Better spend a few moments each day inhaling Catarrhozone, an aromatic antiseptic that relieves at once, clears the head, throat, and nostrils, and saves many of those who would otherwise fall victims to Catarrh. The Address Label.

The little address label on a newspaper is a gentle reminder to the subscriber, indicating every week when the subscription expires. True there are those who do not seem to understand its full meaning, and others who are indifferent, but the majority of Standard subscribers are prompt paying. When the label on the Standard says Dec. 01, that means that the subscription is paid to Dec. 1901, or if it is Dec. 00 that means Dec. 1900. It is embarrasing to the publisher when a large proportion of his subscribers allow themselves to become in arrears. The difficulty of collecting such a number of small amounts scattered over a large area is certainly perplexing. Just imagine one depending on twelve hundred people for one dollar each scattered thusly, the present distribution of the Standard:

In British Columbia	36
North West Territories	17
Manitoba	38
United States	63
Ontario	1094
Total	1248

This is our present list not including about 35 exchanges. Our patrons are invited to sympathize with us practically and give heed to the little label.

Important to Farmers.

Farmers and stock breeders who have been readers of the "Family Herald and Weekly Star," will find a still greater improvement this year in the agricultural pages of that great paper. The "Family Herald," we learn has added to their already large number of editors, Mr. J. B. Spenser, one of the best known agricultural journalists in Canada. Mr. Spenser has for years been associate editor of "The Farmer's Advocate," and is recognized as an able authority on Agricultural and Live Stock Questions. The "Family Herald" will be more valuable than ever to the farming community, and Mr. Spenser is to be congratulated in his new position with the leading paper of America.

Rural Deanery of Grey.

The Anglican Clergy of Grey met at Owen Sound on the afternoon of the 25th inst., when the Bishop of Huron presided at a "Quiet Day" or "Retreat." At 8 o'clock special services were held in St. George's Church, the Rev. J. R. Newell being the preacher. At 10 o'clock next morning the Holy Communion was administered, the Venerable Archdeacon Mullholland being the celebrant, assisted by the Rev. Rural Dean Ryan, and the Rev. James Ardill. Afterward the Bishop gave an excellent Bible-reading. At 2.30 the R. D. chapter met for the transaction of business. The Rev. E. Appleyard was appointed secretary in succession to the Rev. Dr. Caswell, who asked to be relieved of the office on account of ill-health. The missions committee elected were the Rev. James Ardill and Mr. Lee, of Owen Sound, and the Rev. J. R. Newell and Mr. O. Walker, of Markdale. The Woman's Auxiliary of the township met the same afternoon in St. George's school room, and was presided over by Mrs. Baldwin. The Bishop addressed the meeting. The delegate from the Markdale branch was Miss Mann.
