicry. The program concluded with a comedietta, "A Happy Pair," in which both actors played their part well. Mr. M. K. Richardson occupied the chair. Proceeds of concert $59.00.

The Markdale Band farnished a liberal supply of excellent music both afternoon and evening. The STANDARD editor was a visitor at the fair and Appeared well pleased with the show. Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather on Sabbath last the Methodist church anniversary was a decided suc-cess. In the morning Rev. Mr. Wilson gave an interesting talk to boys and girls on the 23rd Ps. which was followed by an excellent sermon on "Inspired Philanthrophy" or doing good based on Gal. 6: 10. In the evening Rev. Mr. Thom chose for his theme the song of Ps. 40: 3, and considered first, What occasioned the song, secondly, The song itself, and lastly, The effect of the song. The excellent music rendered by the choir at both services was a treat in itself and We are sure was greatly enjoyed by the congregations. The thankoffering exceeded the $100 asked for by the trustee board and a considerable amount will come in yet from some unable to
