COUNTRY PRODUCE.

Butter.—The heavy offerings of low grade and medium goods continue to depress the market, and it is expected that creameries also will soon offer heavily and cause a still further decline. Many cheese factories are at present expecting greater profit out of creamery than out of cheese and are going into their manufacture.

This is expected to cause a large scattering of creamery in the near future. The best dairy pound rolls are now quoted at 17c and the choice pails and tubs at 16c. The lowest price for off-grade is 12c, but anything which has to sell from 12c to 16c is dragging, as the consumers of low grade or medium goods wish to get them at 12c.

Creamery—in fair demand and steady at 18c to 20c for solid and 21c to 21½c for prints.

Eggs—Choice new laid stock is offering plentifully now and the market is firm. Prices are steady at 17c for selected stock, and ordinary are quoted at 14c to 16c.

Turkeys are quoted at 10c to 12c for fresh killed, dry-plucked young birds, 11c to 12c for young gobblers and 9c to 10c for old gobblers.

FRUIT AND PRODUCE MARKETS.

Synopsis of Toronto fruit and produce market, by the Dawson Commission Co., limited:

Apples are in good demand and are coming in in all kinds of packages—apple barrels, sugar barrels, baskets and boxes. Good apples, well packed, are selling at $2.50 to $3.50 per bushel, the latter price for fine apples suitable for table. Sugar bushels are selling at about the same price but not so readily because not so attractive as well packed fruit. Baskets are selling at 20 to 35c per basket. Toronto will be able to take care of all the apples sent to her market, and the Dawson Commission Co. thinks their prices will average around 20c per bushel during the season. They will be making good sales at 20c per bushel.

to $2.50 per bushel and 20 to 30c per basket. Pears are about done. Shape apple noted good demand. Small Conards, small baskets, 15 to 20c; Niagara, 20 to 25c; Rogers, 25 to 30c; large baskets, Conards, 30 to 35c; Niagara, 35 to 40c; Rogers, 45 to 50c.

Eggs—Case lots, 15 to 17c per dozen; strictly new laid would sell at 18 to 22c. Butter—choice D rolls, 16 to 19c; crocks and tubs, 14 to 17c; inferior butter, all kinds, 12c to 14c; creamy rolls, 20 to 25c; creamy tubs, 20 to 24c.

Chickens (spring) 40c to 60c per pair; old fowls, 30 to 50c per pair; geese, 6 to 7c per lb; ducks, 50 to 75c; turkeys (small plump birds), 10 to 12c per lb; large turkeys sell at 8 to 10c per lb. Live chickens were all deserted, the Boers having fled into the mountains with their families, who lived in caves and wagons.

Some twenty-five women and children were found in one cave high up a mountain, the Boers having hauled them up by means of ropes. They ranged in ages from 22 to 25. Headless, and dressed neatly, appeared at Mrs. French's house and presented a paper which alleged that they were authorized agents of a local gas company and that they wished to examine the gas meters.

After completing their supposed duties the men went away, but later returned, "to turn on the gas," which they said they had forgotten to do. After ten minutes in the cellar the men came upstairs, and without warning fell upon the two helpless women, beating them into insensibility. Two of the brutes then stood guard over the prostrate victims while the third ransacked the house, securing diamonds, watches, sealskin racks, etc., valued at more than $3,000. Locking the bruised and bleeding women in the cellar, the burglars cut the telephone wires running into the house, and after occupying nearly two hours in their work, leisurely departed.

The export trade was light; the best price to-day was $4.75 per cwt. Butcher cattle were dull; no doubt good stuff would have gone well had it been here, but the best price paid was $3.90, though more money may have been given for ordered lots. Secondary and inferior cattle sold for anything it would fetch.

Stockers are quoted unchangeably. Feeders are in fair demand at steady unchanged prices.

We had no good hulch cows here, though cows of a good grade are wanted. Prices to-day ranged from $25 to $45 each.

There is a steady demand for a better class of calves than is coming along at present.

Small steers was steadier to-day.

Export ewes are worth from $3 to $3.15 per cwt.

Lambs are worth ten cents more as choice stuff sold to-day at $3.60 per cwt.

Bucks are worth from $2 to $2.50 per cwt.

Hogs were unchanged to-day, but prospects are for still lower prices.

The best price for "singers" is 6c per lb; thick fat and light hogs are worth 6c per lb.

Hogs to fetch the top prices must be of prime quality, and scale not below 100 nor above 200 lbs.

LIVED TO BE 160.

And Had All His Teeth When He Passed Away.

A despatch from London says: "A death from Albania, of Ismail Hudjo, who claimed to be the oldest man in the world. It is said that he was 160 years old. His faculties were unimpaired, and he had all his teeth when he died. He leaves two hundred descendants."

ALGOMA'S POPULATION.

Full Returns Show Total to be 64,000.

Inst. of 56,500.

A despatch from Ottawa says:

"The Lemire papers report broad riots at Taraskova, Eastern Russia, says the Vienna correspondent of the Daily Mail. In Sumar, the starving peasants stormed the municipal buildings and the residence of wealthy persons, setting scenes of fire. They were summoned and a regiment was sent to quell the rebels.

"Smaller riots in which several persons were killed occurred at Andzher, where two land owners had been murdered, and also at Dzhankov, and elsewhere in the same district."

BRUTAL BURGLARY.

Two Women Over Sixty Beaten and Robbed.

A despatch from Rochester, N.Y., says: "One of the boldest and most deliberate burglaries recorded in the history of the city was carried out with consummate skill and brutality at No. 136 Siclo street on Tuesday afternoon. Two elderly women, Mrs. L. M. French and Mrs. A. A. Gardner, both about 60 years old, were the victims, and were relieved of personal property amounting, all told, to over $3,000. At about 3:30 in the afternoon three young men, ranging in ages from 22 to 25, headless, and dressed neatly, appeared at Mrs. French's house and presented a paper which alleged that they were authorized agents of a local gas company and that they wished to examine the gas meters.

After completing their supposed duties the men went away, but later returned, "to turn on the gas," which they said they had forgotten to do.

Hard they could not assist them out and had to leave them there.

Most of the women gathered up by the columns at other places were at first very bitter, and when asked why they had fled from their homes on the approach of the British stated that the Boers had told them most frightful stories of how women and children were ill-treated by the British. But they were not long in realizing the absurdity of these yarns. After being a few days in British hands, the women appeared quite happy, and offered to bake bread for the officers.

LEFT IN THEIR CAVES.

British Were Unable to Rescue Boer Women.

A despatch from London says:

"Writing from Bloemfontein, Reuter's correspondent states that during General Elliot's operations along the eastern border northwards, the farms were all deserted, the Boers having fled into the mountains with their families, who lived in caves and wagons.

Some twenty-five women and children were found in one cave high up a mountain, the Boers having hauled them up by means of ropes. They ranged in ages from 22 to 25.
